Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Lung Cancer Heine H. Hansen, 2012-12-06 The Europe against Cancer programme has from its inception emphasised the key role which general practitioners must play in the actions necessary to achieve its aim of reducing the incidence and the mortality from cancer in the European Community General practitioners because of their day to day direct and continuing contact with patients play a role not only in primary prevention and education of patients but also in motivating their patients to accept secondary prevention and screening some of it carried out by general practitioners themselves These preventive activities are in addition to their traditional role in the care and management of patients with cancer at home and increasingly their role in active treatment In view of the importance of the general practitioner in the Europe against Cancer programme the European Commission with a view to providing general practitioners with up to date useful information has sponsored the production of this series of publications on organ based cancers especially written for general practitioners MICHEL RICHONNIER Coordinator of the Europe against Cancer programme Commission of the European Communities Brussels Preface To decrease the death rate of lung cancer is today one of the major challenges of medical doctors all over the world In Europe alone one person is dying of lung cancer every two minutes Accordingly most physicians will regularly in their career be confronted with a patient being either suspect of or having a lung cancer The Medical Management of Prostate Cancer II Louis Denis, 1991-04-12 How to treat advanced prostatic cancer remains controversial despite intense basic and clinical research investigating the pathogenesis and natural history of this unique cancer highly prevalent in elderly males Nine experts were asked to meet and discuss the facts This resulting monograph gives an overview of the available knowledge on all aspects of the subject The objective evaluation and consensus opinion of the authors presented here set this book apart from other publications with conflicting viewpoints For readers eager to obtain a comprehensive and balanced view of the thousands of clinical contributions and clear advice on the choices this book is a must Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 Endocrine Therapy of Breast Cancer IV Aron Goldhirsch, 1990 The European School of Oncology came into existence to respond to a need for information education and training in the field of the diagnosis and treatment of cancer There are two main reasons why such an initiative was considered necessary Firstly the teaching of oncology requires a rigorously multidisciplinary approach which is difficult for the Universities to put into practice since their system is mainly disciplinary orientated Secondly the rate of technological development that impinges on the diagnosis and treatment of cancer has been so rapid that it is not an easy task for medical faculties to adapt their curricula flexibly With its residential courses for organ pathologies and the seminars on new techniques laser monoclonal antibodies imaging techniques etc or on the principal therapeutic controversies conservative or mutilating surgery primary or adjuvant chemotherapy radiotherapy alone or integrated it is the ambition of the European School of Oncology to fill a cultural and scientific gap and thereby create a bridge between the University and Industry and between these two and daily medical practice One of the more recent initiatives of ESO has been the institution of permanent study groups also called task forces where a limited number of leading experts are invited to meet once a year with the aim of defining the state of the art and possibly reaching a consensus on future developments in specific fields of oncology

Cancer Immunology, Immunotherapy ,1992 Medical and Health Care Books and Serials in Print ,1997 Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, 1996-09 International Books in Print ,1979 Deutsche Nationalbibliographie und Bibliographie der im Ausland erschienenen deutschsprachigen Veröffentlichungen ,1991 High-dose Cancer Therapy James O.
