Portraits Of Israelis And Palestinians For My Parents:

Portraits of Israelis and Palestinians Seth Tobocman, 2003 During the summer of 2002 Seth Tobocman taught art to small children in a village just outside of Ramallah Palestine Upon returning to America he was faced with the difficult prospect of explaining to his parents life long Zionists just what he was doing in Palestine To help initiate the conversation he collected twenty pages from his sketchbook of the trip and sent it to them The drawings created a starting point from which they could talk about their differing political and religious beliefs concerning the Middle East Portraits for my Parents a collection of charcoal drawings with simple captions such as This is a modern man These are Palestinians These are Israelis strips away the historical religious and political complications surrounding the situation in the Middle East He takes no sides simply depicting the faces clothes and postures of the inhabitants of this contested land In sharing these private drawings he allows us all to participate in the dialogue he had with his parents How can we stop killing each other How can we learn to recognize each other s humanity The Rise of the American Comics Artist Paul Williams, James Lyons, 2010-11-11

Contributions by David M Ball Ian Gordon Andrew Loman Andrea A Lunsford James Lyons Ana Merino Graham J Murphy Chris Murray Adam Rosenblatt Julia Round Joe Sutliff Sanders Stephen Weiner and Paul Williams Starting in the mid 1980s a talented set of comics artists changed the American comic book industry forever by introducing adult sensibilities and aesthetic considerations into popular genres such as superhero comics and the newspaper strip Frank Miller s Batman The Dark Knight Returns 1986 and Alan Moore and Dave Gibbons s Watchmen 1987 revolutionized the former genre in particular During this same period underground and alternative genres began to garner critical acclaim and media attention beyond comics specific outlets as best represented by Art Spiegelman s Maus Publishers began to collect bind and market comics as graphic novels and these appeared in mainstream bookstores and in magazine reviews The Rise of the American Comics Artist Creators and Contexts brings together new scholarship surveying the production distribution and reception of American comics from this pivotal decade to the present The collection specifically explores the figure of the comics creator either as writer as artist or as writer and artist in contemporary US comics using creators as focal points to evaluate changes to the industry its aesthetics and its critical reception The book also includes essays on landmark creators such as Joe Sacco Art Spiegelman and Chris Ware as well as insightful interviews with Jeff Smith Bone Jim Woodring Frank and Scott McCloud Understanding Comics As comics have reached new audiences through different material and electronic forms the public s broad perception of what comics are has changed The Rise of the American Comics Artist surveys the ways in which the figure of the creator has been at the heart of these evolutions From Krakow to Krypton Arie Kaplan, 2010 Jews created the first comic book the first graphic novel the first comic book convention the first comic book specialty store and they helped create the underground comics or Comix movement of the late 60s and early 70s Many of the creators of the most famous comic books such as Superman Spiderman X Men and Batman as well as the founders of MAD Magazine were Jewish

From Krakow to Krypton Jews and Comic Books tells their stories and demonstrates how they brought a uniquely Jewish perspective to their work and to the comics industry as a whole Over sized and in full color From Krakow to Krypton is filled with sidebars cartoon bubbles comic book graphics original design sketches and photographs It is a visually stunning and exhilarating history June 1967 in Personal Stories of Palestinians and Israelis Regina F. Bendix, Aziz Haidar, Hagar Salamon, 2022 The clash of June 1967 called by Israelis the Six Day War and by Palestinians the Naksa setback is a critical milestone within the longstanding Israeli Palestinian conflict Despite all the scholarly attention ever since there remain unheard voices and untold stories It is the personal stories of people in the region that are at the center of this book How do they remember 1967 How were their lives affected even changed dramatically as a result of that short war Listening to their stories as told some 50 years later an incomplete tapestry of memories and understandings emerge This book is the product of a research collaboration among Palestinian Israeli and European folklorists cultural anthropologists and sociologists The personal stories were collected in the framework of interviews with men and women from all walks of life on the days before during and after this dramatic confrontation The book is comprised of eleven chapters based on a corpus of several hundred conversations as well as eight representative interviews Together they afford insight into differential memories and sensations visions of euphoria and despair newly revived hopes pain and disappointment disillusionment and repentance

Self-Portrait, with Parents and Footnotes Annette Aronowicz, 2021-09-14 Self Portrait with Parents and Footnotes is a story of movement Moving from city to city characterized the author's growing up from Poland to Belgium and from the East Coast to the West Coast of the United States The book also moves between past and present The author's parents Jews from Eastern Europe lived through the Spanish Civil War the Second World War the post war Communist world and much migration in between How were these events transmitted to their child and what questions do they give rise to today The book moves between straightforward story telling and reflections on memory on politics and religion and on literature It seeks the genesis of intellectual interests in personal story American Portrait Dave LaNave, 2008-07-23 There is no available information at this time Jewish Identities in American Feminist Art Lisa E. Bloom, 2013-09-05 Featuring sixty seven illustrations and providing an important reckoning and visualization of the previously hidden Jewish ghosts within US art Jewish Identities in American Feminist Art addresses the veiled role of Jewishness in the understanding of feminist art in the United States From New York city to Southern California Lisa E Bloom situates the art practices of Jewish feminist artists from the 1970s to the present in relation to wider cultural and historical issues Key themes are examined in depth through the work of contemporary Jewish artists including Eleanor Antin Judy Chicago Deborah Kass Rhonda Lieberman Martha Rosler and many others Crucial in any study of art visual studies women's studies and cultural studies this is a new and lively exploration into a vital component of US art Isolation Alison Bashford, Carolyn Strange, 2003-09-02 This book examines the coercive and legally sanctioned strategies of exclusion and segregation undertaken over the last two centuries in a wide range of contexts The political and cultural history of this period raises a number of questions about coercive exclusion The essays in this collection examine why isolation has been such a persistent strategy in liberal and non liberal nations in colonial and post colonial states and why practices of exclusion proliferated over the modern period precisely when legal and political concepts of freedom were invented In addition to offering new perspectives on the continuum of medico penal sites of isolation from the asylum to the penitentiary Isolation looks at less well known sites from leper villages to refugee camps to Native reserves Wings Of Exile: Portrait of a Lebanese Family Tanya Julien,2017-08-03 Beirut 1979

A little girl Carla listens in fear to the sound of her city s martyr under bombs and shelling War rages on but people still spend week ends at the beach family reunions still take place and everyone is trying to live life to the fullest as if each moment was the last The fighting intensifies and it is time to set off for Cyprus leaving the land of her roots behind Next move to Belgium where she discovers Northern Europe and is now clearly in exile From 1979 to 1996 this is the story of a Lebanese woman s nomadic destiny like so many suffering from a never ending war yet keeping the wildest hopes the strength of a family fragmented around the world its traditions and above all fantastic resilience and an appetite for life

Strangers in the House Raja Shehadeh,2025-09-09 Discover the Classic Coming of Age Memoir that Captures the Palestinian Experience for Members of every Generation since the 1948 Nakba Unusually honest beautifully written New York Times Book Review With a New Afterword by the Author In this new edition of his groundbreaking memoir Palestinian lawyer and human rights activist Raja Shehadeh offers a moving description of the daily lives of those who have been determined to remain on Palestinian land under Israeli occupation and refusing to relent in the face of efforts to drive them out by making their lives unbearable Growing up in the shadow of home in the rural hills of the West Bank he was introduced early to political conflict He witnessed the numerous arrests of his father Aziz Shehadeh who in 1967 was the first Palestinian to advocate a peaceful 2 state solution for the Israeli Palestinian conflict He predicted that if peace were not achieved what remained of the Palestinian homeland would be taken away bit by bit through Israeli settlement Ostracized by his fellow Arabs and disillusioned by the failure of either side to recognize his prophetic vision Aziz retreated from politics He was murdered in 1985 Strangers in the House is also the family drama of a difficult relationship between an idealistic son and his politically active father complicated by the arbitrary humiliation of the occupier s law A new Afterword provides an update on the investigation into his father s murder a history that reflects continued official Israeli efforts to dehumanize Palestinians and to extinguish once and for all the possibility of a 2 state solution The Politics of Trauma in Education Michalinos

Zembylas,2016-04-30 How does contemporary education engage trauma in ways that explore its ethical and political implications for curriculum and pedagogy Zembylas establishes the nexus among affect trauma and education as this is evinced within educational theory and practice Social Justice and Israel/Palestine Aaron J. Hahn Tapper,Mira Sucharov,2019-06-24 This book critically assesses a series of complex and topical debates helping readers to make sense of the politics surrounding the Israeli Palestinian relationship Each chapter considers one topic represented by two or three essays offered in conversation with one another Together these essays advance different perspectives in some cases they are complementary and in others they are oppositional Topics include scholarly and activist interpretations of narratives in the context of Israel Palestine the concept of self determination for Jewish Israelis and Palestinians the debate over settler colonialism as an appropriate framework for interpreting the history of Israel Palestine and questions surrounding Jewish and Palestinian refugees and the impact of displacement among others Through these foundational and contemporary topics readers will be challenged to critically examine the strengths and weaknesses of each position in light of scholarly debates rooted in social justice and helped to gain a deeper understanding of the relationship between Israelis and Palestinians in order to see a path forward toward justice for all

Palestinians Born in Exile Juliane Hammer,2009-08-17 In the decade following the 1993 Oslo Peace Accords some 100 000 diasporic Palestinians returned to the West Bank and Gaza Among them were children and young adults who were born in exile and whose sense of Palestinian identity was shaped not by lived experience but rather through the transmission and re creation of memories images and history As a result returning to the homeland that had never actually been their home presented challenges and disappointments for these young Palestinians who found their lifeways and values sometimes at odds with those of their new neighbors in the West Bank and Gaza This original ethnography records the experiences of Palestinians born in exile who have emigrated to the Palestinian homeland Juliane Hammer interviews young adults between the ages of 16 and 35 to learn how their Palestinian identity has been affected by living in various Arab countries or the United States and then moving to the West Bank and Gaza Their responses underscore how much the experience of living outside of Palestine has become integral to the Palestinian national character even as Palestinians maintain an overwhelming sense of belonging to one another as a people

Young American Muslims Nahid Afrose Kabir,2014-08-20 This book presents a journey into the ideas outlooks and identity of young Muslims in America today Based on around 400 in depth interviews with young Muslims from Florida Maryland Massachusetts Michigan New York and Virginia all the richness and n

My Father Was a Freedom Fighter Ramzy Baroud,2009-12-09 This book is a personal account of the daily lives of the people of the frontline of the Palestine Israel conflict giving us an insight into the deadly seemingly never ending rounds of violence Ramzy Baroud tells his father s fascinating story Driven out of his village to a refugee camp he took up arms and fought the occupation at the same time raising a family and trying to do the best for his children Baroud s vivid and honest account reveals the complex human beings revolutionaries great moms and dads lovers and comedians that make Gaza so much more than just a disputed territory

The Israeli-Palestinian Peace Movement D. Perry,2011-11-07 This study shows the promise of Israeli Palestinian peace from the perspective of former combatants who transform themselves each other and those around them through moral conviction and action that reclaims the dignity of both peoples

Desert in the Promised Land Yael Zerubavel,2023-05-25 A complex and fascinating portrait of

Israel an engaging book that combines anthropology culture and history Anita Shapira author of Ben Gurion Father of Modern Israel At once an ecological phenomenon and a cultural construction the desert has varied associations within Zionist and Israeli culture In the Judaic textual tradition it evokes exile and punishment yet is also a site for origin myths the divine presence and sanctity Secular Zionism developed its own spin on the duality of the desert as the romantic site of Jews biblical roots that inspired the Hebrew culture and as the barren land outside the Jewish settlements in Palestine featuring them as an oasis of order and technological progress within a symbolic desert Yael Zerubavel tells the story of the desert from the early twentieth century to the present shedding light on romantic mythical associations settlement and security concerns environmental sympathies and the commodifying tourist gaze Drawing on literary narratives educational texts newspaper articles tourist materials films popular songs posters photographs and cartoons Zerubavel reveals the complexities and contradictions that mark Israeli society s semiotics of space in relation to the Middle East and the central role of the besieged island trope in Israeli culture and politics

An Impossible Friendship Sonja Mejcher-Atassi, 2024-05-28 In Jerusalem as World War II was coming to an end an extraordinary circle of friends began to meet at the bar of the King David Hotel This group of aspiring artists writers and intellectuals among them Wolfgang Hildesheimer Jabra Ibrahim Jabra Sally Kassab Walid Khalidi and Rasha Salam some of whom would go on to become acclaimed authors scholars and critics came together across religious lines in a fleeting moment of possibility within a troubled history What brought these Muslim Jewish and Christian friends together and what became of them in the aftermath of 1948 the year of the creation of the State of Israel and the Palestinian Nakba Sonja Mejcher Atassi tells the story of this unlikely friendship and in so doing offers an intimate cultural and social history of Palestine in the critical postwar period She vividly reconstructs the vanished social world of these protagonists tracing the connections between the specificity of individual lives and the larger contexts in which they are embedded In exploring this ecumenical friendship and its artistic literary and intellectual legacies Mejcher Atassi demonstrates how social biography can provide a picture of the past that is at once more inclusive and more personal This group portrait she argues allows us to glimpse alternative possibilities that exist within and alongside the fraught history of Israel Palestine Bringing a remarkable era to life through archival research and nuanced interdisciplinary scholarship An Impossible Friendship unearths prospects for historical reconciliation solidarity and justice

Oasis of Dreams Grace Feuerverger, 2013-08-21 Neve Shalom Wahat Al Salam the Hebrew and Arabic words for Oasis of Peace is a community founded by Jews and Palestinians that is aimed at demonstrating the possibilities for living in peace while maintaining their respective cultural heritages and languages The village schools represent a unique educational experience an opportunity for Jewish and Palestinian children to learn together in a Hebrew Arabic bilingual bicultural binational setting This book a result of the author s nine year study of the schools in the village explores the psychological and social dimensions of this important educational endeavor Award winning author Grace Feuerverger explores teaching and learning in schools as a sacred life journey a quest toward liberation Written for teacher educators who wish to make a real difference in the lives of their students this book speaks to everyone who finds themselves as she did on winding and often treacherous paths longing to discover the meaning and potential in their professional lives at school A child of Holocaust survivors Feuerverger wrote this book to tell how schools can be transformed into magical places where miracles happen In an era of narrow agendas of efficiency and control this book dares to suggest that education is and should always be about uplifting the human spirit

Teen Voices from the Holy Land Mahmoud Watad, 2010-10-29 This is a book about hope We really can have peace in the Middle East one day Daniel says it best If children had been in charge of their countries things would not have happened the way they did Children know how to get along with one another despite everything As we pass our world along to the next generation I know they will do better than we have in the peacemaking process HOWARD DEAN Former Governor of Vermont Congratulations to Professors Watad and Grob for compiling the articulate Teen Voices from the Holy Land May the decision makers hear them We are inspired by the honesty and the promise of youth These Israeli and Palestinian teenagers share with us a collective dream of human beings resolving our differences no matter how difficult in a civilized manner consistent with the meaning of Holy Land LINCOLN CHAFEE Former US Senator from Rhode Island A peaceful long lasting resolution to the Palestinian Israeli conflict may never be found until both sides learn to see each other not as the enemy but as fellow human beings Teen Voices from the Holy Land takes a creative approach toward reaching greater understanding between two peoples who have known little but mutual hostility and suspicion for over fifty years Based on interviews of thirty four Palestinian and Israeli teenagers this uplifting book presents candid first person narratives of their day to day lives These young people describe their ordinary lives including their interests facts about their families friendships and neighborhoods as well as their spiritual concerns and dreams for the future Photographs of the youngsters accompany the narratives and together both picture and story offer a revealing glimpse into the common humanity that Palestinians and Israelis share A striking aspect of these stories is the depth of understanding and the brutal honesty exhibited One teen exclaims If children had been in charge of managing their countries things would not have happened the way they did Children know how to get along with one another despite everything Another says A person should be loyal to his principles but there s something more important which he has to do He must be ready to criticize his own views Everyone interviewed expresses the hope that they will someday live in peace with others in the region The voices that speak movingly from these pages offer many insights into the perceptions and feelings of young people in this strife torn area of the world They hold out the hope that the shared dream of peace may eventually overcome the differences that now divide the two sides Mahmoud Watad Ph D Salisbury Mills NY is associate professor of management at the College of Business Administration of William Paterson University Leonard Grob Ph D Stony Point NY is professor of philosophy at Fairleigh Dickinson University
