Rock City Barns A Passing Era:

Rock City Barns David B. Jenkins,1996 See Rock City Tim Hollis,2009-05-01 Around two hundred million years ago geological forces produced an expansive grove of rocky caverns and outcroppings atop Lookout Mountain It was not until the twentieth century however that this awe inspiring citadel evolved into a nationally recognized tourist attraction when Garnet Carter and his wife Frieda developed the natural marvel into the Rock City Gardens we know today an enchanted tribute to fairytales and a breathtaking homage to nature Join Rock City expert Tim Hollis as he guides you through the origins of the site s most fascinating spots including Fairyland Caverns See Seven States and Lover s Leap Also learn the story behind the world famous See Rock City marketing campaign as well as the steep challenges the landmark has faced in an often volatile tourism industry Perhaps the only aspect of Rock City more enchanting than its physical beauty is the fairytale story that surrounds it

Undead Souths Eric Gary Anderson,Taylor Hagood,Daniel Cross Turner,2015-10-19 Examines physical symbolic psychological and cultural forms of undeadness in a variety of media and historical periods Backroads & Byways of Georgia David B. Friedman,2019-11-07 Set against the shifting tides of the 20th century American South Shirley Kahn Friedman narrates Within the Ribbons Out of the Loop through a spirited range of one page autobiographical vignettes First published as articles the following collection contemplates an array of topics pertaining to Southern tradition and social grace to lifelong marriage and the family unit not to mention the nights gone by and the days yet to come Beginning in her hometown of Pelham Kahn Friedman s vignettes march across the campus greens of the University of Georgia down the concrete streets of New York City if only to return to the Empire State of the South among the kaolin clay of Sandersville Georgia The result is a generational love letter to the power of the written word not only in telling the story of a life well lived but also in honoring the beloved memories that made its every second count

Mountain Hands Sam Venable,2000 Hazel Pendley creates heirloom quality quilts Ed Ripley wraps bits of fur and feathers into trout flies the size of gnats Edna Hartong still makes an item that has all but disappeared from the American scene lye soap All of these people and many more like them are Appalachians who work with their hands Journalist Sam Venable and photographer Paul Efird spent four years combing the hills and hollows of Southern Appalachia to find these talented individuals and let them talk about their work Mountain

Hands is an intimate look at more than three dozen such craftspeople and their vocations Venable and Efirm encountered folks who pursue popular crafts such as basketweaving and clockmaking But they found practitioners of other trades wallpaper hangers and rail splitters beekeepers and gravediggers whose work also depends upon dexterity and upon expressing a distinctive Appalachian way of life Some are college educated some can barely read and write some have lived in these hills all their lives others have only recently come to call them home Yet each feels bound to the region through a deep sense of belonging and each owes at least part of his or her livelihood to handwork While most of us may think of working with one's hands as entering computer data these individuals attest to the perseverance and appeal of more traditional ways Mountain Hands is a celebration in words and photographs of gifted people who understand and appreciate the Appalachian heritage and who live it every day The Author A fifth generation southern Appalachian Sam Venable is a newspaper columnist whose award winning observations on daily life appear four times a week in the Knoxville News Sentinel A graduate of the University of Tennessee Venable has spent most of his career roaming the highlands of his home state He and his wife Mary Ann also a Tennessee native and UT graduate live in a log house atop a wooded ridge on the outskirts of Knoxville The Photographer Paul Efirm is a native of Rome Georgia He holds a degree in biology from Shorter College but has spent his professional career as a news photographer After working for two newspapers in Georgia he moved to Tennessee in 1990 and became a staff photographer for the News Sentinel Efirm is an avid hiker canoeist and backpacker He and his wife Stephanie live in Knoxville
