Portrait and Place Giulia Paoletti,2024-03-05 Strategically located on the Atlantic Ocean at the westernmost point of the continent Senegal is well known as an epicenter of Africa s modernities modernisms and liberation movements It was also one of the countries where the daguerreotype first arrived in sub Saharan Africa before circulating inland and across the region At that time Senegal did not exist as a nation state local kingdoms were still in power and the French presence was limited to trading posts along the coast The pioneers of photography in the 1840s were not exclusively Europeans but also African African American and Asian entrepreneurs In the decades that followed amateurs and professionals working in rural areas continued to explore and expand photography s possibilities Senegal s photographic histories thrived as part of a global visual economy during and despite the colonial experience Its works emerged as an integral part of the history of this medium which unlike any other was a global enterprise from the very beginning Portrait and place offers the first history of photography in this important country from its first iterations photographers and patrons of the 1840s to photographers such as Oumar Ka b 1930 and Mama Casset 1908 1992 who were active in the 1960s during the transition from the colonial to the postcolonial era Giulia Paoletti presents close studies of photographs firmly anchoring these objects their authors and their consumers in a global context that extends across West Africa the Black Atlantic and the greater Islamic community in other words beyond the borders of colonial empire Based on over ten years of field and archival research in Senegal this book features almost exclusively new previously unpublished visual material and explores both professional and amateur artists working in a wide variety of genres from landscape to portraiture and in media such as daguerreotypes and glass paintings As the first book to focus exclusively on Senegal s photographic histories Portrait and place expands the notions of what the medium has been and can be from a Eurocentric model to one that is decidedly insistently larger and more inclusive

The Ickniel Way: Portraits the English Countryside Edward Thomas, 2020-12-17 This title is one of Thomas s essays on travel which portrays the English countryside enriched with interesting historical details Edward Thomas 1878 1917 was a British poet essayist and novelist Thomas s poems are noted for their attention to the English countryside and a certain colloquial style His career in poetry only came after he had already been a successful writer and literary critic In 1915 he enlisted in the British Army to fight in the First World War and was killed in action during the Battle of Arras in 1917 soon after he arrived in France The short poem In Memoriam exemplifies how his poetry blends the themes of war and the countryside Much has been written of travel far less of the road Writers have treated the road as a passive means to an end and honoured it most when it has been an obstacle they leave the impression that a road is a connection between two points which only exists when the traveller is upon it Edward Thomas The Ickniel Way

Francis Herreshoff, 2022-06-15 The Golden Age of Yachting presents a panoramic view of yachting providing an insightful introduction to the pleasures craft and history of the sport with emphasis on the era of the great steam yachts It is a meticulous account based on accurate knowledge and detailed research Most yachting histories have been so much influenced by the nationality of the author that the British and American versions are quite different but L Francis Herreshoff was equally familiar with both sides He has given a much more factual account of the international races than can be found in other writings This book will appeal to the large group of amateur and professional seamen who strive to keep alive the traditions and lore of sail The book was first published by Sheridan House in 1963 under the title An Introduction to Yachting and reprinted in 1980 The title of this new paperback edition The Golden Age of Yachting more accurately reflects the treasures found in this magnificent volume      Mapping Impressionist Painting in Transnational Contexts Emily C. Burns, Alice M. Rudy Price, 2021-05-03 This book offers microhistories related to the transnational circulations of impressionism in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The contributors rethink the role of French impressionism in shaping these iterations by placing France within its global and imperialist context and arguing that impressionisms might be framed through the mobility studies concept of constellations of mobility Artists engaging with impressionism in France as in other global contexts relied on responded to appropriated and resisted elements of form and content based on fluid and interconnected political realities and market structures Written by scholars and curators the chapters demand reconsideration of impressionism as a historical construct and the meanings assigned to that term This project frames future discussion in art history cultural studies and global studies on the politics of appropriating impressionism      The Atlantic Monthly , 1929      Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
