Portraits Of Leisure A Of Special Days:

The World to Come, Etc. [With a Portrait.] Isaac Watts,1816 A Portrait of Pacifists Richard P.

Unsworth,2012-04-27 This biography tells the story of Andr and Magda Trocm two individuals who made nonviolence a way of life During World War II the southern French town of Le Chambon sur Lignon and its surrounding villages became a center where Jews and others in flight from Nazi roundups could be hidden or led abroad and where children with parents in concentration camps could be nurtured and educated The Trocm s courage during World War II has been well documented in books and film yet the full arc of their lives the impulse that led them to devote themselves to nonviolence and their extensive work in the decades following the war has never been compiled into a full length biography Based on the Trocm s unpublished memoirs interviews and the author s research the book details the couple s role in the history of pacifism before during and after the war Unsworth traces their mission of building peace by nonviolence throughout Europe to Morocco Algeria Japan Vietnam and the United States Analyzing the political and religious complexities of the pacifist movement the author underscores the Trocm s deeply personal commitment Regardless of which nation was condoning violence shaping international relations or pressing for peace and regardless of whose theology dominated the pulpits both Andr and Magda remained driven by conscience to make nonviolence the hallmark of their life s work *Memoirs of Baron Bunsen ...
