Reweaving the Fabric Viji George, Concordia College (Bronxville, N.Y.). Good Shepherd Center, 1999 As for Me and My House Daryl J. Potts, 2020-07-10 The verse Joshua 24 15 as for me and my house we will serve the Lord has been the desire and declaration of ministry couples for centuries Yet the heartache of many ministers and their spouses is the realization that even though they have ministered to many and have been instruments to strengthen people s spiritual lives the spiritual well being of their own immediate family is not always where they would like it to be Many sadly observe members of their own family who no longer attend church having turned away from the faith For many ministers and spouses both those presently in ministry and those starting out there is a great desire to find keys to prevent their family members from falling away from the faith The heart of every pastoral couple is to function in their ministry and at the same time see their family flourish In the light of the dearth of research regarding the ministry family journey this book investigates how ministers and their spouses perceive that their involvement in ministry affects their family lives It further reveals the components that contribute toward the spiritual well being of their family while fulfilling their unique ministry responsibilities The Mennonite Quarterly Review ,2010 Reweaving the Fabric Ernesto Cortes, 1993 Promising Practices to Support Family Involvement in Schools Diana Hiatt-Michael, 2010-06-01 Promising Practices to Support Family Involvement in Schools is a must have volume for every contemporary educator This monograph provides a broad array of exciting research supported practices to reform schools for the benefit of students teachers administrators families and their communities These practices will lead to higher student academic and school satisfaction outcomes Experts in the field prepared this highly readable volume for teachers school administrators educational researchers policymakers and university faculty The authors share their decades of educational research wise insights and practical experiences with hopes to better life for individual families educators and society This book belongs on every educator s desk Reweaving the Relational Mat Joan Filemoni-Tofaeono, Lydia Johnson, 2016-06-16 Reweaving the Relational Mat is an integrative response to the problem of violence against women which grounds theological and sociological analysis in the praxis of Oceanian Christian women s experiences of violence It focuses on the collusion of the church in the problem of violence against women by critiquing the ways in which its theology and practices have contributed to power over ways of relating Employing the Oceanian metaphor of weaving the mat the analysis unravels the patriarchal relational mat paving the way for a constructive reweaving of a Christocentric egalitarian relational mat The study begins by unravelling the correlation between violence and the ideology of patriarchy It then highlights the various strands of violence against women and examines the complex mosaic of socio cultural sources and manifestations of violence against women in Oceania This leads to an analysis of the interwoven strands of religion and violence focusing particularly on the church s captivity to patriarchy The ensuing explication of problematic theological and biblical interpretations and church practices ends with a critique of male clergy power particularly as it functions in the Oceanian context This leads to an examination of the relationship between flawed theological education and violence against women Case studies of violence against women in the Oceanian theological education setting are analysed The subsequent reweaving of the relational mat issues forth in specific challenges to church leaders theological educators and church women Reweaving the Urban Fabric Ghislaine Hermanuz, Marta Gutman, Richard Plunz, 1988
