The Comic Offense from Vaudeville to Contemporary Comedy Rick DesRochers, 2014-07-31 The Comic Offense from Vaudeville to Contemporary Comedy examines how contemporary writer performers are influenced by the comedic vaudevillians of the early 20th century By tracing the history and legacy of the vaudeville era and performance acts like the Marx Brothers and The Three Keatons and moving through the silent and early sound films of the early 1930s the author looks at how comic writer performers continue to sell a brand of themselves as a form of social commentary in order to confront and dispel stereotypes of race class and gender The first study to explore contemporary popular comic culture and its influence on American society from this unique perspective Rick DesRochers analyzes stand up and improvisational comedy writing performing in the work of Larry David Tina Fey Stephen Colbert and Dave Chappelle He grounds these choices by examining their evolution as they developed signature characters and sketches for their respective shows Curb Your Enthusiasm 30 Rock The Colbert Report and Chappelle's Show

Race and the Subject of Masculinities Harry Stecopoulos, Michael Uebel, 1997 Although in recent years scholars have explored the cultural construction of masculinity they have largely ignored the ways in which masculinity intersects with other categories of identity particularly those of race and ethnicity The essays in Race and the Subject of Masculinities address this concern and focus on the social construction of masculinity black white ethnic gay and straight in terms of the often complex and dynamic relationships among these inseparable categories Discussing a wide range of subjects including the inherent homoeroticism of martial arts cinema the relationship between working class ideologies and Elvis impersonators the emergence of a gay black masculine aesthetic in the works of James Van der Zee and Robert Mapplethorpe and the comedy of Richard Pryor Race and the Subject of Masculinities provides a variety of opportunities for thinking about how race sexuality and manhood are reinforced and reconstituted in today's society Editors Harry Stecopoulos and Michael Uebel have gathered together essays that make clear how the formation of masculine identity is never as obvious as it might seem to be Examining personas as varied as Eddie Murphy Bruce Lee Tarzan Malcolm X and Andre the Giant these essays draw on feminist critique and queer theory to demonstrate how cross identification through performance and spectatorship among men of different races and cultural backgrounds has served to redefine masculinity in contemporary culture By taking seriously the role of race in the making of men Race and the Subject of Masculinities offers an important challenge to the new studies of masculinity Contributors Herman Beavers Jonathan Dollimore Richard Dyer Robin D G Kelly Christopher Looby Leerom Medovoi Eric Lott Deborah E McDowell Jos E Mu oz Harry Stecopoulos Yvonne Tasker Michael Uebel Gayle Wald Robyn Wiegman
