Role Of Bodhicitta In Buddhist Enlightenment:

Benkemmitsu-nikyōron Kenneth R. White, 2005 Contains the translation and interpretation of the works of Kūkai 744-845 the founder of the Japanese Shingon School of Buddhism Gyōnen's Transmission of the Buddha Dharma in Three Countries Ronald S. Green, Chanju Mun, 2018-06-05 Gyōnen's Transmission of the Buddha Dharma in Three Countries is the first English translation of this work and a new assessment of it Gyōnen 1240-1321 has been recognized for establishing a methodology for the study of Buddhism that would come to dominate Japan The three countries Gyōnen considers are India, China and Japan Ronald S. Green and Chanju Mun describe Gyōnen's innovative doctrinal classification system panjiao for the first time and compare it to other panjiao systems They argue that Gyōnen's arrangement and what he chose to exclude served political purposes in the Kamakura period and thus engage current scholarship on the construction of Japanese Buddhism Bodhicitta Ven. Lobsang Gyatso, 1997-01-01 One is unlikely ever to receive a Tibetan Buddhist teaching on either sutra or tantra in which Bodhicitta does not have a central role Bodhicitta the compassionate mind which aspires to attain full enlightenment in order to benefit beings is the very quintessence of the Mahayana path of Buddhist practice In this practical handbook Ven. Lobsang Gyatso describes the classical methods for developing the mind of enlightenment and based on his experience as a meditator and a teacher examines a wide range of obstacles to its development The Evangelical Dictionary of World Religions H. Wayne House, 2019-02-19 With all of the different religions, sects, denominations and belief systems out there it can be difficult to separate the facts from mere opinion especially if one is relying solely on online sources which may or may not be vetted and which often have an ideological or political slant to them How can we truly understand if we cannot even be sure we are getting the facts straight In this comprehensive resource more than 75 evangelical scholars offer a thoroughly researched guide to Christianity, other world religions and alternative religious views including entries on movements, theological terms and major historical figures Perfect for pastors, students and anyone who wants ready access to information on today's religious landscape Bodhicitta Lama Zopa Rinpoche, Rinpoche Thubten Zopa, 2019-05-21 Lama Zopa Rinpoche a prominent Tibetan Buddhist teacher explains the philosophy and practice of Bodhicitta the aspiration to help all beings reach enlightenment Meditation instructions are included The Concept of Bodhicitta in Śāntideva's Bodhicaryāvatāra Francis Brassard, 2012-02-16 This book explores an important concept within the Buddhist Mahāyāna tradition bodhicitta This term appears frequently in Sanskrit literature relating to the spiritual practices of the bodhisattva in Mahāyāna Buddhism and has been variously translated as thought of enlightenment or desire of enlightenment Francis Brassard offers a contextual analysis of bodhicitta based on the presuppositions underlying the spiritual practice of the bodhisattva Since the understanding that emerges involves how one ought to view the process of spiritual transformation this work contributes to Buddhist psychology and soteriology in particular and to comparative religions in general The book surveys the various interpretations of the concept of bodhicitta analyzes its possible functions in the context of the spiritual path of the aspirant to enlightenment and discusses an understanding of bodhicitta in the context of the Shantideva's Bodhicaryavatara

The Nectar of Bodhicitta Lama Zopa Rinpoche, 2020-09-01 LYWA director Nick Ribush writes The story behind this book is that in the early Kopan Monastery courses Lama Zopa Rinpoche would start his day's teachings by quoting a verse from Shantideva's or Khunu Lama Rinpoche's seminal texts giving a short teaching on it and then suggesting that students use it to generate a bodhicitta motivation for the day's activities mainly teachings meditations and discussion groups but also ordinary activities such as eating talking walking around and so forth Since those days I've always thought that a compilation of these short teachings would make a great book and finally here it is Editor Gordon McDougall has assembled Rinpoche's teachings into two parts sorted by author of the verses and arranged thematically In Part One Lama Zopa Rinpoche teaches on selected verses from Khunu Lama Rinpoche's Jewel Lamp now published as Vast as the Heavens Deep as the Sea Lama Zopa Rinpoche advises Understanding and constantly reminding ourselves of the skies of benefits that bodhicitta brings is unbelievably worthwhile This is the overall purpose of Khunu Lama Rinpoche's book to cause us to feel inspired and joyful that such a mind is possible In Part Two Rinpoche teaches on verses from the first chapter of Shantideva's Guide to the Bodhisattva's Way of Life These verses describe the amazing benefits of developing the precious mind of bodhicitta the supreme cause of happiness for all sentient beings

Buddhism , The Creative South Andrea Aciri, Peter Sharrock, 2022-08-29 This edited volume programmatically reconsiders the creative contribution of the littoral and insular regions of Maritime Asia to shaping new paradigms in the Buddhist and Hindu art and architecture of the mediaeval Asian world Far from being a mere southern conduit for the maritime circulation of Indic religions in the period from ca the 7th to the 14th century those regions transformed across mainland and island polities the rituals icons and architecture that embodied these religious insights with a dynamism that often eclipsed the established cultural centres in Northern India Central Asia and mainland China This collective body of work brings together new research aiming to recalibrate the importance of these innovations in art and architecture thereby highlighting the cultural creativity of the monsoon influenced Southern rim of the Asian landmass Although Maritime Asia in mediaeval times was not as densely populated as the agrarian hinterland Asia s coasts were highly urbanized The region from southern India to south China was a heterogeneous blend of cultures leavened with a strong interest in trade This cosmopolitan society afforded plentiful opportunities for artists to find patrons and develop individual styles and aesthetic sensibilities In the bustling ports of Asia s south coast rulers sought to embellish their prestige and attract foreign merchants by sponsoring the development of monumental complexes and centres of learning and debate These educational institutions attracted teachers from all over Asia and in their cloisters they developed new intellectual frameworks which were reflected in works of art and architecture Scholars moved frequently by sea influencing and being influenced by other foreigners such as Japanese and central Asians who were also attracted to these places This very variety has hindered scholarly research in the past This volume contributes to the endeavour to show how Maritime Asia was not an incoherent jumble of misunderstood influences from better known civilizations there was a pattern to this creativity which the authors in this collection clarify for us The maritime world of Asia may have lain on the margins of the land but it provided a physical and intellectual medium through which artistic ideas from east and west flowed freely Maritime Asia also made significant original contributions which hold their own with those of the hinterland of the Asian continent Unconstrained by the burden of static hierarchical courts the peoples of Maritime Asia built on the inspiration provided by a hybrid society to demonstrate a high degree of artistic originality while testing but not breaking the link with conventional iconography Professor John Miksic Department of Southeast Asian Studies Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences National University of Singapore NUS The collective objective of this two volume work is to give substance to the oft cited mantra that mediaeval maritime Southeast Asia was as much an innovative contributor to as a recipient in the cultural conversations that took place across the Bay of Bengal and South China Sea In bracketing these studies between the 7th and 14th centuries the editors have drawn into focus two key traditions that are explicated in texts ritual art and architecture and religious landscapes of this period tantric Buddhism and esoteric Shaivism A great strength of these studies is this focus for which the editors are to be commended The chapters contain much that represents significant milestones in building new understanding in the field including overdue recognition of the importance of Southeast Asian esoteric Buddhist practice in shaping Chinese Buddhism Nowhere did the architects of the religious landscape of early Southeast Asia think of themselves as being on the periphery or as outsiders looking in. Rather they knowingly imbued their tirthas and sacred centres with the same authority as those in India and created religious edifices that were on occasions beyond India's experience. I highly commend this publication to anyone with an interest in bringing a wider lens to the study of Indian esoteric religious practices and to understanding the relationship of early Hindu Buddhist Southeast Asia to the wider Asian world. John Guy, Senior Curator of South and Southeast Asian Art, The Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York. The Creative South is a rich compendium of scholarship concerning the religious art of Southeast Asia and its ties to India in the period beginning in the 8th century. It was a time when merchants were crisscrossing the seas from India to China and when advocates of innovative doctrines and rituals were finding ready support among the rulers of the varied kingdoms. From the identification of images embraced by the seafarers to the mysteries of the fire shrines in Cambodian temples, from the funerary beliefs of Odisha to the unique character of the Javanese Ramayana, these eighteen studies provide fresh understandings of the patterns of reception and innovation. Hiram Woodward, Mr and Mrs Thomas Quincy Scott Curator of Asian Art Emeritus, The Walters Art Museum.
