misleading argument Although the production imperative might act as a stimulus to reform it is neither a sufficient nor even a necessary condition In individual countries the communist party s search for legitimacy a change of leadership or the relationship with the USSR have equally been the spur to reform The drive for economic modernization may even be a consequence of the communist party s desire to reform rather than a cause The absence of a uniform pattern does not detract from the potential consequences of economic and political change These challenge socialist thinking on the nature of collective life ownership and rural society Industrial and Trade Policy Reform in Developing Countries Ramesh Adhikari, Colin H. Kirkpatrick, John Weiss, 1992 The Fall of Global Socialism D. Jayatileka, 2016-04-20 This radical new perspective from the Global South casts a fresh light on a major aspect of contemporary history and in doing so suggests an alternative interpretation of twentieth century revolutions Socialism left thinking and radical politics The Origins of the Angolan Civil War Fernando Andresen Guimaraes, 2016-02-08 An investigation of the origins of the Angolan civil war of 1975-76 By looking at the interaction between internal and external factors it reveals the domestic roots of the conflict and the impact of foreign intervention on the civil war The formative influence of colonialism and anti colonialism on the emergence of Angolan rivalry since 1961 is described and the externalization of that power struggle is analysed from a perspective of both international and domestic politics The Morality of Revolution Benedito Luís Machava, 2024-12-10 The Morality of Revolution offers the first historical examination of urban cleanup campaigns and reeducation camps in socialist Mozambique The book presents the camps as the template for independent Mozambique s punitive society under Frelimo Individuals who transgressed the law and socialist normative codes of behavior were targeted by the revolutionary party which obsessively pursued putative wrongdoers in an effort to build a new society from the ruins of Portuguese colonialism Benedito Lu s Machava argues that the socialist experiment while ushering in an era of economic development and social progress sought also to remake the moral fabric of Mozambican society At play was the contradictory combination of high modernist socialist aspirations and conservative anxieties rooted in a moralist reading of society From its inception in 1974 to its demise in the late 1980s the reeducation program was a do it yourself enterprise The Frelimo government unable to finance and support the carceral regime expected its agents and the detainees to carry out the ambitious project on their own Without material and human resources to run the program state officials compelled detainees to build their own detention facilities to grow their own food to enforce their own political education and in many ways to oversee their own incarceration The state s incapacity to translate the salvationist ideas of reeducation into planned action a general feature of the socialist experiment in Mozambique produced spaces of social neglect and castigation that negatively affected both the inmates and the personnel tasked with disciplining and reeducating them The Second Economy in Marxist States Maria Los, 2016-01-13 This book analyses and compares the unofficial economies and their control in ten marxist states the USSR Poland Hungary Romania Yugoslavia Cuba Nicaragua China Angola and Tanzania It provides a vivid mosaic like panorama of the hidden economies in these countries The book breaks with the view that the unofficial economy is simply a by product of the official economy It shows an unfolding interplay between these two economies which moulds and limits both the dynamics and the direction of the process of change In her final essay Maria Los develops a theoretical model linking second economies with the process of marxist economic development The key stages of this process are identified as 1 The stage of radical transformation 2 The monopolisation period 3 The reformist phase and 4 Post reformist decadence The volume throws a new light on the prospects and problems of the reformist movements which have swept the Soviet Union China and several other marxist states in the 1980s Asian Politics in Development Robert Benewick, Marc Blecher, Sarah
