Portrait Photographs From Isfahan Faces In Transition:

Portrait Photographs from Isfahan Parīsā Damandān Nafisī, 2004 Following the establishment of the Islamic Republic of Iran in 1979 photographs of women uncovered were forbidden resulting in the burning down of many photographers studios This work is a collection of pioneering photographs from the early twentieth century which offers a window on the changing face of Iranian society during that period

Liminalities of Gender and Sexuality in Nineteenth-Century Iranian Photography Staci Gem Scheiwiller, 2016-12-01 Nineteenth century Iran was an ocularcentered society predicated on visibility and what was seen and unseen and photographs became liminal sites of desire that maneuvered betwixt and between various social spaces public private seen unseen accessible and forbidden thus mapping graphing and even transgressing those spaces especially in light of increasing modernization and global contact during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Of primary interest is how photographs negotiated and coded gender sexuality and desire becoming strategies of empowerment of domination of expression and of being seen Hence the photograph became a vehicle to traverse multiple locations that various gendered physical bodies could not and it was also the social and political relations that had preceded the photograph that determined those ideological spaces of im mobility In identifying these notions in photographs one may glean information about how modern Iran metamorphosed throughout its own long dur e or resisted those societal transformations as a result of modernization

Antoin Sevruguin Tasha Vorderstrasse, 2020-12-31 Explore the changing world of late nineteenth century Iran through the gaze of one of its most renowned photographers Antoin Sevruguin This volume which will be accompanied by a forthcoming exhibition publishes for the first time the Oriental Institute Museums complete collection of nineteenth century Iranian photographs most of which were created by Sevruguin Sevruguins artfully staged photographs still resonate with us today Accompanying the print catalog is a series of essays that investigate Sevruguins life and photographic career including the lasting impact of his unique vision as demonstrated by the work of contemporary artist Yassaman Ameri

Making the Modern Turkish Citizen Özge Baykan Calafato, 2022-01-27 Featuring over 100 colour images this book explores the photographic self representations of the urban middle classes in Turkey in the 1920s and the 1930s Examining the relationship between photography and gender body space as well as materiality and language its six chapters explore how the production and circulation of vernacular photographs contributed to the making of the modern Turkish citizen in the formative years of the Turkish Republic when nation building secularization and modernization reforms took centre stage Based on an extensive photographic archive the book shows that individuals actively reproduced circulated and negotiated the ideal citizen image imposed by the Kemalist regime reflecting not only state imposed directives but also their class aspirations and other wider social and cultural developments of the period from Western fashion trends and movies to the increasing availability of modern consumer items Calafato also reveals that the freedom from state control afforded by personal cameras allowed the desired image to be sometimes tweaked by incorporating elements from Ottoman and Turkic traditions by pushing the boundaries of gender norms or by introducing playfulness Making the Modern Turkish Citizen offers a valuable portrait of the ongoing political and social changes on the lives of the Turkish middle class and of how they saw and wanted to present themselves privately and publicly The A to Z of Iran John H. Lorentz,2010-04-14 Iran is a country with a deep and complex history Over several thousand years Iran has been the source of numerous creative contributions to the spiritual and literary world and the site of many remarkable manifestations of material culture The special place that Iran has come to hold in contemporary historical events most recently as a center stage actor in the unfolding and interconnected drama of worldwide nuclear arms proliferation and terrorism is all the more reason to explore the characters and personality of Iran and Iranians The A to Z of Iran is designed to give the reader a quick and understandable overview of specific events movements people political and social groups places and trends Through its extensive chronology introduction bibliography appendixes and more than double the number of cross referenced dictionary entries as in the previous edition the work allows for considerable exploration of a number of historical and contemporary topics and issues In particular the modern period defined as 1800 present is covered extensively

Between Iran and Zion Lior B. Sternfeld,2018-11-06 Iran is home to the largest Jewish population in the Middle East outside of Israel At its peak in the twentieth century the population numbered around 100 000 today about 25 000 Jews live in Iran Between Iran and Zion offers the first history of this vibrant community over the course of the last century from the 1905 Constitutional Revolution through the 1979 Islamic Revolution Over this period Iranian Jews grew from a peripheral community into a prominent one that has made clear impacts on daily life in Iran Drawing on interviews newspapers family stories autobiographies and previously untapped archives Lior B Sternfeld analyzes how Iranian Jews contributed to Iranian nation building projects first under the Pahlavi monarchs and then in the post revolutionary Islamic Republic He considers the shifting reactions to Zionism over time in particular to religious Zionism in the early 1900s and political Zionism after the creation of the state of Israel And he investigates the various groups that constituted the Iranian Jewish community notably the Jewish communists who became prominent activists in the left wing circles in the 1950s and the revolutionary Jewish organization that participated in the 1979 Revolution The result is a rich account of the vital role of Jews in the social and political fabric of twentieth century Iran

The Indigenous Lens? Markus Ritter,Staci G. Scheiwiller,2017-12-18 The historiography of early photography has scarcely examined Islamic countries in the Near and Middle East although the new technique was adopted very quickly there by the 1840s Which regional local and global aspects can be made evident What role did autochthonous image and art traditions have and which specific functions did photography meet since its introduction This collective volume deals with examples from Iran the Ottoman Empire and the Arab lands and with the question of local specifics or an indigenous lens The contributions broach the issues of regional histories of photography local photographers specific themes and practices and historical collections in these countries They offer for the first time in book
