Past Or Portal? Eleanor Mitchell,Peggy Seiden,Suzy Taraba,2012 In the age of ubiquitous access to information library special collections and archives have received renewed attention through digitization projects designed to share collections with the world at large Yet these materials also offer opportunities for student learning through direct engagement with rare or unique items While special collections and archives have largely been used by advanced researchers and scholars an increasing number of undergraduate courses are taking advantage of these materials as guides in the instructional process

The American Journal of Archaeology and of the History of the Fine Arts ,1894 The Pursuit of Ruins Christina Bueno,2016-10-15 Famous for its majestic ruins Mexico has gone to great lengths to preserve and display the remains of its pre Hispanic past The Pursuit of Ruins argues that the government effort to take control of the ancient remains took off in the late nineteenth century during the dictatorship of Porfirio Díaz Under Díaz Mexico acquired an official history more firmly rooted in Indian antiquity This prestigious pedigree served to counter Mexico's image as a backward peripheral nation The government claimed symbolic links with the great civilizations of pre Hispanic times as it hauled statues to the National Museum and reconstructed Teotihuacán Christina Bueno explores the different facets of the Porfirian archaeological project and underscores the contradictory place of indigenous identity in modern Mexico While the making of Mexico's official past was thought to bind the nation together it was an exclusionary process one that celebrated the civilizations of bygone times while disparaging contemporary Indians The Social Archaeology of Food Christine A.

Hastorf,2016-11-22 This book offers a global perspective on the role food has played in shaping human societies through both individual and collective identities It integrates ethnographic and archaeological case studies from the European and Near Eastern Neolithic Han China ancient Cahokia Classic Maya the Inka and many other periods and regions to ask how the meal in particular has acted as a social agent in the formation of society economy culture and identity Drawing on a range of social theorists Hastorf provides a theoretical toolkit essential for any archaeologist interested in foodways Studying the social life of food this book engages with taste practice the meal and the body to discuss power identity gender and meaning that creates our world as it created past societies Booklist ,1964 Creative Education, Teaching and Learning Gayle
