

Rollicking Recollections

The rip-roaring teenage memoirs of an English Boy in Kenya

More humorous snapshots of a boy growing up in Kenya, and the people he meets on his way to adulthood form a joyous and often engrossing celebration of life in general.

"The book covers the emergence of the young adult years of my life from 1940, the attitudes I adopted, and events I and my family experienced, together with tales about some of the famous and infamous characters we met. My own adventures in which I faced serious injury and even death didn't make me more circumspect.

I walked through life confident in my immortality, like a cat with twenty-nine lives, and with a sense of fun and growing responsibility.

Hesitant steps toward youthful romance were met with mild disappointment and an arrogant belief that girls were of little value beyond being useful targets for pranks."

Collections & Recollections George William Erskine Russell, 1904      Collections and Recollections George William Erskine Russell, 2019-12-11 In Collections and Recollections George William Erskine Russell offers a rich tapestry of autobiographical reflections and literary insights that bridge personal experience with broader cultural observations. The book is a compelling blend of essays and memoir showcasing Russell's mastery of language and his acute awareness of the socio-political milieu of late 19th to early 20th century Britain. His literary style, marked by wit, eloquence, and a touch of nostalgia, invites readers to delve into the intricate web of memories that shape his worldview as he navigates through diverse themes including education, literature, and the passing of time. George William Erskine Russell, a prominent figure in British literary circles, was an influential critic, educator, and biographer. His keen intellect and deep appreciation for culture were greatly influenced by his tenure as a teacher and his numerous interactions with contemporary authors and intellectuals. These experiences not only shaped his literary philosophy but also imbued his writing with a profound sense of curiosity and insight, allowing readers to engage with the complexities of human experience in their multifaceted forms. Collections and Recollections is a must-read for anyone interested in the intersection of personal narrative and literary critique. Russell's ability to evoke a sense of time and place while exploring themes still relevant today makes this work a valuable addition to both literary studies and autobiographical literature. Readers will find in Russell's reflections not only a window into his life but also a mirror reflecting their own collective cultural consciousness.

Moheanna! Francis Cowley Burnand, 1873      The Modernisation of Irish Society 1848 - 1918 Joseph John Lee, 2008-06-24 The Modernisation of Irish Society surveys the period from the end of the Famine to the triumph of Sinn Féin in the 1918 election and argues that during that time Ireland became one of the most modern and advanced political cultures in the world. Professor Lee contends that the Famine death rate, however terrible, was not unprecedented. What was different was the post-Famine response to the catastrophe. The sharply increased rate of emigration left behind a population of tenant farmers engaged in market-oriented agriculture and determined to protect and improve their position. It was this group that used the British political system so skillfully, a process elaborated and refined in the Land League and Home Rule movements under Parnell. The Parnell era left a lasting legacy of modern political engagement and organisation which was carried on in essentials by the later Home Rule party and by Sinn Féin and beyond. The terminal date of the book would make its mark on the politics of independent Ireland. The Modernisation of Irish Society was first published as volume 10 of the original Gill History of Ireland.

Jumping Sundays Nick Bollinger, 2022-08-11 On a Sunday afternoon in the spring of 1969, thousands of people defied Auckland city bylaws and came to party in Albert Park. A rock band played on the rotunda. Some people held hands, some danced alone, some sat under trees with guitars, flutes, and bongos and made music of their own. They wore kaftans, ponchos, and leather-fringed jerkins, floppy hats, headbands, beads, and flowers. Poetry and political diatribes were delivered from a podium improvised from an upturned tea chest There were bikies balloons bubbles sack races and a lolly scramble lots of dogs and a pet possum Someone brought a canoe and paddled it around the fountain until it capsized As the afternoon wore on there were joss sticks skyrocketed and what some will have recognised as the musky smell of marijuana From the Prologue In Jumping Sundays award winning writer and broadcaster Nick Bollinger tells the story of beards and bombs freaks and firebrands self destruction and self realisation during a turbulent period in New Zealand s history and culture
