the little girl in Two Watches are real and it is through the gifts shared by others that I can share this story His love was abundant in the cold dark lonely years I experienced I can not take credit for this book It all came through God and I realize He gave me my journey as a gift He never left my side and the people He put in my path the ones who reached out to me had the love of Jesus living in them I think I finally understand the words of my dad when he said to me Gloria it is not what you are given in life it is what you do with them that will determine who you are It is my desire to share my story to give Glory to our living God My prayer is that it will help you through your storm
