Lyricism And The Electric Poems:

Lyricism and the Electric Michael J. Laurence, 1996-02-01 The Poem Electric Seth Perlow, 2018-12-18 An enlightening examination of the relationship between poetry and the information technologies increasingly used to read and write it Many poets and their readers believe poetry helps us escape straightforward logical ways of thinking But what happens when poems confront the extraordinarily rational information technologies that are everywhere in the academy not to mention everyday life Examining a broad array of electronics including the radio telephone tape recorder Cold War era computers and modern day web browsers Seth Perlow considers how these technologies transform poems that we don't normally consider digital From fetishistic attachments to digital images of Emily Dickinson's manuscripts to Jackson Mac Low's appropriation of a huge book of random numbers originally used to design thermonuclear weapons these investigations take Perlow through a revealingly eclectic array of work offering both exciting new voices and reevaluations of poets we thought we knew With close readings of Gertrude Stein Frank O'Hara Amiri Baraka and many others The Poem Electric constructs a distinctive lineage of experimental writers from the 1860s to today Ultimately Perlow mounts an important investigation into how electronic media allows us to distinguish poetic thought from rationalism Posing a necessary challenge to the privilege of information in the digital humanities The Poem Electric develops new ways of reading poetry alongside and against the electronic equipment that is now ubiquitous in our world Lyrical and Dramatic Poems Robert

Browning, 1883 Poetry lyrical, narrative, and satirical of the Civil War. Selected and edited by R. G. W. Richard Grant

Poetry in the Clinic Alan Bleakley, Shane Neilson, 2021-12-30 This book explores previously unexamined overlaps between the poetic imagination and the medical mind It shows how appreciation of poetry can help us to engage with medicine in more intense ways based on de familiarising old habits and bringing poetic forms of close reading to the clinic Bleakley and Neilson carry out an extensive critical examination of the well established practices of narrative medicine to show that non narrative lyrical poetry does different kind of work previously unexamined such as place eclipsing time They articulate a groundbreaking lyrical medicine that promotes aesthetic ethical and political practices as well as noting the often concealed metaphor cache of biomedicine Demonstrating that ambiguity is a key resource in both poetry and medicine the authors anatomise poetic and medical practices as forms of extended and situated cognition grounded in close readings of singular contexts They illustrate structural correspondences between poetic diction and clinical thinking such as use of sound and metaphor This provocative examination of the meaningful overlap between poetic and clinical work is an essential read for researchers and practitioners interested in extending the reach of medical and health humanities narrative medicine medical education and English literature
