Rolling In Ditches With Shamans Jaime De Angulo And The:

Rolling in Ditches with Shamans Wendy Leeds-Hurwitz, 2004-01-01 Rolling in Ditches with Shamans charts American anthropology in the 1920s through the life and work of one of the amateur scholars of the time Jaime de Angulo 1887 1950 Although he earned a medical degree de Angulo chose to live on an isolated ranch in Big Sur California where he participated fully in the lives of the people who were his ethnographic informants The period of his most extensive research coincides almost perfectly with the professionalization of anthropology and de Angulo provides a link between those who are generally recognized as the most important figures of the day Franz Boas Alfred Kroeber and Edward Sapir The fields of salvage ethnography and linguistics which Boas emphasized were aimed at recording the culture language and myths of the Native groups before they became completely acculturated In keeping with these dictates de Angulo recorded data from thirty groups mostly in California which otherwise might have been lost In an unusual move for that time he also wrote fiction and poetry describing the modern lives of the people he studied something of little interest to Boas but of great interest today His most enduring work is Indian Tales a fictional synthesis of myths learned from various California Indians De Angulo's range of interests originality and expertise exemplified the curiosity and brilliance of those who pioneered American anthropology at this time Genealogies of Shamanism Jeroen W Boekhoven, 2011 Cover Table of contents Acknowledgements 1

Approaching shamanism 2 Eighteenth and nineteenth century interpretations 3 Early twentieth century American interpretations 4 Twentieth century European constructions 5 The Bollingen connection 1930s 1960s 6 Post war American visions 7 The genesis of a field of shamanism America 1960s 1990s 8 A Case Study Shamanisms in the Netherlands 9 Struggles for power charisma and authority a balance Bibliography Index Ruth Benedict Virginia Heyer

Young, 2005-01-01 Benedict's work in fact anticipated trends in anthropology in the decades to come by projecting a framework of individuals not only shaped by their culture but also using their culture for personal or collective objectives

BOOK JACKET American Anthropology and Company Stephen O. Murray, 2018-08-01 In American Anthropology and Company linguist and sociologist Stephen O Murray explores the connections between anthropology linguistics sociology psychology and history in broad ranging essays on the history of anthropology and allied disciplines On subjects ranging from Native American linguistics to the pitfalls of American Latin American and East Asian fieldwork among other topics American Anthropology and Company presents the views of a historian of anthropology interested in the theoretical and institutional connections between disciplines that have always been in conversation with anthropology Recurring characters include Edward Sapir Alfred Kroeber Robert Redfield W I and Dorothy Thomas and William Ogburn While histories of anthropology rarely cross disciplinary boundaries Murray moves in essay after essay toward an examination of the institutions theories and social networks of scholars as never before maintaining a healthy skepticism toward anthropologists views of their own methods and theories Looking Through Taiwan Keelung Hong, Stephen O. Murray, 2005-01-01 This analysis of a troubling chapter in American anthropology reveals what happens when anthropologists fail to make fundamental ethic and political distinctions in their work The authors examine how Taiwanese realities have been represented and misrepresented in American social science literature James Cowles Prichard of the Red Lodge Margaret M. Crump, 2025 In James Cowles Prichard of the Red Lodge Margaret M Crump offers the first thorough biography of the Welsh natural historian scientist and antiracist anthropologist James Cowles Prichard 1786 1848 The 1904 Anthropology Days and Olympic Games Susan Brownell, 2008-12-01 One of the more problematic sport spectacles in American history took place at the 1904 World's Fair in St Louis which included the third modern Olympic Games Associated with the Games was a curious event known as Anthropology Days organized by William J McGee and James Sullivan at that time the leading figures in American anthropology and sports respectively McGee recruited Natives who were participating in the fair's ethnic displays to compete in sports events with the scientific goal of measuring the physical prowess of savages as compared with civilized men This interdisciplinary collection of essays assesses the ideas about race imperialism and Western civilization manifested in the 1904 World's Fair and Olympic Games and shows how they are still relevant A turning point in both the history of the Olympics and the development of modern anthropology these games expressed the conflict between the Old World emphasis on culture and New World emphasis on utilitarianism Marked by Franz Boas's paper at the Scientific Congress the events in St Louis witnessed the beginning of the shift in anthropological research from nineteenth century evolutionary racial models to the cultural relativist paradigm that is now a cornerstone of modern American anthropology Racist pseudoscience nonetheless reappears to this day in the realm of sports Franz Boas Rosemary Lévy Zumwalt, 2022-12 Franz Boas defined the concept of cultural relativism and reoriented the humanities and social sciences away from race science toward an antiracist and anticolonialist understanding of human biology and culture Franz Boas Shaping Anthropology and Fostering Social Justice is the second volume in Rosemary Lévy Zumwalt's two part biography of the renowned anthropologist and public intellectual Zumwalt takes the reader through the most vital period in the development of Americanist anthropology and Boas's rise to dominance in the subfields of cultural anthropology physical anthropology ethnography and linguistics Boas's emergence as a prominent public intellectual particularly his opposition to U S entry into World War I reveals his struggle against the forces of nativism racial hatred ethnic chauvinism scientific racism and uncritical nationalism Boas was instrumental in the American cultural renaissance of the 1920s and 1930s training students and influencing colleagues such as Melville Herskovits Zora Neale Hurston Benjamin Botkin Alan Lomax Langston Hughes and others involved in combating racism and the flourishing Harlem Renaissance He assisted German and European migr intellectuals fleeing Nazi Germany to relocate in the United States and was instrumental in organizing the denunciation of Nazi racial science and American eugenics At the end of his career Boas guided a network of former student anthropologists who spread across the country to university departments museums and government agencies imprinting his social science more broadly in the world of learned knowledge Franz Boas is a magisterial biography of Franz Boas and his influence in shaping not only anthropology but also the sciences humanities social science visual and performing arts and America's public sphere during a period of great global upheaval and democratic and social struggle Centering the Margins of Anthropology's History Regna

Darnell, 2021-05 The series Histories of Anthropology Annual presents diverse perspectives on the discipline's history within a global context with a goal of increasing the awareness and use of historical approaches in teaching learning and conducting anthropology The series includes critical comparative analytical and narrative studies involving all aspects and subfields of anthropology Volume 14 Centering the Margins of Anthropology's History focuses on the conscious recognition of margins and suggests it is time to bring the margins to the center both in terms of a changing theoretical openness and a supporting body of scholarship if not to problematize the very dichotomy of center and margins itself The essays explore two major themes of anthropology's margins First anthropologists and historians have long sought out marginalized and forgotten ancestors arguing for their present day relevance and offering explanations for the lack of attention to their contributions to theory analysis methods and findings Second anthropologists and their historians have explored a range of genres to present their results in provocative and open ended formats This volume closes with an experimental essay that offers a dynamic multifaceted perspective that captures one of the dominant if sometimes marginalized voices in history of anthropology Steven O Murray's career developed at the institutional margins of several academic disciplines and activist discourses but his distinctive voice has been and will remain at the center of our history Returns James Clifford, 2013-11-04 Returns third in a trilogy explores the ways people recover and renew their roots James Clifford looks at native peoples who have become not victims but inventive agents of a tangled open ended modernity Their returns to the land performances of heritage and diasporic ties are strategies for moving toward traditional futures
