Lure Of The Bush:

The Lure of the Bush Arthur William Upfield, 1978 Reprint Originally published Garden City New York Doubleday Company Inc 1965      Bushcraft Richard Graves, 2013-04-04 Many have died in the Australian bush who might have lived had they known the appropriate survival skills Bushcraft covers all areas of survival and camping activities making ropes and cords building huts camp craft finding food and water making maps starting fires tying knots and fashioning hunting and trapping gear virtually every technique required to stay alive in the woods With over 400 black and white illustrations and photographs this book explains how to make use of natural materials found locally in any area conserving instead of destroying native flora and fauna It describes many of the skills used by primitive man adding to these the skills necessary for modern man s survival such as methods for determining time and direction The author who popularized the term bushcraft claims its practice has many unexpected results By developing adaptability and honing the five senses it will also improve your self esteem and your ability to overcome difficulties in everyday tasks The practice of bushcraft encourages self confidence and counters the narrowing influence of modern living by broadening your horizons Bushcraft is a clear accurate and reliable resource for anyone who wishes to face nature on its own terms with just a knife and this book      Field & Stream , 1995-05 FIELD STREAM America s largest outdoor sports magazine celebrates the outdoor experience with great stories compelling photography and sound advice while honoring the traditions hunters and fishermen have passed down for generations      The Barrakee Mystery Arthur W. Upfield, 2025-01-01 Set in 1929 an international mystery classic featuring a half indigenous half white detective tracking a murderer in the Australian wilderness When an indigenous Australian man is killed in the Barrakee Sheep Station in New South Wales Det Insp Napoleon Bonaparte a k a Bony is called in to investigate Who better to solve a case that crosses cultural lines than a mixed race cop able to rise above blood ties and divided class loyalties With his gift for deductive reasoning and skillful tracking Bony soon finds himself racing through bush country on a quest to catch a killer One of the most exciting well constructed and well written tales we have read for a long time It is a first rate yarn full of a genuine Australian appeal The Herald The scenes of life on a Western sheep station are very faithfully portrayed The Courier Mail Rampageous fisticuffs rough scenery and rougher dust covered sheepmen and wanderers So much interest and local colour Books and Bookmen      Field & Stream , FIELD STREAM America s largest outdoor sports magazine celebrates the outdoor experience with great stories compelling photography and sound advice while honoring the traditions hunters and fishermen have passed down for generations      Thunder over the Desert Peter Mageros, 2025-04-25 Filmmakers and footsloggers It s not often you hear these two words together but they perfectly capture the story of Australia s film industry revealed in this compelling book Since the early 20th century Australia s local screen industry has fought a fierce battle against the overwhelming dominance of Hollywood striving to keep homegrown feature films on Australian cinema screens This is a story of resilience and cultural pride where the struggles of the nation s filmmakers have been metaphorically aligned with the heroic narrative of the Anzac soldier Much like the first Anzacs at Gallipoli heroes even in the face of devastating defeat Australia's cinema has a celebrated history of seeing itself as valiant even when the odds were stacked against it Peter Mageros delves into the deep historical connections between myth and cinema exploring how filmmakers such as Longford Chauvel Weir and Beresford have drawn inspiration from the iconic images of the Diggers on screen The book reveals how the theme of the heroic film industry persists in contemporary times with Australian filmmakers portrayed as going into the trenches alongside the legendary soldiers This is a story of true heroism not always one of triumphant conquest but of unwavering determination to protect and preserve a uniquely Australian cinematic voice

Field & Stream, 1981-02 FIELD STREAM America's largest outdoor sports magazine celebrates the outdoor experience with great stories compelling photography and sound advice while honoring the traditions hunters and fishermen have passed down for generations

Investigating Arthur Upfield Carol Hetherington, Kees de Hoog, 2011-10-18 Arthur Upfield created Detective Inspector Napoleon Bonaparte Bony who features in twenty nine novels written from the 1920s to the 1960s mostly set in the Australian Outback He was the first Australian professional writer of crime detection novels Upfield arrived in Australia from England on 4 November 1911 and this collection of twenty two critical essays by academics and scholars has been published to celebrate the centenary of his arrival The essays were all written after Upfield's death in 1964 and provide a wide range of responses to his fiction The contributors from Australia Europe and the United States include journalist Pamela Ruskin who was Upfield's agent for fifteen years anthropologists literary scholars pioneers in the academic study of popular culture such as John G Cawelti and Ray B Browne and novelists Tony Hillerman and Mudrooroo whose own works have been inspired by Upfield's The collection sheds light on the extent and nature of critical responses to Upfield over time demonstrates the type of recognition he has received and highlights the way in which different preoccupations and critical trends have dealt with his work The essays provide the basis for an assessment of Upfield's place not only in the international annals of crime fiction but also in the literary and cultural history of Australia
