a visit from Joan Princess of Wales wife of the Black Prince heir to the throne of England Thoresby's captain of the guard Owen Archer has no doubt that trouble will follow As soon as the company rides into the palace yard he is proved right they arrive burdened with the body of one of their party and Owen finds evidence the man's death was no accident Within days of this discovery a courier carrying an urgent message for the archbishop is found hanging in the woods With guards surrounding the property it is clear the murderer walks among the palace guests The powerful Percy and Neville families are well represented in the entourage including a woman who remembers an afternoon tryst with Owen as much much more Even the princess's son is suspect As Owen races to unmask the guilty and rid the palace of the royal party his final wish for his lord is that he might die in peace As always Candace Robb writes a powerful story intertwined with genuine characters of the day Historical Novels Review
