Resources in Education ,2000-04 Melting Pots & Mosaics: Children of Immigrants in US-American Literature Rüdiger Heinze,2017-12-15 In the past decades children of immigrants have drawn increased attention not only in press and media but also in a number of academic fields among them sociology history or ethnology Surprisingly literary and cultural studies have been somewhat more reluctant to approach the topic While there is work on individual authors or at the very most particular ethnic groups comparative approaches are rare This monograph aims to amend this It provides an extensive discussion of US American literature about children of immigrants comparing different authors different ethnic groups and different literary and historical contexts

Understanding African American Rhetoric Ronald L. Jackson II, Elaine B. Richardson, 2014-05-22

This is an extraordinarily well balanced collection of essays focused on varied expressions of African American Rhetoric it also is a critical antidote to a preoccupation with Western Rhetoric as the arbiter of what counts for effective rhetoric Rather than impose Western terminology on African and African American rhetoric the essays in this volume seek to illumine rhetoric from within its own cultural expression thereby creating an understanding grounded in the culture's values The consequence is a richly detailed and well researched set of essays The contribution of African American rhetoric can no longer be rendered invisible through neglect of its tradition The essays in this volume neither seek to displace Western Rhetoric nor function as an uncritical paen to Afrocentricity and Africology This volume is both timely and essential timely in advancing a better understanding of the richly textured history that is expressed through African American discourse and essential as a counterpoint to the hegemonic influence of Greek and Roman rhetoric as the origin of rhetorical theory and practice Written in the spirit of a critical rhetoric this collection eschews traditional focus on public address and instead offers a rich array of texts in musical and other forms that address publics

The Rhetoric of Race Maria del Guadalupe Davidson, 2011-11-28

The Rhetoric of Race Toward a Revolutionary Construction of Black Identity analitza el llegat dels principals estudiosos de la identitat afroamericana W E B Du Bois Alain Locke i Amiri Baraka El propòsit d'aquest volum és investigar i criticar les seues idees per tal de mostrar fins a quin punt els seus esforços a l'hora de crear una definició de la identitat negra no foren tan fructífers com es podria pensar El llibre tracta d'elaborar una definició revolucionària de la identitat emmarcada dins les següents posicions teòriques i exigència del reconeixement d'un passat de sofriment la replicació d'all negatiu respecte a l'afroamericà i la crida resposta com a forma de comunicació negra. Tot fent servir la retòrica com a punt de partida s'intenta justificar aquesta construcció des de les posicions filosòfiques defensades per Michel Foucault i Gilles Deleuze. Les idees de Foucault són la base per analitzar les possibilitats que inclou aquesta identitat negra de resistència davant el poder mentre que les de Deleuze són útils a l'hora d'investigar el replegament cap a si mateix que aquesta identitat realitza per a crear un espai intern. Tot i que forma part d'all extern aquest espai intern esdevé punt de trobada de tots els aspectes històrics d'aquesta identitat ja que parla del que ha estat i serà d'una altra banda s'argumenta que aquesta trobada interna amb les seues múltiples parts porta aquesta identitat a projectar un jo positiu quan ha d'afrontar all extern. L'anàlisi de les idees d'investigadores afroamericanes com ara Barbara Smith i bell hooks fa de conclusió. El capítol 5 exposa les conclusions a les quals arriba aquest estudi i hi analitza la importància de la música hip hop dins el món contemporani per a la comunitat afroamericana. Per la seua força cultural i lingüística el hip hop posseeix el potencial necessari per a construir una idea positiva del que serà negre als Estats Units per a la joventut afroamericana actual.

Encyclopedia of Diversity in Education James A. Banks, 2012-05-17 The diversity education literature both nationally and internationally is broad and diffuse. Consequently there needs to be a systematic and logical way to organize and present the state of research for students and professionals. American citizens need to understand the dynamics of their increasingly diverse communities and institutions and the global world in which we live, work and lead. With continually evolving information on diversity policies, practices and programs it is important to have one place where students, scholars, teachers and policymakers can examine and explore research, policy and practice issues and find answers to important questions about how diversity in U.S. education is enriched with theories, research and practices in other nations. Are explained and communicated and how they affect institutional change at both the K-12 and postsecondary levels. With about 700 signed entries with cross references and recommended readings the Encyclopedia of Diversity in Education 4 volumes in both print and electronic formats will present research and statistics, case studies and best practices, policies and programs at pre and postsecondary levels. Diversity is a worldwide phenomenon and while most of the entries in the Encyclopedia will focus on the United States, diversity issues and developments in nations around the world including the United States are intricately connected. Consequently to illuminate the many aspects of diversity this volume will contain entries from different nations in the world in order to illuminate the myriad aspects of diversity. From A to Z this Encyclopedia will cover the full spectrum of diversity issues including race, class, gender, religion, language, exceptionality and the global dimensions of diversity as they relate to education. This four volume reference work will be the definitive reference for diversity issues in education in the United States and the world.
