

A photograph of a man with dark hair, wearing a long white robe with wide sleeves, walking on a paved path. The robe has a small, colorful, abstract design on the lower left side. He is looking towards the camera with a serious expression. The background is a lush green landscape with bushes and a white building in the distance.

Erologie, la religion de l'amour Thierry Cumps,2014-09-30 Tout le monde sait ou devrait savoir que les trois grandes religions monothistes le judaïsme le christianisme et l'islam se sont imposées par la force en écrasant les autres religions ou en convertissant de force ceux qui ne croyaient pas Ce ne sera pas le cas avec la religion de l'amour Il y a suffisamment de preuves pour que celui qui veut réfléchir comprenne quel point les trois grandes religions monothistes ont forgé dans le mensonge et qu'elles aliènent l'individu On parle clairement d'aliénation mentale tellement ces religions le judaïsme le christianisme et l'islam peuvent rendre fou celui qui y croit Au contraire d'un Dieu hypothétique et invisible et même inexistant l'amour n'a pas besoin d'être prouvé L'amour existe et vous l'avez rencontré au moins une fois dans votre vie L'amour d'un homme pour une femme l'amour d'une femme pour un homme l'amour des parents pour leurs enfants etc Julien

George Sand's heroine with all the poetry turned into ridicule Flaubert seems to say in every page of his work Do you want to know what is the real Valentine the real Indiana the real Lelia Here she is it is Emma Roualt And do you want to know what becomes of a woman whose education has consisted in George Sand's books Here she is Emma Roualt So that the terrible mocker of the bourgeois has written a book which is directly inspired by the spirit of the 1840 bourgeois Their recriminations against romanticism which rehabilitates and poetises the courtesan against George Sand the Muse of Adultery are to be found in acts and facts in Madame Bovary Now the largest interest of this correspondence depends precisely upon the continuance beneath an affectionate personal relationship of a fundamental antagonism of interests and beliefs resolutely maintained on both sides George Sand with her lifelong passion for propaganda and reformation labors earnestly to bring Flaubert to her point of view to remould him nearer to her heart's desire He with a playful deference to the sex and years of his friend addresses her in his letters as Dear Master Yet in the essentials of the conflict though she never gives over her effort he never budes a jot he has taken his ground and in his last unfinished work Bouvard and Pecuchet he dies stubbornly fortifying his position To the last she speaks from a temperament lyrical sanguine imaginative optimistic and sympathetic he from a temperament dramatic melancholy observing cynical and satirical She insists upon natural goodness he upon innate depravity She urges her faith in social regeneration he vents his splenetic contempt for the mob Through all the successive shocks of disillusioning experience she expects the renovation of humanity by some religious some semi mystical amelioration of its heart he grimly concedes the greater part of humanity to the devil and can see no escape for the remnant save in science and aristocratic organization For her finally the literary art is an instrument of social salvation it is her means of touching the world with her ideals her love her aspiration for him the literary art is the avenue of escape from the meaningless chaos of existence it is his subtly critical condemnation of the world The origins of these unreconciled antipathies lie deep beneath the personal relationship of George Sand and Gustave Flaubert lie deep beneath their successors who with more or less of amenity in their manners are still debating the same questions today The main currents of the nineteenth century with fluent and refluxing tides clash beneath the controversy and as soon as one hears its long withdrawing roar and thinks it is dying away and is become a part of ancient history it begins again and will be heard no doubt by the last man as a solemn accompaniment to his final contention with his last adversary
