Contemporary Homo Ludens Halina Mielicka-Pawłowska, 2016-08-17 Play allows the fulfilment of one's dreams yet also teaches subjugation to the norms governing daily life Furthermore traditional forms of play transmitted from one generation to another guarantee a culture's continuance and perpetuation in time Contemporary forms of play integrate a populace creating a specific community of laughter which places a high value on individuality and the ability to lead social games Play invalidates social divisions but also diversifies behaviours through the introduction of changes in the rules depending on the age of those engaged Furthermore it adapts to the forms by which social reality is created as well as that reality's goals which in turn impart sense and meaning to something which of its own nature seems deprived thereof Polish Flows Bernadeta Niesporek-Szamburska, Małgorzata Wójcik-Dudek, Magdalena Ochwat, 2024-11-18 The contributors attempt to describe Polish rivers and lakes as a nexus of narratives about nature culture pointing out those elements of the story around which scientific political media social and ecological narratives are created All of them influence the shape of reflection on the water ecosystem and its function in Polish education The authors recreate old and contemporary Polish mythmaking narratives about Polish rivers and lakes and by proposing a critical reading of them try to develop new educational practices that would take into account the 21st century conditions related to the climate catastrophe The context related to the crisis also opens up thinking about rivers to other categories cooperation solidarity activism than those that have been applicable in Polish education so far national symbolism utility Considering fantasy Justyna Deszcz-Tryhubczak, Marek Oziewicz, 2007 Lustro Pana Grymsa Dorota Terakowska, Wydawnictwo Literackie, 2008 Gust i prestiż.
