with a difference arguing that homosexuality has become an issue precisely because of the way in which we discuss debate and communicate about the concept and experience of homosexuality The debate over homosexuality is fundamentally an issue of communication as we can see by the recent controversy over gays in the military This controversy termed by one gay man as the annoying habit of heterosexual men to overestimate their own attractiveness has been debated in communication sensitive terms such as morale and discipline The twenty chapters address such subjects as gay political language homosexuality and AIDS on prime time television the politics of male homosexuality in young adult fiction the identification of female athleticism with lesbianism the politics of identity in the works of Edmund White and coming out strategies This is must reading for students of communication practices and theory and for everyone interested in human sexuality Contributing to the book are James Chesebro Indiana State James Darsey Ohio State Joseph A Devito Hunter College CUNY Timothy Edgar Purdue Mary Anne Fitzpatrick Wisconsin Madison Karen A Foss Humboldt State Kirk Fuoss St Lawrence Larry Gross Pennsylvania Darlene Hantzis Indiana State Fred E Jandt California State San Bernardino Mercilee Jenkins San Francisco State Valerie Lehr St Lawrence Lynn C Miller Texas Austin Marguerite Moritz Colorado Boulder Fred L Myrick Spring Hill Emile Netzhammer Buffalo State Elenie Opffer Dorothy S Painter Ohio State Karen Peper Michigan Nicholas F Radel Furman R Jeffrey Ringer St Cloud State Scott Shamp Georgia Paul Siegel Gallaudet Jacqueline Taylor Depaul Julia T Wood North Carolina Chapel Hill The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1902 Closet

Writing/Gay Reading James Creech, 1993 One of the most urgent tasks for gay studies today James Creech argues is the retrieval of a repressed closeted literary heritage But contradictions and problems cloud even the most basic theoretical questions What does a lesbian or gay reading of a literary text require or presume Can we talk about a homosexual writer expressing him or herself before the invention of homosexuality Was it possible for a writer like Herman Melville for example to create literary works linked to his own prohibited eros In Closet Writing Gay Reading Creech shows how a literary critic can be receptive to implicit and closeted sexual content Forcefully advocating a tactic of identification and projection in literary analysis he lends renewed currency to the kind of sentimental response to literature that continental theory particularly deconstruction has sought to discredit In the second half of his book Creech sets out to analyze what he considers the exemplary novel of the nineteenth century closet Melville's Pierre or The Ambiguities By approaching Pierre as the gay man Melville longed to have as its reader Creech is able to decipher the novel's encrypted erotics and to reveal that Melville's apparent tale of incest is actually a homosexual novel in disguise The closeted address to queer sensitive readers that Pierre disseminates finally receives a critical reading that strives to be explicit shareable and public The Pursuit of Spiritual Wisdom Naomi E. Maurer, Vincent van Gogh, Paul Gauguin, 1998 This book explores van Gogh's and Gauguin's concepts of spirituality in life and art and the ways in which their ideas and the events of their personal lives shaped their creation of repertoires of meaningful symbolic motifs The Novel in Anglo-German Context, 2021-10-18 The Novel in

Anglo German Context focuses on cross currents and affinities between fiction written in English and fiction written in German and the thirty one contributors to this volume cover authors from the eighteenth century to the present day The essays collected in this book approach the theme of Anglo German cultural cross fertilisation from a number of different angles These include the reception and translation of foreign authors the examination of exile writers the comparative exploration of aspects which are crucial to both German Austrian or Swiss and British or Irish novelists at a given point in time the fictional depiction of the respective other culture Anglo German images in the novel as well as the role of the novel in the curricula of German and British secondary education The topics chosen by the contributors offer stimulating views on a wide range of subject areas and the volume is essential reading for anyone with a broad interest in Anglo Irish German Austrian and Swiss literature the development of fiction as well as Anglo German literary and cultural relations

Novel Gazing Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick,1997-12-15 Novel Gazing is the first collection of queer criticism on the history of the novel The contributors to this volume navigate new territory in literary theory with essays that implicitly challenge the hermeneutic of suspicion widespread in current critical theory In a stunning introductory essay Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick delineates the possibilities for a criticism that would be reparative rather than cynical or paranoid The startlingly imaginative essays in the volume explore new critical practices that can weave the pleasures and disorientations of reading into the fabric of queer analyses Through discussions of a diverse array of British French and American novels including major canonical novels best sellers children s fiction and science fiction these essays explore queer worlds of taste texture joy and ennui focusing on such subjects as flogging wizardry exorcism dance Zionist desire and Internet sexuality Interpreting the works of authors as diverse as Benjamin Constant Toni Morrison T H White and William Gibson along with canonical queer modernists such as James Proust Woolf and Cather contributors reveal the wealth of ways in which selves and communities succeed in extracting sustenance from the objects of a culture whose avowed desire has often been not to sustain them The dramatic reframing that these essays perform will make the significance of Novel Gazing extend beyond the scope of queer studies to literary criticism in general Contributors Stephen Barber Renu Bora Anne Chandler James Creech Tyler Curtain Jonathan Goldberg Joseph Litvak Michael Lucey Jeff Nunokawa Cindy Patton Jacob Press Robert F Reid Pharr Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick Melissa Solomon Kathryn Bond Stockton John Vincent Maurice Wallace Barry Weller
