Lindemann,1991-12-30 Published for the Conference on College Composition and Communication this 1990 volume lists and annotates 1 849 articles books dissertations and papers A group of 136 contributing bibliographers prepared the citations and annotations for all entries The volume includes an index of authors and editors and cross references entries according to subject matter Entries appear under five major categories bibliographies and checklists theory and research teacher education administration and social roles curriculum and testing measurement and evaluation    Stories of Our Living Ephemera Emily Legg,2023-12-15 Stories of Our Living Ephemera recovers the history of the Cherokee National Seminaries from scattered archives and colonized research practices by critically weaving together pedagogy and archival artifacts with Cherokee traditional stories and Indigenous worldviews This unique text adds these voices to writing studies history and presents these stories as models of active rhetorical practices of assimilation resistance in colonized spaces Emily Legg turns to the Cherokee medicine wheel and cardinal directions as a Cherokee rhetorical discipline of knowledge making in the archives an embodied and material practice that steers knowledge through the four cardinal directions around all relations Going beyond historiography Legg delineates educational practices that are intertwined with multiple strands of traditional Cherokee stories that privilege Indigenous and matriarchal theoretical lenses Stories of Our Living Ephemera synthesizes the connections between contemporary and nineteenth century academic experiences to articulate the ways that colonial institutions and research can be Indigenized by centering Native American sovereignty By undoing the erasure of Cherokee literacy and educational practices Stories of Our Living Ephemera celebrates the importance of storytelling especially for those who are learning about Indigenous histories and rhetorics This book is of cultural importance and value to academics interested in composition and pedagogy the Cherokee Nation and a general audience seeking to learn about Indigenous rhetorical devices and Cherokee history    Writing on the Edge ,2004    Dead Letters Tracy Santa,2008 This study views the history of error in composition instruction through a reader's rather than a writer's perspective and in so doing documents the manner in which our visions of error and perceptions of student writers who produce error have both transformed and remained static over the course of 130 years A central conclusion derived from this is an assertion that error is largely produced by readers of student writers rather than student writers themselves
