I Was a Monster Movie Maker Tom Weaver,2010-06-21 Phil Brown who played Luke Skywalker s uncle in Star Wars

said In my long life in films there are ones I m proud of and those I m not proud of The Jungle Captive and Weird Woman fall into the latter category House of Wax co star Paul Picerni was fired by the film s director when he refused to put his head in a working guillotine during a climactic fight scene Packed with wonderful tidbits this volume collects 22 interviews with the moviemakers responsible for bringing such films as This Island Earth The Haunting Carnival of Souls Pit and the Pendulum House of Wax Tarzan the Ape Man The Black Cat Them and Invasion of the Body Snatchers to the movie screen Faith Domergue Michael Forest Anne Helm Candace Hilligoss Suzanna Leigh Norman Lloyd Maureen O Sullivan Shirley Ulmer Dana Wynter and many more are interviewed Columbia Noir Gene Blottner,2015-03-19 This filmography covers Columbia Pictures noir titles released in the classic noir era October 1940 to June 1962 All sub genres are covered including British western and science fiction Included are the great Columbia films Gilda Lady from Shanghai All the Kings Men In a Lonely Place On the Waterfront Anatomy of a Murder and Experiment in Terror The films are examined in detail with release dates cast and production credits production dates synopses reviews notes and commentary on each film the author s summation and the publicity tag lines Irwin Allen Television Productions, 1964-1970 Jon Abbott,2015-06-14 Before establishing himself as the master of disaster with the 1970s films The Poseidon Adventure and The Towering Inferno Irwin Allen created four of television s most exciting and enduring science fiction series Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea Lost in Space The Time Tunnel and Land of the Giants These 1960s series were full of Allen s favorite tricks techniques and characteristic touches and influenced other productions from the original Star Trek forward Every science fiction show owes something to Allen yet none has equaled his series pace excitement or originality This detailed examination and documentation of the premise and origin of the four shows offers an objective evaluation of every episode and demonstrates that when Irwin Allen s television episodes were good they were great and when they were bad they were still terrific fun

1950s Science Fiction Films and 9/11 Melvin E. Matthews,2007 1950s Cold War era monsters meet 21st century terrorists this exploration of sci fi movies examines the similarities and differences between the political environment and popular culture of two eras This examination and appreciation of 1950s science fiction films includes behind the scenes tales about their production and many quotes from those who produced and starred in the films The author draws parallels between the Cold War fears of the 1950s and 60s and the constant terrorism alerts of the September 11th era exploring how the politics and the psychological climate of the times influences and is reflected in this vehicle of popular culture This book is the first of its kind studying the pop culture genre in the wake of the September 11th tragedy It shows that whatever the era and whatever the challenges and crises confronting America many entertainment themes remain the same reflecting their respective times and the relevant issues For instance Godzilla the only Fifties era monster to remain a movie star beyond that era could be fashioned to reflect whatever issues dominate the times be they nuclear war in the Fifties when Godzilla originated to a Seventies Godzilla film about environmental pollution Conceivably a Godzilla for the age of terrorism is possible. Then the 1954 atomic mutation classic is the spiritual ancestor of the 2002 film Eight Legged Freaks. The alien invaders of the Fifties signified a Russian invasion of America while other films of the genre such as Invaders from Mars depicted aliens utilizing mind control to manipulate humans to commit acts of sabotage signifying Communist enslavement. If such a film were made now such invaders could be seen as terrorist masterminds using human slaves to commit terrorist acts. Finally several Fifties films depicted the end of the world at a time when Americans expected a nuclear war with Russia. The immediate pre September 11th era witnessed films presenting galactic threats to mankind's existence Independence Day, Deep Impact, Armageddon while the early 2000s witnessed the popularity of the Left Behind Christian films dramatizing the Tribulation period in the Book of Revelation.

Screen World Vol. 4 1953 Blum, Daniel, 1969 Artists' Magazines Gwen Allen, 2015-08-21 How artists magazines in all their ephemerality, materiality and temporary intensity challenged mainstream art criticism and the gallery system. During the 1960s and 1970s magazines became an important new site of artistic practice functioning as an alternative exhibition space for the dematerialized practices of conceptual art. Artists created works expressly for these mass produced hand editioned pages using the ephemerality and the materiality of the magazine to challenge the conventions of both artistic medium and gallery. In Artists Magazines Gwen Allen looks at the most important of these magazines in their heyday the 1960s to the 1980s and compiles a comprehensive illustrated directory of hundreds of others. Among the magazines Allen examines are Aspen 1965-1971 a multimedia magazine in a box issues included Super 8 films, flexi disc records, critical writings, artists' postage stamps and collectible chapbooks. Avalanche 1970-1976 which expressed the countercultural character of the emerging SoHo art community through its interviews and artist designed contributions and Real Life 1979-1994 published by Thomas Lawson and Susan Morgan as a forum for the Pictures generation. These and the other magazines Allen examines expressed their differences from mainstream media in both form and content: they cast their homemade do it yourself quality against the slickness of an Artforum and they created work that defied the formalist orthodoxy of the day. Artists Magazines featuring abundant color illustrations of magazine covers and content offers an essential guide to a little explored medium.
