Rhys Davies Decoding The Hare:

Rhys Davies Meic Stephens, 2001 Rhys Davies dedicated his life to writing and is regarded as one of the most accomplished Welsh prose writers in English This volume contains essays on major aspects of his life and work from the literary social and national contexts within which he wrote to issues of gender sexuality and race New Territories in Modernism Laura Wainwright, 2018-03-15 Until very recently Welsh literary Modernism has been critically neglected both within and outside Wales This is the first book devoted solely to the study of Welsh literary Modernism revealing and examining eight key Anglophone Welsh writers Laura Wainwright demonstrates how their linguistic experimentation constituted an engagement with the unprecedented linguistic social and cultural changes that were the making of modern Wales and formed the crucible for the emergence of a distinct Welsh Modernism This study of Welsh Modernism challenges conventional literary histories and in more than one sense takes Modernism and Modernist studies into new territories

Rhys Davies Huw Edwin Osborne, 2009-07-01 Davies was the holder of a complex identity he was a gay man who grew up as a shopkeeper's son in the Rhondda who left Wales to write about his homeland in England This book unravels a national experience that is deeply bound up in complex negotiations of class sexuality and gender and follows a career that was predicted to be that of the representative Welshman The book is divided into three sections the first begins with Davies's childhood in Blaenclydach and the ways in which his memories of his childhood reinforce continuing themes in his stories and novels the second will place Davies in literary London and address Davies's struggle to enter the privileged circles of literary production circulation and reception the final section considers the established Davies of the 1940s 50s and 60s

Queer Wales Huw Osborne, 2016-06-20 it is a multidisciplinary collection of essays it is the first book length engagement with the subject of queer Wales it covers period from the 18th century to the present it considers literature art history film television drama crime motherhood education and a range of other questions across these categories Behind the Scenes Angela John, 2025-06-13 Philip Burton 1904-95 is best remembered as the schoolmaster responsible for training and transforming his pupil Richard Jenkins into Richard Burton world famous star of stage and screen Together they produced a remarkable symbiosis The stage struck Philip Burton was present behind the scenes for the rest of the actor's life intervening at crucial moments to ensure consummate stage performances in for example Coriolanus Hamlet and Camelot This biography drawing upon a number of previously unseen sources provides a fresh angle on this compelling story And by placing Philip Burton's story centre stage a remarkable figure also emerges in his own right In a life that virtually spanned the twentieth century he demonstrated resilience and transatlantic triumph against the odds Like his best known protégé he was born into an impoverished south Wales mining family Alongside teaching he acted wrote and produced plays and in 1945 with wireless at its height he became a BBC radio producer He worked on almost 200 radio programmes encouraging newcomers and producing work by Dylan Thomas He wrote scripts for the fledgling television and penned its first soap Reinventing himself in the mid 1950s Philip Burton moved to the United States where after dabbling in the film industry and working as a theatre director he became the inspirational first director of the American Musical and Dramatic Academy in New York He took American citizenship and travelled across the States delivering sparkling Shakespearean lecture recitals He published five books living in Key West Florida from the 1970s Philip Burton died in 1995 aged ninety his expertise and encouragement having enabled numerous aspiring actors and writers to flourish on both sides of the Atlantic

Postcolonialism Revisited Kirsti Bohata,2009-06-15 Postcolonialism Revisited is a ground breaking book the first to explore and analyse Anglophone Welsh writing both literary and otherwise in the context of contemporary thinking about colonial and post colonial cultures Kirsti Bohata considers how far the paradigms of postcolonial theory may be usefully adopted and adapted to provide an illuminating exploration of Welsh writing in English while simultaneously considering the challenges that such writing might offer to the field of postcolonial theory

Disability in industrial Britain Kirsti Bohata,Alexandra Jones,Mike Mantin,Steven Thompson,2020-01-07 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license An electronic version of this book is also available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND license thanks to the support of the Wellcome Trust Coalmining was a notoriously dangerous industry and many of its workers experienced injury and disease However the experiences of the many disabled people within Britain s most dangerous industry have gone largely unrecognised by historians This book looks at British coal through the lens of disability using an interdisciplinary approach to examine the lives of disabled miners and their families A diverse range of sources are used to examine the economic social political and cultural impact of disability in the coal industry looking beyond formal coal company and union records to include autobiographies novels and existing oral testimony It argues that far from being excluded entirely from British industry disability and disabled people were central to its development The book will appeal to students and academics interested in disability history disability studies social and cultural history and representations of disability in literature

The Centenary Edition Raymond Williams Raymond Williams,2021-05-01 A collection of seminal essays in the of Welsh literary historical and political studies The book is itself a key chapter in Welsh intellectual history and an analysis of that history It offers a revisionist Welsh view of Raymond Williams a critic often viewed as a British Marxist or the the English Sartre

Wales Unchained Daniel G Williams,2015-04-15 Contributes to the fields of Welsh Studies Comparative Studies Transatlantic Studies Offers analyses of key chapters in the cultural making of modern Wales Offers insights into national and ethnic identity and encourages readers to consider the extent of Welsh tolerance and intolerance Draws on Welsh and English language sources and ranges across literature history music and political thought The book is an example of Welsh cultural studies in action The book intervenes in key debates within cultural studies nationalism and assimilationism language and race class and identity cultural identity and political citizenship

World Literature and Ecology Michael Niblett,2020-05-12 Located at the intersection of world literary studies and the environmental humanities this book analyses how fiction and poetry respond to the ecological transformations entailed by commodity frontiers Examining the sugar cacao coal and oil frontiers in Trinidad Brazil and Britain World Literature and Ecology shows how literary texts have registered the relationship between the re making of biophysical natures and struggles around class race and gender It combines a materialist theory of world literature with the insights of the world ecology perspective to generate compelling new readings of writers such as Rhys Davies Yseult Bridges Lewis Jones Jos Lins do Rego Ellen Wilkinson Jorge Amado Gwyn Thomas and Ralph de Boissi re The book represents a timely intervention into a series of field defining debates around peripheral realisms and modernisms ecocriticism and the energy humanities

Modernism from the Margins Chris Wigginton,2020-10-01 Modernism from the Margins is an accessible and challenging account of the 1930s writing of two of the most popular authors of the time Locating the work of Louis MacNeice and Dylan Thomas historically the book questions standard accounts of the period as Auden dominated and offers an inclusive and theoretical account of the engagement of both writers with the varieties of Modernism It is the first reading at length of either MacNeice s or Thomas s work in the light of literary theory and one of only a handful of texts to look at the writing of the 1930s in these terms This book is an important contribution to contemporary discussions of both of these writers and of the general issues of modernism postmodernism literary identity and cultural identity it raises The Facts on File Companion to the British Short Story Andrew Maunder,2007 A comprehensive reference to short fiction from Great Britain Ireland and the British Commonwealth With approximately 450 entries this A to Z guide explores the literary contributions of such writers as Joseph Conrad James Joyce D H Lawrence Rudyard Kipling Oscar Wilde Katherine Mansfield Martin Amis and others Representing the Male John Perrott Jenkins,2021-06-15 A book entirely devoted to a subject in and of Wales that has not previously been published in Wales The subject Masculinity is also a growing discipline in international study The novelists presented societies and times in which they had either lived or continued to live Working class or proletarian fiction features in several UK and US university syllabuses The book connects Welsh fiction to a broad international context beyond an English regionalism Sex, Sects and Society Russell Davies,2018-03-28 This book will provide an educational and entertaining read It will explain the contradictions and complexities of the Welsh national identity This book will reveal the hardships and horrors of some people s lives It will reveal how religion and superstition ebbed and flowed together The World We Have Won Jeffrey Weeks,2007-06-21 This book explores the life changes since 1945 from welfarism to the pill and from globalization to individualization Rejecting the cultural pessimism it argues that this is a world we are increasingly making for ourselves a world we have won A Tolerant Nation? ,2015-03-15 Combines historical and contemporary material Draws on historical sociological cultural and literary approaches Full revised and up to date edition of a classic book in the field Covers the whole field in one volume Encyclopedia of the British Short Story Andrew Maunder,2015-04-22 Provides a comprehensive reference to short fiction from Great Britain Ireland and the British Commonwealth featuring some of the most popular writers and works The Cambridge History of Welsh Literature Geraint Evans, Helen Fulton, 2019-04-18 This book is a comprehensive single volume history of literature in the two major languages of Wales from post Roman to post devolution Britain In the Shadow of the Pulpit M. Wynn Thomas, 2009-10-15 Writer versus preacher this book shows how this struggle has lain at the heart of Welsh writing and culture for the past two hundred years intimately shaping the English language literature produced by Wales Starting with a simple explanation of the history and character of Welsh Nonconformity it traces the growing textual response to Nonconformity's hegemonic cultural power from the eighteenth century onwards culminating in twentieth century writers attempts to undermine it by wresting words from the control of the pulpit It also uncovers a whole new body of nineteenth century fiction from Wales and re defines Dylan Thomas's debt to his Nonconformist ancestors The Female Gothic D. Wallace, A. Smith, 2009-11-12 This rich and varied collection of essays makes a timely contribution to critical debates about the Female Gothic a popular but contested area of literary studies The contributors revisit key Gothic themes gender race the body monstrosity metaphor motherhood and nationality to open up new critical directions
