Richard Lindner : Catalogue Raisonne of Paintings, Watercolors, and Drawings Werner Spies, 1999 Richard Lindner Richard Lindner, 1999 Richard Lindner a German born refugee from Nazi oppression who settled in New York created a deeply disturbing body of work completely at odds with that city's vanguard of the 1950s A former commercial artist Lindner drew on personal iconography and his European cultural heritage to fashion bright bizarre images of imaginary figures Grotesque children automaton couples and denizens of the urban underworld populate his canvases Often hailed as a precursor of Pop Art Lindner insisted that his was the art of an outsider that he was a man born between generations between the Dadaists and the more recent generation of Americans The situation of the emigre inspired Lindner's paintings which speak to the alienation and moral crises of this century and evoke the absurdity of the human condition Although best known for his striking images of intimidating femmes fatales Lindner consistently denied that his art was either erotic or misogynistic in intent The elusive character of his symbolism presents a challenge to conventional art criticism and historical scholarship The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter, 2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries Richard Lindner Judith Zilczer, Peter Selz, 1996 Richard Lindner 1901-1978 a German born refugee from Nazi oppression who settled in New York created a bold and deeply disturbing body of work completely at odds with that city's vanguard of the 1950s A former commercial artist Lindner drew on personal memory and his emigre cultural heritage to fashion images of a bizarre and lurid humanity Grotesque children automaton couples and denizens of the urban underworld populate his canvases While his bold precision tooled figurative paintings found an appreciative audience in the 1960s with the advent of Pop Art Lindner nonetheless remained a resolutely independent artist whose paintings speak to the alienation and moral crises of this century and evoke the absurdity of the human condition Richard Lindner Paintings and Watercolors 1948-1977 includes 73 oil paintings and watercolors in full color some of which have never before been exhibited or published The book is based on the first exhibition of Lindner's work in a generation organized by the Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden which reexamines Lindner's life and traces the unfolding thematic content of his art from the late 1940s until his death in 1978 Essays are by organizing curator Judith Zilczer Curator of Paintings at the Hirshhorn Museum and Peter Selz Professor Emeritus of the University of California Berkeley Dr Zilczer explores the biographical and cultural sources for Lindner's figurative symbolism while Professor Selz analyzes Lindner's controversial images of women Das Zeitalter der Avantgarden Klaus von Beyme, 2005 Art History after Deleuze and Guattari Sjoerd van Tuinen, Stephen Zepke, 2017-11-14 At the crossroads of philosophy artistic practice and art history Though Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari were not strictly art historians they reinvigorated ontological and formal approaches to art and simultaneously borrowed art historical concepts for their own philosophical work They were dedicated modernists inspired by the German school of expressionist art historians such as Riegl, Wölfflin and Worringer and the great modernist art critics such as Rosenberg, Steinberg, Greenberg and Fried. The work of Deleuze and Guattari on mannerism and Baroque art has led to new approaches to these artistic periods and their radical transdisciplinarity has influenced contemporary art like no other philosophy before it. Their work therefore raises important methodological questions on the differences and relations among philosophy, artistic practice and art history. In Art History after Deleuze and Guattari, international scholars from all three fields explore what a Deleuzo-Guattarian art history could be today. This definitive catalogue raisonné presents the collection as a whole with an introduction by Christian Rattemeyer, five essays each focusing on a different geographic area of artistic production, images throughout and a text on paper conservation. Richard Lindner, Richard Lindner, University of California.
