Reporting Islam Media Representations And British Muslims:

Reporting Islam Elizabeth Poole, 2002-06-21 It is a widely held view that since the end of the Cold War attention has focused on Islam as a central force of disruption within a New World Order Nothing has heightened this more than the assault on the World Trade Center and Pentagon and the reporting of these events Reporting Islam is a timely contribution to this debate which looks at the ways in which Muslims are represented in the British news media Elizabeth Poole examines the claim that Muslims are universally demonized in the British press and comes to some illuminating conclusions Reporting Islam is of great value to students of media cultural studies Islamic studies and politics Islam in British media discourses Laurens de Rooij, 2020-05-09 Media reporting on Islam and Muslims commonly relate stories about terrorism violence or the lack of integration with western values and society Yet there is little research into how non Muslims engage with and are affected by these news reports Inspired by the overtly negative coverage of Islam and Muslims by the mainstream press and the increase in Islamophobia across Europe this book explores the influence of these depictions on the thoughts and actions of non Muslims Building on extensive fieldwork interviews and focus groups Laurens de Rooij argues that individuals negotiate media reports to fit their existing outlook on Islam and Muslims Non Muslim responses to these reports de Rooij argues are not only re productions of local and personal contextuality but are co dependent and co productive to the reports themselves British Muslims and Their Discourses Laurens de Rooij, 2023-12-28 This book highlights the changing dynamics of Muslim identity and integration in Britain focusing on the post 9 11 era Historically Muslims faced discrimination based on ethnicity rather than religion However contemporary discrimination against Muslims is rooted in different reasons with events like the Rushdie affair significantly impacting multicultural relations This study analyzes the evolving multicultural landscape in Britain exploring the shift from predominantly assimilationist policies to a more mutual process of integration It delves into the emergence of interfaith dialogue as well as the complexities surrounding the intersection of race religion gender and identity The research examines two key themes the discursive positioning of Islam beyond integration and terrorism narratives and the operationalization of identity by Muslims in various contexts The study employs empirical methods and cultural studies theories to understand how individual and social practices intersect in this context By doing so it contributes to Islamic studies socio political studies and cultural studies shedding light on the discourses that shape and are shaped by Muslim lives in Britain The analysis encompasses diverse perspectives from macro level societal discourses to micro level individual actions thus providing a comprehensive exploration of the multifaceted experiences of Muslims in Britain Leadership, Authority and Representation in British Muslim Communities Sophie Gilliat-Ray, Riyaz Timol, 2021-01-26 The contributions explore Muslim religious leadership in multiple forms and settings While traditional authority is usually correlated with theology and piety as in the case of classically trained ulema the public advocacy of Muslim community concerns is often headed by those with professionalized skillsets and civic experience In an increasingly digital world both women and men exercise leadership in novel ways and sites of authority are refracted from traditional loci such as mosques and seminaries to new and unexpected places This collection provides systematic focus on a topic that has hitherto been given rather diffuse consideration It complements historical work on community leadership as well as more contemporary discussion on the training and role of Islamic religious authorities It will be of interest to scholars in Religious Studies Sociology Political Science History and Islamic Studies Muslims Making British Media Carl Morris, 2022-11-17 Drawing on original fieldwork Carl Morris examines Muslim cultural production in Britain with a focus on the performance based entertainment industries music comedy film television and theatre It is a seminal study that charts the growing agency and involvement of British Muslims in cultural production over the last two decades Morris sets this discussion within the context of wider religious social and cultural change with important insights concerning the sociological profile religious lives and public visibility of Muslims in contemporary Britain Morris draws on theoretical considerations concerning the mediatization of religion and cosmopolitanization in a globally connected world He argues that a new generation of media savvy and internationalist Muslim cultural producers in Britain are constructing counter narratives in the public sphere and are reshaping everyday religious lives within their own communities This is having a profound impact upon areas that range from Islamic authority and religious practice to political and public debate and understandings of Muslim identity and belonging Muslims, Minorities, and the Media Laurens de Rooij, 2023-03-01 Inspired by overtly negative coverage by the Western mainstream press of Muslims in particular and minorities in general this book asks Why are negative narratives and depictions of Muslims and other minorities so hard to change News reports about Islam and Muslims commonly relate stories that discuss terrorism violence or other unwelcome or irrational behaviour or the lack of integration and compatibility of Muslims and Islam with Western values and society Yet there is little research done on how studies on media reports about minorities seemingly fail to improve the situation Combining empirical research with a structural analysis of the media industry this volume presents evidence for the maligned representation of minorities by media corporations analysing why negative narratives persist and outlining how these can be effectively transformed It is an outstanding resource for students and scholars of media religion culture sociology and Islamic studies and is also of benefit for journalists media representatives and activists looking to effect change for minority representation in the media industry specifically or in society at large British Multiculturalism and the Politics of Representation Lasse Thomassen, 2017-03-08 Uses poststructuralist theory to connect inclusion exclusion and identity using real world case studies from British culture politics and law Lasse Thomassen applies a fresh poststructuralist approach to reconcile the theoretical and practical issues surrounding inclusion exclusion and representation He opens up debates and themes including Britishness race the nature and role of Islam in British society homelessness and social justice Thomassen argues that the politics of inclusion and identity should be viewed as struggles over how these identities are represented He develops this argument through careful analysis of cases from the last four decades of British multiculturalism including public debates about the role of religion in British society Gordon Brown and David Cameron's contrasting versions of Britishness legal cases about religious symbols and clothing in schools and the Nick Hornby novel How to Be Good Islam and Muslims in the West Adis Duderija, Halim Rane, 2018-07-27 This book analyzes the development of Islam and Muslim communities in the West including influences from abroad relations with the state and society and internal community dynamics The project examines the emergence of Islam in the West in relation to the place of Muslim communities as part of the social fabric of Western societies It provides an overview of the major issues and debates that have arisen over the last three to four decades surrounding the presence of new Muslim communities residing in Western liberal democracies As such the volume is an ideal text for courses focusing on Islam and Muslim communities in the West Making the British Muslim N.
