Richard Long Walking The Line:

Walking the Line Richard Long, Paul Moorhouse, Denise Hooker, 2005 A volume featuring the first major collection of Long's work since the publication of Walking in Circles This British sculptor and land artist incorporates the space he walks through from the Sahara to Peru in his art Richard Long Richard Long, 2002 This new volume by and about the sculptor and pioneer land artist Richard Long explores his work from the 1990s to the present day Long's ability to make works of physical and intellectual beauty in both outdoor and indoor spaces is unrivalled and this new journey takes the reader around the world to the Sahara Desert and down the Rio Grande from coast to coast in Ireland and Spain to Tierra del Fuego and Mongolia and to the forests of Honshu in Japan BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Richard Long Dieter Roelstraete, 2010 An illustrated study of a work that marks the transition from minimalism to a new mode of practice encompassing conceptual art land art and performance art Richard Long, 2002 Cette monographie explore le travail de Richard Long des années 1990 nos jours Le plupart des illustrations sont des photographies prises par l'artiste lui-même On y trouve également ses notes et ses écrits A Jurisprudence of Movement Olivia Barr, 2016-02-22 Law moves whether we notice or not Set amongst a spatial turn in the humanities and jurisprudence more specifically this book calls for a greater attention to legal movement in both its technical and material forms Despite various ways the spatial turn has been taken up in legal thought questions of law movement and its materialities are too often overlooked This book addresses this oversight and it does so through an attention to the materialities of legal movement Paying attention to how law moves across different colonial and contemporary spaces this book reveals there is a problem with common law's place Primarily set in the postcolonial context of Australia although ranging beyond this nationalised topography both spatially and temporally this book argues movement is fundamental to the very terms of common law's existence How then might we move well Explored through examples of walking and burial this book responds to the challenge of how to live with a contemporary form of colonial legal inheritance by arguing we must take seriously the challenge of living with law and think more carefully about its spatial productions and place making activities Unsettling place this book returns the question of movement to jurisprudence Direct Action as Conceptual Art? Avi Brisman, 2025-07-04 This book offers an avenue for understanding the parameters scope meanings and impacts of environmental protest Focusing on eco-defense it explores the significance of the communiqué the written explanation of the reasons for an act of eco-defense comparing the communiqué to written texts in Conceptual art It presents and seeks to evaluate the following analogy act of eco-defense communiqué work of conceptual art written declaration statement By considering the communiqué in this light this book helps us better comprehend the rationales for radical environmentalism undertaken for the purposes of reducing environmental harms natural resource exploitation and animal abuse

Heidegger and the Work of Art History Amanda Boetzkes, 2017-07-05 Heidegger and the Work of Art History explores the impact and future possibilities of Heidegger's philosophy for art history and visual culture in the twenty first century. Scholars from the fields of art history, visual and material studies, design, philosophy, aesthetics, and new media pursue diverse lines of thinking that have departed from Heidegger's work in order to foster compelling new accounts of works of art and their historicity. This collected book of essays also shows how studies in the history and theory of the visual enrich our understanding of Heidegger's philosophy. In addition to examining the philosopher's lively collaborations with art historians and how his longstanding engagement with the visual arts influenced his conceptualization of history, the essays in this volume consider the ontological and ethical implications of our encounters with works of art, the visual techniques that form worlds, how to think about things beyond human-centred relationships, the moods, dispositions, and politics of art's history, and the terms by which we might rethink aesthetic judgment and the interpretation of the visible world from the early modern period to the present day.

Richard Long Richard Long, Paul Moorhouse, 2002. This work aims to offer a clear and insightful commentary on Richard Long's practice and motivations in the light of the works exhibited at Tate St Ives. The exhibition features new work specially created for the gallery.

Art of the 20th Century Karl Ruhrberg, Klaus Honnef, Manfred Schneckenburger, Christiane Fricke, 2000. The original edition of this ambitious reference was published in hardcover in 1998 in two oversize volumes 10x13. This edition combines the two volumes into one; its paperbound flexi cover the paper has a plastic coating, smaller 8x10, and affordable for art book buyers with shallower pockets. None of whom should pass it by. The scope is encyclopedic: half the work originally, the first volume is devoted to painting, the other half to sculpture, new media, and photography. Chapters are arranged thematically, and each page displays several examples in color of work under discussion. The final section, a lexicon of artists, includes a small black and white photo of each artist as well as biographical information and details of work, writings, and exhibitions. Ruhrberg and the three other authors are veteran art historians, curators, and writers, as is editor Walther C. Book News Inc.

Imagining for Real Tim Ingold, 2021-11-11. What does imagination do for our perception of the world? Why should reality be broken off from our imagining of it? It was not always thus, and in these essays Tim Ingold sets out to heal the break between reality and imagination at the heart of modern thought and science. Imagining for Real joins with a lifeworld ever in creation, attending to its formative processes corresponding with the lives of its human and nonhuman inhabitants. Building on his two previous essay collections, The Perception of the Environment and Being Alive, this book rounds off the extraordinary intellectual project of one of the world's most renowned anthropologists. Offering hope in troubled times, these essays speak to coming generations in a language that surpasses disciplinary divisions. They will be essential reading not only for anthropologists but also for students in fields ranging from art, aesthetics, architecture, and archaeology to philosophy, psychology, human geography, comparative literature, and theology.

Landscape and Western Art Malcolm Andrews, 1999. This book explores many issues raised by the range of ideas and images of the natural world in Western art since the Renaissance. The whole concept of landscape is examined as

The Art of Walking William Chapman Sharpe,2023-05-23 A lively and thought provoking tour of the intertwined histories of art and walking A broad ranging book that has something for every rambler Benjamin Riley New Criterion What does a walk look like In the first book to trace the history of walking images from cave art to contemporary performance William Chapman Sharpe reveals that a depicted walk is always more than a matter of simple steps Whether sculpted in stone painted on a wall or captured on film each detail of gait and dress each stride and gesture has a story to tell for every aspect of walking is shaped by social practices and environmental conditions From classical statues to the origins of cinema from medieval pilgrimages to public parks and the first footsteps on the moon walking has engendered a vast visual legacy intertwined with the path of Western art The path includes Romantic nature walkers and urban fl neurs as well as protest marchers and cell phone zombies It features works by artists such as Botticelli Raphael Claude Monet Norman Rockwell Agn s Varda Maya Lin and Pope L In 100 chronologically arranged images this book shows how new ways of walking have spurred new means of representation and how walking has permeated our visual culture ever since humans began to depict themselves in art The Oxford Handbook of Contemporary British and Irish Poetry Peter Robinson,2013-09-26 This Handbook offers an authoritative and up to date collection of original essays bringing together ground breaking research into the development of contemporary poetry in Britain and Ireland Raw: Architectural Engagements with Nature Solveig Bøe,Hege Charlotte Faber,2016-04-08 Through cross disciplinary explorations of and engagements with nature as a forming part of architecture this volume sheds light on the concepts of both nature and architecture Nature is examined in a raw intermediary state where it is noticeable as nature despite but at the same time through man s effort at creating form This is done by approaching nature from the perspective of architecture understood not only as concrete buildings but as a fundamental human way both of being in and relating to the world Man finds and forms places where life may take place

Consequently architecture may be understood as ranging from the simple mark on the ground and primitive enclosure to the contemporary megalopolis Nature inheres in many aesthetic forms of expression In architecture however nature emerges with a particular power and clarity which makes architecture a raw kind of art Even though other forms of art as well as aesthetic phenomena outside the arts are addressed the analogy to architecture will be evident and important Thus by using the concept of raw as a focal point this book provides new approaches to architecture in a broad sense as well as other aesthetic and artistic practices and will be of interest to readers from different fields of the arts and humanities spanning from philosophy and theology to history of art architecture and music Walking Networks Blake Morris,2019-11-05

Since the early 2000s there has been an increase in artists who are walking as an essential part of their artistic practice This book identifies the unique attributes of walking to develop a definition for walking as an artistic medium Drawing on historical sources such as the walks of the Romantic poets Dadaists and Letterist Situationist Internationals it presents a practice based approach to walking focused on the radical memory of the medium The book covers three contemporary organisations working to develop the artistic medium of walking London's Walking Artists Network Scotland's Walking Institute and New York City's Walk Exchange and looks at how these different organisation's strategies contribute to the development of the artistic medium of walking The book is framed by five walking exercises and invites the reader to create a memory palace for the medium of walking as a practical exploration of artistic walking practices Walking and Mapping

Karen O'Rourke,2016-02-12 An exploration of walking and mapping as both form and content in art projects using old and new technologies shoe leather and GPS From Guy Debord in the early 1950s to Richard Long Janet Cardiff and Esther Polak more recently contemporary artists have returned again and again to the walking motif Today the convergence of global networks online databases and new tools for mobile mapping coincides with a resurgence of interest in walking as an art form In Walking and Mapping Karen O'Rourke explores a series of walking mapping projects by contemporary artists She offers close readings of these projects many of which she was able to experience firsthand and situates them in relation to landmark works from the past half century Together they form a new entity a dynamic whole greater than the sum of its parts By alternating close study of selected projects with a broader view of their place in a bigger picture Walking and Mapping itself maps a complex phenomenon Richard Long Richard Long,Joanna Thornberry,2003 Published to accompany the exhibition held at the Haunch of venison London June 11 August 30 2003

Embracing the Song of Expression: An Mental Symphony within Richard Long Walking The Line

In a world eaten by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of immediate conversation, the melodic beauty and psychological symphony produced by the written term usually diminish into the backdrop, eclipsed by the constant sound and disruptions that permeate our lives. But, situated within the pages of Richard Long Walking The Line an enchanting literary value overflowing with natural thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by an elegant musician of language, this fascinating masterpiece conducts visitors on a mental trip, skillfully unraveling the hidden songs and profound influence resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths of the touching examination, we shall explore the book is main harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing style, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
