Money Matters in European Artworks and Literature, c.

1400-1750 Natasha Seaman, Joanna Woodall, 2025-10-01 Money Matters in European Artworks and Literature c 1400 1750 focuses on coins as material artefacts and agents of meaning in early modern arts The precious metals double sided form and emblematic character of coins had deep resonance in European culture and cultural encounters Coins embodied Europe's power and the labour increasingly located in colonised regions of extracting gold and silver Their efficacy depended on faith in their inherent value and the authority perceived to be imprinted into them guaranteed through the institution of the Mint Yet they could speak eloquently of illusion debasement and counterfeiting A substantial introduction precedes essays by interdisciplinary scholars on five themes power and authority in the Mint currency and the anxieties of global trade coins and persons coins in and out of circulation credit and risk An Afterword on a contemporary artist demonstrates the continuing expressive and symbolic power of numismatic forms Taking Shape Martina Droth, Penelope Curtis, 2009 This exhibition challenges the reasons why sculpture is usually considered alone in the gallery and the decorative arts are considered as part of a period setting It suggests that by breaking away from these conventional categories we can see how sculpture is also part of a spatial conversation and how furniture and fittings can be appreciated as unique works With five original essays and forty complete catalogue entries this publication both documents an exhibition and goes beyond it opening our eyes to the fluidity of formal language in the long eighteenth century and to the ways in which objects can change according to whether they are seen together or apart as mobile or fixed as two or three dimensional as ideal or as functional Book Jacket Oud

Gids voor

moderne architectuur in Nederland Paul Groenendijk, Piet Vollaard, Piet Rook, 1998 Reis gids voor moderne Nederlandse architectuur waarin ruim 700 objecten worden afgebeeld en beknopt beschreven Early Modern Spaces in Motion

Kimberley Skelton, 2025-10-01 Stretching back to antiquity motion had been a key means of designing and describing the physical environment But during the sixteenth through eighteenth centuries individuals across Europe increasingly designed experienced and described a new world of motion one characterized by continuous rather than segmented movement New spaces that included vistas along house interiors and uninterrupted library reading rooms offered open expanses for shaping sequences of social behaviour scientists observed how the Earth rotated around the sun and philosophers attributed emotions to neural vibrations in the human brain Early Modern Spaces in Motion examines this increased emphasis on motion with eight essays encompassing a geographical span of Portugal to German speaking lands and a disciplinary range from architectural history to English It consequently merges longstanding strands of analysis considering people in motion and buildings in motion to explore the cultural historical attitudes underpinning the varied impacts of motion in early modern Europe
