Luxury Of Space:

Luxury of Space Oberto Gili, 2003 Fleeting human moments memorialized by Oberto Gili's camera translate formally into beautifully balanced classical images. His camera like his personality is whimsical, questioning, non-judgemental and tenderly objective. Gili's images of interiors capture fundamental moments of human existence: quiet moments and basic needs whether it's a man sitting on his couch surrounded by his dogs, a young couple getting into bed, a woman watching herself getting dressed in the mirror or a girl swimming alone in a pool. We experience narrative isolation intrusion through Gili's lens. Gili shows us different perspectives of home: color, happiness, sex, depression, arrogance, creativity, simplicity, boredom. These images in this stunning volume are a diary of the interiors and situations that have over the last thirty years strung Gili's curiosity and fantasy. The most simple still and understated. Gili's images of interiors all have possibility as their subtext. Illustrated Space Business Arto Ojala, William W. Baber, 2024-08-20 This book is an academic investigation of commercial activities of firms in the space-related industries and those utilizing services provided by space technology firms. These firms and their activities are part of the New Space concept where space-related commercial activities are undertaken and funded by private firms rather than government institutions. New Space is leading to business model innovation and new theory about space business activities including upstream and downstream commercial activities. Upstream value chains include activities prior to turnover of launched systems to operators. Downstream value chains include operation of systems in space as well as the transfer, processing and sale of space-based data and data services. The commercial activities of space business now reach into everyday lives of most humans from banking and disaster management to resource monitoring to tourism. With such broad reach the New Space ecosystem is rapidly developing in importance and complexity. The Third Realm of Luxury Joanne Roberts, John Armitage, 2019-10-31 In a world that is obsessed with luxury, critical luxury studies is a rapidly emerging field. This is the first book to explore the interplay between the real and imaginary realms of luxury, considering the most significant developments in the theories and practices of luxurious places and spaces over the last fifty years. Providing a critical approach to contemporary interpretations of luxury, the book interrogates the distinction between real places and imaginary spaces. Bringing together an interdisciplinary group of leading scholars, it features a range of case studies which take the reader from the Rolls Royce Ghost Black Badge to expressions of sensuality in the 1970s domestic interior and global conceptions of fine wine and art. The Third Realm of Luxury considers the interplay between luxury and space in both the past and the present, examining the abstract conception of excess and exoticism as well as the real locations of the home, hotel, apartment and palace. Full of original research, it is a key contribution to the study of consumption, design, fashion and architecture. Luxury of Space: Photographs by Oberto Gili Oberto Gili, 2003 Airbnb in Luxury Real Estate: How to Tap into High-End Markets Ahmed Musa, 2024-12-23 The world of luxury real estate is more than just opulent properties; it's a lucrative market brimming with opportunities for Airbnb hosts who want to elevate their business.
