Through the Eye of Time Stuart Blackburn, Michael Tarr, 2008-04-30 This is the first visual history of Arunachal Pradesh a state in northeast India bordering on Tibet China Burma and Bhutan Based on archival and field research it illustrates a century and a half of cultural change in this culturally diverse and little known region of the Himalayas More than 200 photographs half archival and half contemporary reveal that tribal cultures in this remote mountainous region have been continually reacting to external forces and initiating internal innovations The Introduction places the archival photographs in their wider context emphasising the complexity of the colonial encounter and uncovering personal stories behind many of the images The sequence of photographs juxtaposing the historical and the contemporary shows us the uneven and sometimes confusing mixture of past and present that is emerging in Arunachal Pradesh
