Portraits of Cities Dong Kingman,1997 Portraits of Cities Kilhae Lee Koo,1977 Participate! ,2021-10-12

Participate Portraits of Cities and Citizens in Action offers an introduction to the complex world of urban development identity and participation It explains how the self understanding of cities is mirrored in their approach to urban development The basis of the book is formed by portraits of six European cities Berlin Hamburg Paris Lyon Amsterdam and Groningen 00The book fills a gap as it provides general introductions to cities a brief outline of the city s planning system a short historic introduction to the city s planning culture With telling and outstanding examples of citizen participation this book offers important insights in both the intrinsic logic of the cities and the mechanisms sometimes more inclusive sometimes more exclusive of participation 00 Participate Is one of the results of the R link project a unique cooperation of Dutch policy makers and scholars on participation and urban development Of interest for urban planners architects city journalists and students and academics in the field of urban planning Paper Cities Susana S. Martins,Anne Reverseau,2016-04-21 Thought provoking case studies on cities photographs and booksPhotographic books are almost as old as photography itself and the city is one of their first and more recurring themes Cities have been and they continue to be intensely photographed under a wide variety of forms materialities intentions and genres This volume examines how a city can be moulded through the particularities of a photographic book suggesting how urban portraits configure an overlooked yet quite specific photo textual practice Ranging from early photography to contemporary works Paper Cities gathers thought provoking case studies from several international contexts providing new insights into art material culture history heritage and memory while simultaneously illuminating the debate on cities photographs and books Contributors Steven Jacobs Ghent University Simon Dell University of East Anglia Hugh Campbell University College Dublin Steven Humblett LUCA School of Arts Chris Balaschak Flagler College Annarita Teodosio University of Salerno Cecile Laly Universit Paris I M nica Pacheco University College London Douglas Klahr University of Texas Johanna M Blokker Bamberg University Philip Goldswain University of Western Australia Cities and Photography Jane Tormey,2013-01-17 Photographs display attitudes agency and vision in the way cities are documented and imagined Cities and Photography explores the relationship between people and the city visualized in photographs It provides a visually focused examination of the city and urbanism for a range of different disciplines across the social sciences and humanities photography and fine art This text offers different perspectives from which to view social political and cultural ideas about the city and urbanism through both verbal discussion and photographic representation It provides introductions to theoretical conceptions of the city that are useful to photographers addressing urban issues as well as discussing themes that have preoccupied photographers and informed cultural issues central to a discussion of city This text interprets the city as a spatial network that we inhabit on different conceptual psychological and physical levels and gives emphasis to how people operate within relate to and activate the city via construction habitation and disruption Cities and Photography aims to demonstrate the potential of photography as a contributor to commentary and analytical frameworks what does photography as a medium provide for a vision of city and what can photographs tell us about cities histories attitudes and ideas This introductory text is richly illustrated with case studies and over 50 photographs summarizing complex theory and analysis with application to specific examples Emphasis is given to international contemporary photographic projects to provide focus for the discussion of theoretical conceptions of the city through the analysis of photographic interpretation and commentary This text will be of great appeal to those interested in Photography Urban Studies and Human Geography Ford Madox Ford and the City Sara Haslam,2005 Ford Madox Ford and the City assembles fourteen pioneering essays by new as well as established European and American scholars exploring Ford s representations of real and ideal cities across the full range of his work from his earliest verse to his post war prose and poetry of the 1920s and 1930s BOOK JACKET *Catalogue of Portraits in the Possession of the University, Colleges, City, and County of Oxford: The portraits in the University collections and in the town and county halls. v.2-v.3. J. Martens,2014 During the last decades representations of medieval and early modern urban space have witnessed an increasing popularity as objects of study within the historical disciplines Scholars with different backgrounds investigate urban landscapes in various forms and using a wide range of media In general such portraits of the city cover different types of visual and written documents The twelve essays gathered in this book all cover specific types of such portraits ranging from historiographical texts and archival record over drawings prints and paintings to maps and real urban architectural settings Moreover the interdisciplinary scope results in an ample compilation of various innovative methodologies currently applied in the fields of study and disciplines addressed in the book Portraits of the City provides a representative overview of the current state of knowledge and is in this way a relevant contribution to the international debate on representations of the city Cities Called Athens Kevin F. Daly, Lee Ann Riccardi,2014-12-18 The fourteen essays in this volume share new and evolving knowledge theories and observations about the city of Athens or the region of Attica The contents include essays on topography architecture religion and cult sculpture ceramic studies iconography epigraphy trade and drama This volume is dedicated to John McK Camp II to acknowledge the extraordinary impact he has had on the field of Greek archaeology through his work in the Athenian Agora as a scholar of ancient Greece and as Mellon Professor at the American School of Classical Studies The contributors work represents current research by the latest generation of scholars with ties to Athens All of the contributors were students of Professor Camp in Greece and their essays are dedicated to him in gratitude for his profound influence on their lives and careers The American City Arthur Hastings Grant,Harold S.
