Vanapeldorn,2022-01-05 A word creates a thought A thought creates an emotion An emotion creates an image The cycle of verbal to visual art What I found so beautiful about this cycle is that no two people will ever come up with the same image They may have similar aspects however each will be unique to the person who read the word and felt the emotion that created their own image With this very idea in mind I decided to collaborate with my very talented mother I wanted to see my words through the eyes of her emotions And I must say it was inspiring to see the words that captured her thought process with each poem I hope you enjoy this verbal and visual journey as much as we did and reflect upon your own image as you read each poem      Rhyme and Reason ; Short and Original Poems Philip Smyth,1803      Rhyme and Reason Kat Francois,Robert Covell,2008      Rhyme and Reason Colin R.
