Portrait Of The King:

Portrait of the King Louis Marin, 1988      In the King's Wake Jay Caplan, 1999 Long before the guillotines of the 1789 Revolution brought a grisly political end to the ancien régime Jay Caplan argues the culture of absolutism had already perished In the King's Wake traces the emergence of a post absolutist culture across a wide range of works and genres Saint Simon's memoirs of Louis XIV and the Regency Voltaire's first tragedy Oedipe Watteau's last great painting L'Enseigne de Gersaint the plays of Marivaux and Casanova's History of My Life While absolutist culture had focused on value directly represented in people e.g. those of noble blood and things e.g. coins made of precious metals post absolutist culture instead explored the capacity of signs to stand for something real e.g. John Law's banknotes or Marivaux's plays in which actions rather than birth signify nobility Between the image of the Sun King and visions of the godlike Romantic self Caplan discovers a post absolutist France wracked by surprisingly modern conflicts over the true sources of value and legitimacy

The Drama of the Portrait: Theater and Visual Culture in Early Modern Spain, Examines theater and portraiture as interrelated social practices in seventeenth century Spain Features visual images and cross disciplinary readings of selected plays that employ the motif of the painted portrait to key dramatic and symbolic effect      The Exceptional Woman Mary D. Sheriff, 1997-10-24 Elisabeth Vigée Lebrun 1755-1842 was an enormously successful painter a favorite portraitist of Marie Antoinette and one of the few women accepted into the Royal Academy of Painting and Sculpture In her role as an artist she was simultaneously flattered as a charming woman and vilified as monstrously unfeminine In the Exceptional Woman Mary D. Sheriff uses Vigée Lebrun's career to explore the contradictory position of woman artist in the moral philosophical professional and medical debates about women in eighteenth century France Central to Sheriff's analysis is one key question given the cultural norms and social attitudes that regulated a woman's activities how could Vigée Lebrun conceive of herself as an artist and indeed become a successful one in old regime France Paying particular attention to painted and textual self portraits Sheriff shows how Vigée Lebrun's images and memoirs undermined the assumptions about woman and the strictures imposed on women Engaging ancien régime philosophy as well as modern feminism psychoanalysis literary theory and art criticism Sheriff's interpretations of Vigée Lebrun's paintings challenge us to rethink the work of this controversial woman artist      Food for Thought Louis Marin, 1997-05-14 From fairy tales to biblical narrative from the divine body in the eucharist to the body of Louis XIV as described in his physicians journals the peculiar relationship between speaking and eating boasting and gluttony lying and cannibalism A wicked queen orders the palace cook to kill her grandchildren and serve them up for dinner in a sauce Robert But as any good cook knows this sauce is properly served with game not domestic animals Does the ogress transgress Perhaps but the cook breaks the rules as well Deceiving his mistress he rescues the children and instead serves goat and lamb In this provocative volume Louis Marin treats a subject to which some of the most exciting literary criticism has been devoted the body as represented in text and image From fairy tales to biblical narrative from the divine body in the eucharist to the body of Louis XIV as described in his physicians journals Marin focuses on the peculiar relationship between verbal and oral functions speaking and eating boasting and gluttony lying and cannibalism Drawing on the methodologies of semiology philosophy of language and literary and art criticism Marin explores works by Rabelais La Fontaine Perrault and the Logic of Port Royal Throughout he is concerned with the conceptualization of desire and pleasure justice and force natural violence and political power and questions their ideological as well as their symbolic bases
