Rewriting Reality An Introduction To Elfriede Jelinek:

Rewriting Reality Allyson Fiddler, 1994-05-11 This first systematic study of the controversial Austrian feminist writer Elfriede Jelinek offers an extensive survey and analysis of Jelinek's major texts and a discussion of the literary techniques which characterise her writing Background contextual information on historical and literary developments is provided to help the reader gain a better understanding of Jelinek's writing and her place within current international debates on feminism and literary theory Elfriede Jelinek Matthias Konzett, Margarete Lamb-Faffelberger, 2007 Elfriede Jelinek winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature in 2004 is the important living German speaking author She has influenced the German and European literary scene for almost four decades This volume provides an introduction to this important prose writer dramatist and essayist of postwar German literature Elfriede Jelinek Goes Australia André Bastian, 2017-10-30

Polemical Austria Anthony Bushell, 2013-06-15 Austria today offers the picture of a small neutral and economically successful country in the heart of Europe Yet modern Austria is the product of a complex and violent history After the First World War Vienna changed overnight from being the capital of a large continental and multi ethnic Empire to being an alpine Republic surrounded by larger states This study examines Austria's transition from a major power and multi ethnic Empire to a militarily marginalised alpine Republic and asks how those often sudden and violent changes including two world wars and one civil war in the twentieth century have been reflected in the way Austrians have perceived themselves Whilst many studies map out the political events this study places special emphasis on the language used by Austrians as they struggled to define themselves The Holocaust Novel Efraim Sicher, 2013-10-31 The first comprehensive study of Holocaust literature as a major postwar literary genre The Holocaust Novel provides an ideal student guide to the powerful and moving works written in response to this historical tragedy This student friendly volume answers a dire need for readers to understand a genre in which boundaries and often blurred between history fiction autobiography and memoir Other essential features for students here include an annotated bibliography chronology and further reading list Major texts discussed include such widely taught works as Night Maus The Shawl Schindler's List Sophie's Choice White Noise and Time's Arrow

Modern Austrian Literature through the Lens of Adaptation Catriona Firth, 2012-01-01 For decades postwar Austrian literature has been measured against and moulded into a series of generic categories and grand cultural narratives from nostalgic restoration literature of the 1950s through the socially critical anti Heimat novel to recent literary reckonings with Austria's Nazi past Peering through the lens of film adaptation this book rattles the generic shackles imposed by literary history and provides an entirely new critical perspective on Austrian literature Its original methodological approach challenges the primacy of written sources in existing scholarship and uses the distortions generated by the shift in medium as a productive starting point for literary analysis Five case studies approach canonical texts in post war Austrian literature by Gerhard Fritsch Franz Innerhofer Gerhard Roth Elfriede Jelinek and Robert Schindel through close readings of their cinematic adaptations concentrating on key areas of narratological concern plot narrative perspective authorship and post modern ontologies Setting the texts within the historical cultural and political discourses that define the Alpine Republic this study investigates fundamental aspects of Austrian national identity such as its Habsburg and National Socialist legacies

Primo Levi Mirna Cicioni, 1995-12-01 Primo Levi 1919 1987 is one of Italy's most distinguished writers A survivor of the Holocaust his memoirs on the Nazi death camps If This Is a Man and The Truce are internationally recognized as among the most powerful and profound testimonies to have come out of the extermination of European Jewry This book is the first comprehensive introduction to Levi and his writing for English speaking readers The author draws attention to the literary worth of Levi's entire output not just the Holocaust testimonies for which he is primarily known and situates his works in the context of Italian culture and society from the 1920s to the 1980s A man with many identities chemist industrial manager and writer he tried through his writing to build bridges between different cultures and fields of enquiry Aesthetics and

Politics in Modern German Culture Brigid Haines, Stephen R. Parker, Colin Riordan, 2010 The papers were delivered at a conference Aesthetics and Politics in Modern German Culture which was held in honour of Professor Rhys W Williams the conference took place from 31 August to 2 September 2008 at the University of Wales Conference Centre Gregynog Hall

Foreword The New Georgics, 2016-09-12 The human condition in rural provincial locations is once again gaining status as a subject of European high fiction after several decades in which it was dismissed on aesthetic and ideological grounds This volume is one of the first attempts to investigate perspectives on local cultures values and languages both systematically and in a European context It does so by examining the works of a variety of authors including Hugo Claus Llamazares Bergounioux and Millet Buffalino and Consolo and also several Soviet authors who paint a grim picture of a collectivized and thus ossified rurality How do these themes relate to the ongoing trend of globalization How do these works which are often experimental connect in their form topics language and ideological subtext to the traditional rural or regional genres Far from naively celebrating a lost Eden most of these new Georgics reflect critically on the tensions in contemporary peripheral rural or regional cultures to the point of parodying the traditional topoi and genres This book is of interest to those wishing to reflect on the dynamics and conflicts in contemporary European rural culture A History of Austrian Literature

1918-2000 Katrin Maria Kohl, Anne Fuchs, Florian Krobb, Ritchie Robertson, 2006 New essays examine 20th c Austrian literature in relation to history politics and popular culture 20th century Austrian literature boasts many outstanding writers Schnitzler Musil Rilke Kraus Celan Canetti Bernhard Jelinek These and others feature in broader accounts of German literature but it is desirable to see how the Austrian literary scene and Austrian society itself shaped their writing This volume thus surveys Austrian writers of drama prose fiction and lyric poetry relates them to the distinctive history of modern Austria a democratic republic that was overtaken by civil war and authoritarian rule absorbed into Nazi Germany and re established as a neutral state and examines their response to controversial events such as the collusion with Nazism the

Waldheim affair and the rise of Haider and the extreme right In addition to confronting controversy in the relations between literature history and politics the volume examines popular culture in line with current trends Contributors Judith Beniston Janet Stewart Andrew Barker Murray Hall Anthony Bushell Dagmar Lorenz Juliane Vogel Jonathan Long Joseph McVeigh Allyson Fiddler Katrin Kohl is Lecturer in German and a Fellow of Jesus College and Ritchie Robertson is Taylor Professor of German Language and Literature and a Fellow of The Queen s College both at the University of Oxford

The Art of Resistance Allyson Fiddler, 2018-10-19 Well before the far right resurgence that has most recently transformed European politics Austria s 1999 parliamentary elections surprised the world with the unexpected success of the Freedom Party of Austria and its charismatic leader Jörg Haider The party s perceived xenophobia isolationism and unabashed nationalism in turn inspired a massive protest movement that expressed opposition not only through street protests but also in novels plays films and music Through careful readings of this varied cultural output The Art of Resistance traces the aesthetic styles and strategies deployed during this time providing critical context for understanding modern Austrian history as well as the European protest movements of today

Austrian Exodus Edward Timms, Ritchie Robertson, 1995 Following the German annexation of Austria in 1938 and the intensified persecution of the Jews the British and American governments relaxed their restrictions on immigration and issued entry visas to tens of thousands of German speaking refugees The resulting exodus can be seen as the most significant cultural migration of modern times For the majority of the refugees from National Socialism came from educated backgrounds and they included some of the most gifted members of the cultural elite The remarkable contributions made by refugees from Austria to the cultural life of the English speaking world form the subject of this book which reviews the achievements both of refugee organisations and of outstanding individual authors including Stefan Zweig Erich Fried Hilde Spiel Josef Fraenkel Felix Pollak and Elias Canetti Their commitment to the struggle against fascism exemplified by the political cartoons of Joseph Otto Flatter also provided an inspiration for the restoration of Austrian independence after the defeat of Nazi Germany Book Jacket

The Facts on File Companion to the World Novel Michael Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2008

The Cambridge Companion to the Modern German Novel Graham Bartram, 2004-04-05 The Cambridge Companion to the Modern German Novel first published in 2004 provides a broad ranging introduction to the major trends in the development of the German novel from the 1890s to the present Written by an international team of experts it encompasses both modernist and realist traditions and also includes a look back to the roots of the modern novel in the Bildungsroman of the late eighteenth and nineteenth centuries The structure is broadly chronological but thematically focused chapters examine topics such as gender anxiety images of the city war and women s writing within each chapter key works are selected for close attention Unique in its combination of breadth of coverage and detailed analysis of individual works and featuring a chronology and guides to further reading this Companion will be indispensable to students and teachers

Blueprints for No-man's Land Janet Stewart, Simon Ward, 2005 This volume brings together a collection of essays focusing on selected aspects of inter and multidisciplinary in contemporary Austrian culture These include the connections between literature and the media literature and the visual arts literature and travel and the visual arts and public space The individual contributions deal with central figures in the Austrian arts including Thomas Bernhard Franzobel Elfriede Jelinek Peter Handke Peter Turrini and Doron Rabinovici as well as collective ventures such as Walter Grond's Odysseus project and the museum in progress They analyse the impact of connections between disciplines on the cultural landscape in contemporary Austria as well as examining the limits of such interaction between disciplines

The Cinema of Michael Haneke Ben McCann, David Sorfa, 2012-05-29 Michael Haneke is one of the most important directors working in Europe today with films such as Funny Games 1997 Code Unknown 2000 and Hidden 2005 interrogating modern ethical dilemmas with forensic clarity and merciless insight Haneke's films frequently implicate both the protagonists and the audience in the making of their misfortunes yet even in the barren nihilism of The Seventh Continent 1989 and Time of the Wolf 2003 a dark strain of optimism emerges releasing each from its terrible and inescapable guilt It is this contingent and unlikely possibility that we find in Haneke's cinema a utopian Europe This collection celebrates explicates and sometimes challenges the worldview of Haneke's films It examines the director's central themes and preoccupations bourgeois alienation modes and critiques of spectatorship the role of the media and analyzes otherwise marginalized aspects of his work such as the function of performance and stardom early Austrian television productions the romanticism of The Piano Teacher 2001 and the 2007 shot for shot remake of Funny Games Gender and Politics in Austrian Fiction Ritchie Robertson, Edward Timms, 1996 This volume of essays on Austrian fiction compiled at a time when Austria is forming stronger links within the European Union illustrates a transition from traditional preoccupations with character differences between Austrian and German literature to wider concerns of politics and gender Fictional treatments of such issues as male homosexuality problems in feminism the representation of women in male authored texts and anti war protest are examined both in well known novels and in little known works by underrated authors Many of the authors discussed have received insufficient recognition because they do not fall within a familiar canon of German literature The specialised research involved in compiling this material is accessible through a series of book reviews included at the end of the volume which range in subject area from the life of an eighteenth century soldier in the Habsburg service to the continuing discussion on Austrian identity

German Culture and the Uncomfortable Past Helmut Schmitz, 2017-07-05 Beginning with the question of the role of the past in the shaping of a contemporary identity this volume spans three generations of German and Austrian writers and explores changes and shifts in the aesthetics of Vergangenheitsbewältigung coming to terms with the past The purpose of the book is to assess contemporary German literary representations of National Socialism in a wider context of these current debates The contributors address questions arising from a shift over the last decade triggered by a generation change questions of personal and national identity in Germany and Austria and the aesthetics of memory One of the central questions that emerges in relation to the Hitler youth generation is that of biography as examined through G nter Grass and Martin Walser s conflicting views on the subject of National Socialism Other themes explored here are the conflict between the post war generations and the contributions of that conflict to West German mentality and the growing historical distance and its influence on the aesthetics of representation The Ends of Satire Daniel Bowles,2015-02-24 How are we to think of satire if it has ceased to exist as a discrete genre This study proposes a novel solution understanding the satiric in the postwar era as a set of writing practices figures of inversion myth making and citation By showing how writers and theorists alike deploy these devices in new contexts this book reexamines the link between German postwar writing and the history of satire and between literature and theory Theodor Herzl and the Origins of Zionism Ritchie Robertson,Edward Timms,1997 This volume commemorates Theodor Herzl the Viennese journalist and writer who incongruously founded Zionism as a political movement which led ultimately to the founding of the State of Israel The contributors look at Herzl and seek to place him in historical context In particular they examine his relations with Viennese contemporaries his use of his position as a prominent journalist to obtain audiences with world leaders his negotiations with Germany and Britain to obtain a national territory for the Jews and his attempts to analyze and reshape the Jewish character in his fictional writings
