Rhetoric And Ethic The Politics Of Biblical Studies:

Rhetoric and Ethic Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza, In this major study leading feminist biblical critic Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza focuses on Paul and his interpreters She questions the apolitical ethos of biblical scholarship and argues for an alternative rooted in a critical understanding of language as a form of power Modern biblical criticism she reasons derives much of its methodology and inspiration from an outdated notion of modern science It professes value neutrality and detachment from the world of politics and history Yet Schussler Fiorenza maintains this posture belies an objectivity that fails to engage the sociopolitical context of both the text and today s reader It also does not recognize the rhetorical character of biblical texts and readings If language is understood in the sense of ancient rhetorics as a form of power that constitutes reality then an ethics of interpretation is called for The task of biblical studies is to identify and assess the ethical resources and moral visions of biblical religions Only then Schussler Fiorenza contends will biblical studies be a significant partner in the global struggles seeking justice and well being for all

Douglas F Ottati Ronald A Piper Cynthia L Rigby D R Sadananda Konrad Schmid Dirk Smit Iain Torrance Hans Weder Carver T Yu A Sacramental-prophetic Vision Matthew T. Eggemeier, 2014 In A Sacramental Prophetic Vision The Praxis of Christian Spirituality in a Suffering World Matthew Eggemeier argues that the sacramental and prophetic traditions of Christian spirituality possesses critical resources for responding to the contemporary social crises of widespread ecological degradation and the innocent suffering of a crucified people Eggemeier maintains that the vital key for cultivating these sacramental and prophetic traditions in the present is to situate these spiritualities in the context of spiritual exercises or ascetical practices that enable Christians to live more deeply coram Deo and in turn to make this presence visible in a suffering world Hermeneutics Anthony C. Thiselton, 2009-10-09 Here Anthony Thiselton brings together his encyclopedic knowledge of hermeneutics and his nearly four decades of teaching on the subject to provide an ideal textbook which takes the reader through the time honoured interpretation techniques of the past and on to modern times Essays on Being Reformed Dirkie Smit, 2009-12-01 What does it mean to be Reformed Christians in the world today and in Africa and South Africa What does it mean to commemorate the legacy of John Calvin 1509 1564 after 500 years in a modern world characterised by democracy by popular notions of human dignity and human rights by worldwide struggles for individual freedoms and for social justice by a global economy in crisis when social historians argue about the lasting contribution of Calvin and his followers precisely with respect to all these modern phenomena The 28 essays by Dirkie Smit selected for this volume deal with such questions The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theology Mary McClintock Fulkerson, Sheila Briggs, 2012 This volume highlights the relevance of globalization and the insights of gender studies and religious studies for feminist theology It focuses on the changing global contexts for the field and its movement towards new models of theology distinct from the forms of traditional Christian systematic theology and of secular feminism Democratizing Biblical Studies Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza, 2009-01-01 Schüssler Fiorenza addresses such questions as What are the educational practices and procedures that are advocated by traditional educational models and how can they be changed What kinds of educational and communicative practices do biblical studies need to develop in order to fashion an emancipatory democratizing rhetorical space and a forum of many voices To envision articulate debate and practice a radical democratic ethos of biblical studies she identifies emerging didactic models that can foster such a radical democratic style of learning Pbk cover Paul the Reluctant Witness Blake Shipp, 2005-11-01 In this stimulating analysis Shipp provides the reader with an introduction and critique of literary rhetorical analysis as well as an in depth treatment of the triple account of Paul's Damascus Road experience in Acts Luke used the repetition of the Damascus narrative as a literary device identifying Pauline disobedience and resistance and the transformation of these characteristics With the first Damascus narrative Luke provided the reader with a paradigmatic image of resistance transformed Luke used the Damascus narratives and these themes to bracket the Paulusbild fashioning the trial narrative into an extended period of transformation of Pauline resistance

Beginning in 19 21 Paul resisted the leading of the Holy Spirit and his appointed location of witness He was an intentionally forceful actor resisting God God bound this intentionally forceful actor in chains In this opening scene of the Paulusbild Luke included the second Damascus narrative 21 33 22 24a The themes emphasized in the narrative were those of Saul intentionally resisting gospel expansion and God s subsequent overcoming of Saul Saul was physically restored through Ananias but not fully transformed He is not yet an empowered and intentionally forceful witness At the end of the Paulusbild as Paul is headed to Rome Luke included the final Damascus narrative 25 23 26 32 Paul was headed to Rome but not in the freedom intended by God He remained in chains because of his own actions Thus his character was one of tension The Damascus narrative that Luke included demonstrates Saul s intentionally forceful resistance to the gospel However the vacating of power and overcoming of Saul is suppressed and the theme of the transformation of resistance to empowered witness is emphasized Nonetheless the character of Saul in the speech does not match the character of Paul in the narrative Tension remains but the projected direction of transformation is evident Paul is headed to Rome The vision of grace has effected a transformation in Saul but not yet in Paul If the trajectory of transformation continues then Paul should once again be an intentionally forceful empowered witness for the gospel when he arrives in Rome from Chapter 5

Human Trafficking, The Bible and the Church Marion L. S. Carson, 2017-05-26 Whilst the philosophical battle against slavery might have been won human trafficking is very much a problem for our time and continues to spark rigorous debate among Christians wrestling with what God s justice might look like today Can the Bible whose teaching on slavery is so at odds with our contemporary worldview inform efforts to end human trafficking and if so how In Human Trafficking the Bible and the Church Marion Carson offers a profound interdisciplinary account of how Christians have engaged with slavery in the past and how they might respond in the future Whilst rigorously scholarly and painstakingly researched this is at the same time a highly readable book that will refresh our own understanding and help shape our responsibility to bring about change

The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story
