Monitoring Children's Rights Eugeen Verhellen, 2023-08-28 Intense political social and scientific efforts to improve the position of children are converging rapidly centered on the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child It is therefore reasonable to assume that there is broad consensus in the international community on how to take the position of children in society seriously Despite the unique success of the Convention the situation is such that it forces us as a matter of urgency to explore develop and implement guarantees for effective monitoring of the implementation of the Convention s provisions In the end rights are only effective when implemented This book containing the contributions made and discussed at the European Conference on Monitoring Children s Rights organized by Ghent University s Children s Rights Centre in December 1994 presents the results of interdisciplinary research into monitoring to a wider scientific forum Several monitoring issues are tackled with particular emphasis on the reporting system what should be reported the content of the reports and who should report the more formal and procedural aspects of reporting Apart from a suitable monitoring mechanism there is also the self executing force of the Convention making it directly enforceable in national courts Ongoing and dynamic monitoring can be a powerful impetus to making systematic progress in this area The debate on monitoring the Children s Rights Convention may in this way expand into an attractive and exemplary debate on human rights conventions in general This book will therefore not only meet the requirements of all those working in the field of children s rights but can also provide appealing material for all those involved in the field of monitoring human rights

BoyMom Ruth Whippman, 2024-06-04 Combining painfully honest memoir cultural analysis and reporting BoyMom is a humorous and heartbreaking deep dive into the complexities of raising boys in our fraught political moment Rapist school shooter incel man child interrupter mansplainer boob starrer birthday forgetter frat boy dude bro homophobe self important stoner emotional labor abstainer non wiper of kitchen counters Trying to raise good sons suddenly felt like a hopeless task As the culture wars rage and masculinity has been politicized from all sides feminist writer and mother of three boys Ruth Whippman finds herself conflicted and scared While the right pushes a dangerous vision of fantasy manhood her feminist peers often dismiss boys as little more than entitled predators in waiting Meanwhile her home life feels like a daily confrontation with the triumph of nature over nurture With young men in the grip of a loneliness epidemic and dying by suicide at a rate of nearly four times their female peers Whippman asks How do we raise our sons to have a healthy sense of self without turning them into privileged assholes How can we find a feminism that holds boys to a higher standard but still treats them with empathy And what do we do when our boys won t cooperate with our plans Whippman digs into the impossibly contradictory pressures boys now face and the harmful blind spots of male socialization that are leaving boys isolated emotionally repressed and adrift Feminist gonzo style she spends months interviewing incels reports on a conference for boys accused of sexual assault crashes at a residential therapy center for young men in Utah talks to a wide range of psychologists and other experts and gets boys of all backgrounds to open up about sex consent porn body image mental health cancel culture screens friendship and loneliness Along the way she finds her simple certainties about male privilege seriously challenged With wit honesty and a refusal to settle for easy answers BoyMom charts a new path to give boys a healthier more expansive and fulfilling story about their own lives
