recount the buy delivery voyage home and product offload They capture the eccentric personalities of the men and women who transformed the Thai marijuana trade from a GI cottage industry into a professionalized business moving the world's most lucrative commodities unraveling a rare history from the smugglers perspective Highly recommended for anyone who loves adventure cannabis surfing or all of the above It's every single bit as heady energetic and captivating as the title implies Cannabis Now G.K. Hall Women's Studies Index, 2001 Index to Dance Periodicals, 2001 Index to Jewish Periodicals, 2003 An author and subject index to selected and American Anglo Jewish journals of general and scholarly interests Zero Space Frank Lekanne Deprez, Rene L. Tissen, 2002-06-02 Zero Space defines a business model in which an organization achieves success without owning assets or needing management Through eight new organizational principles the authors illustrate how zero mindedness is essential for the new economy Resource description page

Writing Queer Women of Color Monalesia Earle, 2019-08-30 Queer women of color have historically been underrepresented or excluded completely in fiction and comics When present they are depicted as less than the white Eurocentric norm Drawing on semiotics queer theory and gender studies this book addresses the imbalanced representation of queer women of color in graphic narratives and fiction and explores ways of rewriting queer women of color back into the frame The author interrogates what it means to be Other and how Othering can be more creatively resisted New Glass Review, 2002 An Outsider's Guide to Antifa Matthew Knouff, 2017-11-22 The first volume of an introductory guide to the anti fascist movement focusing on historical fascism and the predecessor enemies to fascism the epistemology of fascism and the psychology of fascism and left wing activism Proceedings, 2003 Violation: Collected Essays Sallie Tisdale, 2016-04-18 Most Anticipated Too The Great 2016 Nonfiction Book Preview The Millions GROUNDBREAKING A career defining book The New Yorker Sallie Tisdale is the author of seven books on such varied subjects as medical technology her pioneer ancestors and Buddhist women teachers Her many essays have appeared in Harper's Conjunctions The New Yorker Antioch Review Threepenny Review and many other journals This first collection of work spans thirty years and includes an introduction and brief epilogues to each essay Tisdale's questing curiosity pursues subjects from the biology of flies to the experience of working in an abortion clinic why it is so difficult to play sports with men and whether it's possible for writers to tell the truth She restlessly returns to themes of the body the family and how we try to explain ourselves to each other She is unwilling to settle for easy answers and finds the ambiguity and wonder underneath ordinary events The collection includes a recent essay never before published about the mystery of how we present ourselves to each other and whether it is possible to know even our own inner lives Marine Fisheries Review, 2004 Environment Concerns in Rights-of-Way Management 8th International Symposium John W. Goodrich-Mahoney, Lawrence Abrahamson, Jennifer Ballard, Susan Tikalsky, 2011-08-11 The management of rights of way by electric and telephone utilities highway departments gas pipeline companies and railroads around the world is guided and constrained by policies and regulations to protect the environment Companies that manage rights of way are required to comply with these regulations and are seeking the most cost effective management practices that at the same time demonstrate stewardship of the environment Protection of biodiversity and sustainable development are especially important as national goals in many countries and rights of way managers are seeking practical ways to include public participation in their operations Addresses environmental issues in rights of way planning and management Provides a forum for information exchange among various agencies industries environmental consultants and academic organizations Presents peer reviewed papers to help achieve a better understanding of current environmental issues involved in rights of way management Pacific Salmon Fisheries Management Off the Coasts of Southeast Alaska, Washington, Oregon, and California, and in the Columbia River Basin ,2004

Inclusive Practices and Social Justice Leadership for Special Populations in Urban Settings M.C. Kate Esposito,Anthony H. Normore,2015-04-01 Inclusive Practices and Social Justice Leadership for Special Populations in Urban Settings A Moral Imperative is comprised of a collection of chapters written by educators who refuse to let the voices of dissent remain marginalized in our discussion of education in the 21st century education Drawing from the authors extensive experience in educational research and practice coupled with their commitment to inclusion of special populations and social justice they urge readers to examine how educational policies are produced for the least advantaged in our schools Effective inclusionary practices most certainly benefit all students including English language learners those who face gender discrimination those who are in the foster care system and those who are Gay Lesbian Bisexual or Transgendered This collection presents a broader theoretical inclusive framework rooted in social justice which we assert offers the best practices for a greater number of students who are at risk of minimal academic success This broader conceptualization of inclusive schools adds to extant discourses about students with exceptional needs and provides effective strategies school leaders operating from a social justice framework can implement to create more inclusive school environments for all students especially those in urban centers It is hoped that lessons learned will improve the preparation and practice of school leaders thus improve educational outcomes for students from special populations Countering Terrorism and Insurgency in the 21st Century James J. F. Forest,2007-06-30 The attacks of September 11 2001 inaugurated a new global era of counterterrorism policy and activity led by the United States Countering Terrorism and Insurgency in the 21st Century analyzes the most significant dimensions of combating terrorism including considerations of strategic and tactical issues hard power soft power and counterintelligence the need to thwart sources and facilitators weak governments ill conceived foreign policy and trafficking in drugs guns and humans and the incorporation of lessons learned thus far from combating terrorism around the globe Since the dawn of the new millennium combating terrorism has become a primary focus of security professionals throughout the world The attacks of September 11 2001 inaugurated a new global era of counterterrorism policy and activity led by the United States while many countries from Algeria and Spain to Sri Lanka and Indonesia have redoubled their efforts to combat their own indigenous terrorism threats In the United States the counterterrorism goals identified in the National Strategy for Combating Terrorism 2006 can only be achieved through significant multinational cooperation These goals are to advance effective democracies as the long term antidote to the ideologies of terrorism to prevent attacks by terrorist networks to deny terrorists the support and sanctuary of rogue states to deny terrorists control of any nation they would use as a base and launching pad for terror and to lay the foundations and build the institutions and structures we need to carry the fight forward against terror and help ensure our ultimate success At this point in the development of the global counterterrorism efforts it is particularly important to pause for reflection on a number of critical questions What do we know about effectively countering terrorism What are the characteristics of successful or unsuccessful counterterrorism campaigns What do we need to learn in order to do this better Countering Terrorism and Insurgency in the 21st Century addresses these and related questions contributing to national security policy as well as to our understanding of the terrorist threat and how it can be defeated Volume 1 Strategic and Tactical Considerations examines issues of hard power soft power and intelligence counterintelligence Volume 2 Sources and Facilitators covers state failure border controls democracy promotion networks and trade and trafficking and societal issues Volume 3 Lessons Learned from Combating Terrorism and Insurgency includes case studies of counterterrorism operations e g the hijacking of the Achille Lauro the 1993 bombing of the World Trade Center and the capture of key terrorist suspects like Ramzi Youssef and Khalid Sheikh Mohamad and case studies of long term efforts to combat terrorism e g the Basques in Spain the Tamil Tigers in Sri Lanka Israel's struggle against Palestinian terror organizations Peru and Sendero Luminoso and Japan and Aum Shinrikyo

China and East Asian Regionalism Suisheng Zhao, 2018-12-07 To convey the image of a responsible power willing to contribute to regional stability and cooperation China has shifted from a single minded preference for bilateralism to an active participation in East Asian regionalism in the recent decades This development has inspired discussions over whether a rising China could play a leadership role in building an institutionalized architecture for regional cooperation in East Asia Nevertheless this has not happened as East Asian regional cooperation and relevant activities remain mostly ad hoc and informal especially when compared to regions such as Europe To what extent has China contributed or constrained the development of regionalism in East Asia What are China's desired roles and objectives in East Asian regional cooperation What is the level of trust that other regional players have for China in regional cooperation This book seeks answers to these questions by exploring China's motivations and strategic calculations as well as its policy practices in East Asian economic and security cooperation This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary China Globalisation and the Rule of Law Spencer Zifcak, 2004-08-02 This book reassesses the idea of the rule of law within the present complex and increasingly internationalised environment and is the first to relate globalisation exclusively to law Ireland's Great Famine in Irish-American History Mary Kelly, 2013-11-18 Ireland's Great Famine in Irish American History Enshrining a Fateful Memory offers a new concise interpretation of the history of the Irish in America. Author and distinguished professor Mary Kelly's book is the first synthesized volume to track Ireland's Great Famine within America's immigrant history and to consider the impact of the Famine on Irish ethnic identity between the mid 1800s and the end of the twentieth century. Moving beyond traditional emphases on Irish American cornerstones such as church, party, and education, the book maps the Famine's legacy over a century and a half of settlement and assimilation. This is the first attempt to contextualize a painful memory that has endured fitfully and unquestionably throughout Irish American historical experience.
