Writing Arguments John D. Ramage,John C. Bean,June Johnson,2014-12-24 For courses in Argument and Research The most thorough theoretical foundation available Writing Arguments A Rhetoric with Readings Brief Edition 10 e integrates four different approaches to argument the enthymeme as a logical structure the classical concepts of logos pathos and ethos the Toulmin system and stasis theory Focusing on argument as dialogue in search of solutions instead of a pro con debate with winners and losers it is consistently praised for teaching the critical thinking skills needed for writing arguments Major assignment chapters each focus on one or two classical stases e g definition resemblance causal evaluation and policy Each concept is immediately reinforced with discussion prompts and each chapter ends with multiple comprehensive writing assignments This brief version includes readings within the chapters but excludes the anthology included in the comprehensive version Also available in a Comprehensive version 032190673X and a Concise version which is a redaction of the Brief edition 0321964284 Also available with MyWritingLab tm This title is also available with MyWritingLab an online homework tutorial and assessment program designed to work with this text to engage students and improve results Within its structured environment students practice what they learn test their understanding and pursue a personalized study plan that helps them better absorb course material and understand difficult concepts Note You are purchasing a standalone product MyWritingLab does not come packaged with this content If you would like to purchase both the physical text and MyWritingLab search for ISBN 10 0133910695 ISBN 13 9780133910698 That package includes ISBN 10 0133944131 ISBN 13 9780133944136 ISBN 10 013394414X ISBN 13 9780133944143 and ISBN 10 0321964276 ISBN 13 9780321964274 MyWritingLab is not a self paced technology and should only be purchased when required by an instructor Writing Arguments John D. Ramage,John C. Bean,June Johnson,2016-07-13 For courses in Argument and Research This version of Writing Arguments A Rhetoric with Readings Brief has been updated to reflect the 8th edition of the MLA Handbook April 2016 Teach students to read arguments critically and to produce effective arguments Writing Arguments A Rhetoric with Readings Brief Edition Tenth Edition integrates four different approaches to argument the enthymeme as a logical structure the classical concepts of logos pathos and ethos the Toulmin system and stasis theory Focusing on argument as dialogue in search of solutions instead of a pro con debate with winners and losers it is consistently praised for teaching the critical thinking skills needed for writing arguments Major assignment chapters each focus on one or two classical stases e g definition resemblance causal evaluation and policy Each concept is immediately reinforced with discussion prompts and each chapter ends with multiple comprehensive writing assignments This brief version contains exemplary readings within the chapters but excludes the anthology included in the comprehensive version Also available in a Comprehensive version 032190673X and a Concise version 0321964284 which is a redaction of the Brief edition The 8th Edition introduces sweeping changes to the philosophy and details of MLA works cited entries Responding to the increasing mobility of texts MLA now encourages writers to focus on the process of crafting the citation beginning with the same questions for any source These changes then align with current best practices in the teaching of writing which privilege inquiry and critical thinking over rote recall and rule following

Speaking of Writing: A Brief Rhetoric Allegra Goodman, Michael Prince, 2019-08-08 Can a writing textbook inform and entertain Can a very brief rhetoric also function as a stand alone guide to college writing Yes and yes Speaking of Writing is a concise yet comprehensive rhetoric with readings Informed by scholarship in Writing Studies this book follows four college students from diverse backgrounds as they face the challenges of reading writing and critical thinking in first year writing and across the disciplines Each chapter engages students in relatable often humorous scenarios that focus on key challenges Through its story based approach Speaking of Writing enacts student centered and process based pedagogy showing students learning to address fundamental questions How can I apply my own strategies for success to new assignments How can I maintain my own voice when asked to compose in an academic style What do college professors mean by a thesis and how is this different from what my high school teachers meant Why is this argument weak and how can I make it stronger The book's narrative vividly dramatizes a draft and revision process that includes instructor feedback peer review and careful research
