Luther And The Reformation Nel Mentor:

Luther and the reformation,1974 Martin Luther Martin Tangely,2003 Martin Luther only meant for his 95 Theses to spark debate and hopefully a few changes in the Catholic Church Instead they changed the face of world history sparking decades of violent religious conflict and war amongst the nations and peoples of Europe Luther was a Catholic cleric whose chief problem with the Church was the practice of selling indulgences Church leaders though would not sanction debate with him and excommunicated Luther His cause was then championed by varied European royals who saw the chance to break from the Catholic Church and take control of valuable land As the Protestants separated from the Catholic Church they also split from each other into denominations like Lutheran Anglican and Calvinist All of this was more than Luther sought or likely even wanted But the Reformation remains a seminal moment in Western indeed world history and Martin Luther is its father This book presents an overview of Martin Luther s life and his impact on Christianity and the face of the world Following that is a list of carefully selected citations of literature about Luther and the religious change he spawned Easy access is finally provided via author title and subject indexes Monographic Series Library of Congress, National Union Catalog,1973 Includes entries for maps and atlases Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1977 between 1975 and 2003 the essays included in Humanism Venice and Women reflect Margaret L King's distinct but interlocking scholarly interests humanism and Venice women and humanism and women of the Italian Renaissance. The first part focuses on defining the key characteristics of Venetian as opposed to other Italian humanisms with an analysis of Gramscian theory about the historical role of intellectuals as an aid to understanding humanism in Venice followed by essays on three Venetian humanists who wrote about family relationships or the need to avoid them. The third section introduces the major Renaissance women humanists and analyzes the relation of their work to that of male humanists along with an essay on Renaissance mothers of sons in Italy and beyond. Crossing boundaries of region and gender and the subdisciplines of intellectual and social history these essays are provocative in themselves while demonstrating how shifting historiographical contexts encourage scholars to view the historical record in new and fruitful ways. Religion Index Two, 1994
