Portraits From The Deep:

Portraits from the Deep, 2016 Portraits from the Deep Guy Harvey, 2002 Offers a behind the scenes look at Guy's life art and work as he made the transition from distracted student to marine biologist to world renowned artist and now to underwater videographer and documentary producer Art of the Dive David J. Wagner, 2011 Portraits of Passion Praveen Kumar, 2017-01-28 What the poet sings here is true of his life He is open for the temptations of both the passion and the reason When they act together we find the person at his best in life with the strengths of purpose and will we find the poet at his best in poetry with sweet ironies spliced with the power of language when The wind of passion and the barriers of reason pull apart from sides Thus the author gained from both his strength and weakness Poetry to this poet is an integrated expression of personality His conception of poetry is beautifully expressed in the following stanza in the poem Poetry You the gentle queen on inspiration's throne In splendours of words rhythms colours Musics and passions in unending layers Come sit on heart build bridges to the mind Bring light to the eyes to choose a carriage To carry your muse to gentle souls It is significant of this poet that the utility of poetry for him lies in carrying her muse to gentle souls He is deeply subjective and inward looking in nature This subjective and inward looking tendency makes him a proud and self-assured individual Read following lines in the poem The Path of Life Whatever may come whatever may go Whatever on the path is in store as fate I must walk as always I am Proud of self and diligent of walk I tread the path that comes in front Whatever at back bears my print Whatever in front conforms to inner strength The poet has tried to portray the widening gulf betwixt rich and poor in the poem Humanity wherein an image of poverty is laid in following lines A hapless mother Offers her to greed To save her child from the hunger's death No roof to hide no cloth to cover No fire in heart to save honour Dirt and filth sickness everywhere Dirt and filth sickness everywhere The sufferings of the people touch the poet while writing about Bangladesh cyclone in the poem Bangladesh Cyclone he describes how a famished man appears after the devastation God forsaken man sits in the middle And knows not whether he is dead or alive Portraits of Passion is primarily a portrait of passion passion in its varied and verdant forms and hues passion for life passion of love and passion to know the world around The collection has a few love portraits in both meeting and parting frames of mind Read following lines of the poem That Day She held the portrait close to her heart And drank his form to the brim of eyes What a gentle shine what contentment Her eyes spread in expression of her heart What depth it had what immortal warmth That he felt at loss to pierce far enough Parting is the more intense form of love The foretaste of the impending separation how withers souls and brings them closer in the milieu of climacteric gloom and silence is portrayed in the poem Gulf of Life and Death Face to face they sat in silence No word to speak no shine in eyes Both blankly stared beyond each other No world to smile no light or sunshine They sought each other for hope and comfort In the eye of high tide of the time's drift There are a few poems on the nature in this fascicle Following three lines describe the full moon in motion in her full glory through the demi-jour of the heaven in a mise en scene The golden queen in the stride of royal grace Ascended heaven with gold dusts splayed

On the fading silk carpet of the thin sunshine
The aureate beauty of the full moon day is painted in following lines
The night is full with beauty's sweet contrasts
Of peace and passions stillness and motion
With shades and twilight fits of sensuous quietude A conflict of life and death and desperate waiting for something eerie and lovefull are lurking in many of the poet's writings and give his poems an arcane touch

Stork, 2023-11-15 PIXELS PAINTINGS The discussion is firmly grounded in established art historical practices such as close visual analysis and an understanding of artists working methods and real world examples demonstrate how computer assisted techniques can complement traditional approaches Dr Emilie Gordenker Director of the Van Gogh Museum The pioneering presentation of computer based image analysis of fine art forging a dialog between art scholars and the computer vision community In recent years sophisticated computer vision graphics and artificial intelligence algorithms have proven to be increasingly powerful tools in the study of fine art These methods some adapted from forensic digital photography and others developed specifically for art empower a growing number of computer savvy art scholars conservators and historians to answer longstanding questions as well as provide new approaches to the interpretation of art Pixels Paintings provides the first and authoritative overview of the broad range of these methods which extend from image processing of palette marks brush strokes and shapes up through analysis of objects poses style composition to the computation of simple interpretations of artworks This book stresses that computer methods for art analysis must always incorporate the cultural contexts appropriate to the art studies at hand a blend of humanistic and scientific expertise Describes powerful computer image analysis methods and their application to problems in the history and interpretation of fine art Discusses some of the art historical lessons and revelations provided by the use of these methods Clarifies the assumptions and applicability of methods and the role of cultural contexts in their use Shows how computation can be used to analyze tens of thousands of artworks to reveal trends and anomalies that could not be found by traditional non computer methods Pixels Paintings is essential reading for computer image analysts and graphics specialists conservators historians students psychologists and the general public interested in the study and appreciation of art

Romania, 1960 Works of Gautier: The romance of a mummy ; Portraits of the day Théophile Gautier, 1901 From Face to Face Marina

Prusac,2016-08-29 This book is based on an investigation of more than 2000 portraits of which around 500 have proven to be recarved It provides thorough analyses of the different recarving methods some of which can be attributed to geographically localized workshops establishing classifiable categories and an analytical text with special regard to the cultural historical changes in Late Antiquity The investigation underpins a hypothesis on the late antique portraits style as a consequence of the many recarved portraits at the time which relied on a syncretism of politics religion and ideology The conclusion gives a new understanding of how broad scoped culturally and politically encoded and comprehensive the practice of recarving was

Théophile Gautier,1901 50 Lighting Setups for Portrait Photographers Steven H Begleiter,2008-12-01 This cookbook style guide to portrait lighting contains all the ingredients necessary for a successful photo shoot With 60 two page spreads highlighting the techniques used to create stunning portraits alongside the portraits themselves aspiring photographers will have a clear sense of both the how and the why of good lighting Difficult questions such as How can I downplay a double chin and dark shadows under the eyes and How can I produce a soft romantic feel in a woman s portrait Are addressed and resolved in this no nonsense guide to good lighting Roman Imperial Portrait Practice in the Second Century AD

Christian Niederhuber,2022-06-16 It has long been thought that imperial portrait types were officially commissioned to commemorate specific historical moments and that they were made available to both the mint and the marble workshops in Rome assuming a close correspondence between portraits on coins and in the round All of this however has never been clearly proven nor has it been disproven by a close systematic examination of the evidence on a broad material basis by those scholars who have questioned it Through systematic case studies of Faustina the Younger s and Marcus Aurelius portraits on coins and in sculpture this book provides new insights into the functioning of the imperial image in Rome in the second century AD that move a difficult much discussed subject forward decisively The new evidence presented here has made it necessary to adjust the established model more flexibility is needed to describe the processes and practices behind the phenomenon of repeated imperial portraits and how the imperial portrait worked in the mint of Rome and in the metropolitan marble workshops Anatomy of Spirituality: Portrait of the Soul Chander Behl,2015-04-27 The domain of spirituality separated from its theological overburden believes in the existence of a spiritual self presumed to be distinctly separate from the psychological self The spiritual eternal self also known as the soul or spirit sometimes supported by an overarching Spirit is asserted to be operating behind the ephemeral self This book takes a contrarian stance it argues that the premise of the soul concept is obtained through the magic of language maintained through the marvel of the brain s biochemistry and sustained through the mirage of the psychological juggernauts of the brain The magic the marvel and the mirage together bring about subtle shifts as the linguistic brain suppresses many psychological details habitually applies mental templates such as inversions and dichotomies and enhances its language by coining religious and spiritual metaphors The consequence of these changes is that the usual flickering self begins to be impressed by itself believing it is buttressed by something transcendental and eternal within the soul or the spirit The self although indoctrinated during its formative years also begins to assimilate and accept the opinion that the overwhelming weight of religious doctrines and dogmas the overburden signifies as the legitimate proof for the eternal soul

Portraits of the Ptolemies Paul Edmund Stanwick, 2010-07-22 As archaeologists recover the lost treasures of Alexandria the modern world is marveling at the latter day glory of ancient Egypt and the Greeks who ruled it from the ascension of Ptolemy I in 306 B C to the death of Cleopatra the Great in 30 B C The abundance and magnificence of royal sculptures from this period testify to the power of the Ptolemaic dynasty and its influence on Egyptian artistic traditions that even then were more than two thousand years old In this book Paul Edmund Stanwick undertakes the first complete study of Egyptian style portraits of the Ptolemies Examining one hundred and fifty sculptures from the vantage points of literary evidence archaeology history religion and stylistic development he fully explores how they meld Egyptian and Greek cultural traditions and evoke surrounding social developments and political events To do this he develops a visual vocabulary for reading royal portraiture and discusses how the portraits helped legitimate the Ptolemies and advance their ideology Stanwick also sheds new light on the chronology of the sculptures giving dates to many previously undated ones and showing that others belong outside the Ptolemaic period
