Christine Michelle,2021-01-21 J Bird I finally felt that itch to settle down that my parents and older brother Deck had been hounding me about Lindsay Parker was the first girl to stir that itch in me Which made it that much more unfortunate when she introduced me to her best friend Christina That girl blew me away the first day we met but she would forever remain off limits because she would never betray her best friend even if I scraped Lindsay off first So I stuck it out with Lindsay and longed for her best friend for seven long months and the announcement that I was about to be a father Then it all crashed down around me in the most literal sense possible along with the lies I d been fed There s an evil inside me that destroys the women who dare to love me Never again and especially not with the one I really wanted needed fell so hard for I would spare her my curse even if it killed me Christina I was in love with my best friend s man It was getting harder to hide my feelings especially when I had to watch them cuddled up together My feelings sent me running away to Savannah Georgia Sure it wasn t far but I moved in with my aunt to become her nanny while I suffered through blind date boredom on top of blind date disaster trying to find anyone who could make me forget the one man I couldn t have It seemed to work until they came to visit to share their good news I wish I could have been happy for my friend while she got everything I wanted Instead I smiled
