Portrait Of A Survivor:

Survivor Harry Borden, 2017-01-26 A masterpiece and deeply moving Alain de Botton A wonderful piece of work Lynn Barber something really to behold a substantial project of some real depth and authority By flicking through the pages you can sense the amount of research patience and hard work that has been invested The portraits as always with Borden are simple effective and very telling Martin Parr Survivor is a unique and powerful testimony of what it is to live with memories of the Holocaust Over the course of five years acclaimed photographer Harry Borden has travelled the globe photographing survivors of the Holocaust The people featured vary in age gender and nationality but are all tied together by their experience and survival of one of the darkest moments in human history Each photograph is accompanied by a handwritten note from the sitter ranging from poems to memories to hopes for the future creating a strong sense of intimacy between sitter and reader At the end of the book is a section providing more information about the person in each portrait and about how and what they survived together with the historical context of the events they lived through Thought provoking and touching this book conveys the dignity and humanity of each subject's character Susan Hayward, Portrait of a Survivor

Beverly Linet, 1981-12-01 Portrait of a Survivor, 1977 Self-Portrait of a Holocaust Survivor Werner Weinberg, 2017-12-31 The breadth of Werner Weinberg's scholarship was prodigious yielding monographs on ancient Hebrew epigraphy and biblical exegesis the syntax of Rabbinic Hebrew medieval grammars and numerous studies on various aspects of Modern Hebrew Both Weinberg and Lisl his wife survived internment at the Bergen Belsen concentration camp This collection of essays reprinted here a little more than three decades after it first appeared conveys Weinberg's ongoing struggle to put into words something that might offer understanding to post Holocaust generations But they are also about a survivor's own desire for meaning and sense in a senseless world Most essays are framed around a series of questions which constitute Weinberg's prison and each time he attempts to pass through its portal he finds himself held back at the threshold Self Portrait of a Holocaust Survivor fuses together Weinberg's most personal reflections alongside careful analysis by an erudite theologian fully versed in traditional Jewish sources and historiography He moves between resisting and acquiescing to the implications of Bergen Belsen never shying away from the most painful questions about God morality virtue and the individual's potential to do good While today there is a vast literature penned by Holocaust survivors and historians this collection grapples with the concept of survivorship from a unique perspective Portrait of a Survivor Beverly

Serino-Barbour, 2019-07-11 Domestic violence is a real issue in our world that is not gender specific some men suffer as victims also nor is it something that is limited to a region This is a worldwide problem Sadly not everyone who has become victims of domestic violence makes it out alive While many do get out the question is do they stay out Recidivism is not just a problem that fills up jails It is a problem that has frustrated many who has tried to help the victim of abuse escape their abuser Then there is the unexpected turn of events wherein the victim changes face to become the abuser What every individual need to know if they are victims themselves or family friend to a victim is that it is possible to escape the bondage of abuse completely never to return to it Portrait Of A Survivor tells the story of how one woman s struggle to escape domestic violence turned into a determination to overcome it thru rising above it by helping others find the strength to survive also Get Your copy today Portrait of the Artist as a Survivor Michael Neal Noland,1982 The Girl in the Lion's Mouth Dita Gould,2020-08-17 Dita Gould was an eleven year old child when the Nazis invaded Hungary in 1944 and overturned her peaceful family life Separated from her parents and responsible for her little sister she suffered deprivations and nearly starved but survived with indomitable spirit and courage Reunited with her parents after the war she migrated with her family to Australia where her father was able to start a new business and settle to create a successful life In her first full length book written in her late 80s Dita has shared her remarkable life journey documenting a period of history that should never be forgotten An extraordinary woman with an incredible story Harry Borden attractive intelligent vivacious brave determined and full of enthusiasm Henry Harry R Lew Nothing stops the amazing Dita What a wonderful example to others of resilience and positivity Ron Raab Unbroken Chains Melissa Ditmore,2023-05-09 An urgent exposition of the pervasive human trafficking that lies just beneath the surface of the US economy from the stories of its survivors The years of the COVID 19 pandemic have brought to light the exploitation of workers In this moment of heightened visibility Unbroken Chains demands that readers examine the hidden sector of American trafficked labor and understand its prevalence across our economy Drawing from nearly two decades of research on US and international human trafficking Melissa Hope Ditmore sets forth the harrowing stories of human trafficking survivors and grounds their accounts in the long history of US indentured servitude looking to its iterations in chattel slavery Chinese contract labor and prison labor In this groundbreaking investigation of American trafficking Ditmore unveils the unnerving reality that forced labor permeates many industries beyond sex work in almost every aspect of consumption people who create our everyday necessities are working amid inescapable exploitation often without pay Unbroken Chains tells these workers stories They are nannies for New York City s diplomatic elites and door to door magazine salespeople in the American South A trafficked person may have harvested your produce sewn your clothes or cleaned your apartment lobby Ditmore offers readers an illuminating window on the world of forced labor which exists within our own and a road map for participating in its destruction Unbroken Chains will include more than a dozen images including detailed maps archival pictures and trafficking documents Among these images are a modern map of the Sonoran Desert in the American Southwest a bill of sale for an enslaved woman forced into sex work letters from men in compulsory plantation labor after the Civil War and 19th century white slave panic propaganda Holocaust Museum Robert Fitterman,2013-09-18 Holocaust Museum reframes the captions of holocaust photographs from the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington DC These captions without their photographic images are arranged loosely in the order or narrative constructed by the museum There are many purposes to this project but the genesis is in articulating a cultural shift from image to text The subject this particular holocaust was chosen because the images are shared in our collective memory by presenting only the text the reader is hopefully consigned into a more complicit experience

Portrait of a Survivor Florence M. Soghoian,1997 The Portrait Medallions of David D'Ángers J. G. Reinis,1999 Oblivio Gate Sean Nevin,2008-11-11 Suffused with lyrical grace and the language of loss Sean Nevin s Oblivio Gate explores the mental and emotional struggles of Solomon a veteran battling the onslaught of Alzheimer s disease Set against Solomon s memories of the Korean War Nevin s poems draw us into an intimate view of a man s confusion as everything he knows slowly unravels around him leaving him abandoned in the suddenly unfamiliar landscape of his own mind Readers experience first hand Solomon s dismay as he watches himself inexorably slip away from reality fighting to hold on to the shreds of his identity Intertwined with his perspective are the voices of loved ones and caregivers who can only watch helplessly as Solomon is ravaged by the illness Also central to the collection are the figures of Aurora and Tithonus the famously doomed couple of mythology whose own happiness was destroyed by the inevitability of age and the betrayal of the body But if this evocative portrait of Alzheimer s disease is tragic it is also at moments inspiring Oblivio Gate reveals not only what is lost but also what is found what is pure and even what is funny in our fleeting lives Ultimately Sean Nevin crafts an unforgettable collection of contemporary poetry that yields heartbreaking insight into memory the mind and an affliction that has left millions lost and looking for themselves
