Mabo Life Of An Island Man:

Australian Cinema After Mabo Felicity Collins, Therese Davis, 2004-10-27 Publisher Description Mabo, 2011

Mabo Margaret Smith, 1997 Review of the film Mabo life of an island man the life of Eddie Mabo and the story of the High Court struggle People in Australia's Past Susan Boyer, 2011 This book contains language activities to accompany each story of courage achievement and fame about people in Australia's past Reconciliation and Colonial Power Damien Short, 2016-04-08 In 1991 Australia instigated a national reconciliation project between indigenous and non indigenous people Despite being the longest running reconciliation process there has been no authoritative study of Australian reconciliation to date Reconciliation and Colonial Power is the first book to analyze Australian reconciliation as a process filling a significant gap in theoretical and empirical understanding Damien Short offers a sociological interpretation of this process which suggests that rather than being a genuine attempt at atonement Australian reconciliation is perhaps better understood as the latest stage in the colonial project He considers the relevance of acknowledgement and apology restitution and rights nation building and state legitimacy to the reconciliation project This work compliments the burgeoning literature on reconciliation theory and practice and provides fertile material for comparisons with reconciliation processes in other countries such as Chile and South Africa Mabos Cultural Legacy Geoff Rodoreda, Eva Bischoff, 2021-06-08 More than any other event in Australia's legal political and cultural history the High Court of Australia's 1992 Mabo decision challenged previous ways of thinking about land identity belonging the nation and history Now more than a quarter of a century after Mabo this book examines the broader impacts of this landmark legal decision on various forms of Australian culture and cultural practice How is Australia's post Mabo imaginary being reflected refracted and articulated in contemporary film fiction poetry biography and other forms of cultural expression To what extent has the discussion and practice of history linguistics anthropology and other branches of the humanities been challenged or transformed by Mabo While the judges in Mabo recognised native title they also denied Indigenous people sovereignty over the continent how is First Nations sovereignty being articulated and creatively imagined in more recent post Mabo discourse This interdisciplinary book offering a transnational perspective via scholars based in Australia continental Europe and the UK provides an overview of the diverse impact and discursive influence of Mabo on fields of artistic endeavour and cultural practice in Australia today

Identity and Justice Debbie Rodan, 2004 Debbie Rodan adds breadth and depth to the field of literary cultural and gender studies through a meticulous investigation of notions such as representation justice and legitimation She examines their historical and philosophical trajectories as well as their politico juridical underpinnings through an ambitious and timely recuperation of the Enlightenment projects of rationality and emancipation The point of departure is a critical engagement with the theoretical work of John Rawls Jürgen Habermas and Jean-François Lyotard Rodan claims each can be read as foregrounding diverse ways of constituting identity within the social world Recognition of other people's identity at the social cultural and national level is crucial to the possibility of justice Rodan tests the concepts of justice legitimization and identity through detailed critical readings analyses of a range of texts The range includes the film East is East a number of autobiographical narratives as well as the Australian government report Bringing Them Home which is concerned with the removal of Aboriginal children from their families She avoids polarising Aboriginal non Aboriginal notions of justice identity etc by including texts which raise and problematise questions of ethnicity and gender Historical Dictionary of Australian and New Zealand Cinema Karina Aveyard, Albert Moran, Errol Vieth, 2017-12-26 Filmmakers have honed their skills and many have achieved critical and popular success at home and abroad as have actors and other crew American filmmakers and companies have found it cheaper to make films in Australia because wages and salaries are lower tax rebates have been attractive and the expertise in most areas of filmmaking is comparable to that of anywhere in the world At the same time Australian audiences still enjoy watching Australian films making some of them profitable even if this is a small profit when considered in Hollywood terms New Zealand filmmakers cast and crew have shown that they are equal to the world's best in making films with international themes while other films have shown that the world is interested in New Zealand narratives and settings Increased support for Maori filmmakers and stories has had a significant impact on production levels and on the diversity of stories that now reach the screen It has also helped create more viable career paths for those who continue to be based in their home country This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Australian and New Zealand Cinema contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on leading films as well as many directors writers actors and producers It also covers early pioneers film companies genres and government bodies Australian Documentary Trish FitzSimons, Pat Laughren, Dugald Williamson, 2011-01-31 Australian Documentary brings to life over a century of documentary making Documentary Screens Keith Beattie, 2017-04-29 Documentary productions encompass remarkable representations of surprising realities How do documentaries achieve their ends What types of documentaries are there What factors are implicated in their production Such questions animate this engaging study Documentary Screens is a comprehensive and critical study of the formal features and histories of central categories of documentary film and television Among the categories examined are autobiographical indigenous and ethnographic documentary compilation films direct cinema and cinema verite and television documentary journalism The book also considers recent so called popular factual entertainment and the future of documentary film television and new media This provocative and accessible analysis situates wide ranging examples from each category within the larger material forces which impact on documentary form and content The important connection between form content and context explored in the book constitutes a new and lively documentary studies approach to documentary representation Sharing Success, an Indigenous Perspective, 2003 Sharing success an indigenous perspective papers from the second national Australian Indigenous Education Conference Woven Histories, Dancing Lives Richard Davis, 2004 Woven Histories Dancing Lives is a collection of essays that communicates the unique histories and cultures of Torres Strait Islanders to a broad audience Not only have Islanders long absorbed the cultural influences from two surrounding landmasses and more recently negotiated the development of two nations in the region their lives have been transformed by 150 years of immigration and new economic and political conditions In this collection readers will discover the remarkable cultural diversity that has emerged from this history The contributors offer new reflections on inter ethnic relationships identity concerns gender relations and the political struggles of Islanders BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Indigenous Peoples Victoria R. Williams,2020-02-24 The book is an essential resource for those interested in investigating the lives histories and futures of indigenous peoples around the world Perfect for readers looking to learn more about cultural groups around the world this four volume work examines approximately 400 indigenous groups globally The encyclopedia investigates the history social structure and culture of peoples from all corners of the world including their role in the world their politics and their customs and traditions Alphabetically arranged entries focus on groups living in all world regions some of which are well known with large populations and others that are lesser known with only a handful of surviving members Each entry includes sections on the group s geography and environment history and politics society culture and tradition access to health care and education and threats to survival Each entry concludes with See Also cross references and a list of Further Reading resources to guide readers in their research Also included in the encyclopedia are Native Voices inset boxes allowing readers a glimpse into the daily lives of members of these indigenous groups as well as an appendix featuring the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Caught on Screen James Findlay,2025-09-18 From innocent criminals to radical revolutionaries feisty feminists to manly pioneers egalitarian settlers to violent invaders Caught on Screen shows how over successive generations the shape shifting convict emerged on screen as a potent historical symbol Convicts loom large in Australian history As transported criminals and the first European settlers they have shackled the nation to a curious and contested origin story Historians were largely silent on their exploits until the second half of the twentieth century but before then a tradition of convict representation on screen appeared with the rise of cinema taking hold of the popular imagination From silent films to more recent television series screen culture has elevated the convict experience to become a key historical narrative through which filmmakers and audiences have repeatedly reframed and challenged an understanding of Australia s colonial past Caught on Screen traverses this history of convict representation for the first time Through detailed archival research into their production and reception the book explores engaging case studies produced in Australia and internationally including the work of Douglas Sirk Alfred Hitchcock and Jennifer Kent It illuminates the fact that the convict as historical symbol is one that intersected with and helped to direct major debates about nationalism the legacies of colonisation Aboriginal dispossession and the origins and character of Australian society Crossing the Great Divide Rod Moss,2019-04-01 The memoirs and paintings that Rod Moss has produced during the last 35 years are unique in their dramatisation of the lives of his trusting Aboriginal family and have been critically acclaimed nationally and internationally In his third memoir we follow the nurturing of the curiosity and openness that has fastened him to the luminous power of Central Australia and its First Peoples From the foothills of Victoria's Dandenong Ranges and his city based art education we are taken to the Mallee where he first embraces the climate most conducive to his wellbeing He returns to the city and is invited to participate in Melbourne's dynamic experimental small school movement A year is spent in the USA studying the teachings of Armenian philosopher George Gurdjieff in a rural community Shenandoah farm setting Travel widens Moss' perceptions and continues to pique his curiosity A trip to a Pilbara Indigenous community opens the door on the Aboriginal world that he will spend the rest of his life coming to terms with In Crossing the Great Divide Rod Moss shows the reader through his formative years in 1950s and 1960s Victoria and through young adulthood in the 1970s He weaves his experiences together with sensitivity and a painterly eye

The A to Z of Australian and New Zealand Cinema Albert Moran, Errol Vieth, 2009-07-21 Whether it was Jane Campion's The Piano Mel Gibson in Mad Max Paul Hogan in Crocodile Dundee or The Lord of the Rings saga we have all experienced the cinema of Australia and New Zealand This book is an introduction and guide to the film of Australia and New Zealand With entries on many exceptional producers directors writers and actors as well as the films indicated above and many others this reference also presents the early pioneers the film companies and government bodies and much more in its hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries Through a chronology that shows how far these cinemas have come in a short time and an introduction that presents them more broadly a clear portrait of the two countries' motion pictures emerge The bibliography is an excellent source for further reading

Mabo Trevor Graham, 1999 Almost single handedly Eddie Koiki Mabo overturned a 200 year legal fiction that Australia was uninhabited prior to European settlement In doing so he won for Aboriginals and Torres Strait Islanders the right to claim for themselves all remaining crown land in Australia providing they could prove an unbroken chain of traditional ownership This book contains the complete shooting script of this remarkable documentary plus the post production script an exact record cut by cut of the finished film

Indigenous Law Bulletin, 2000

Recognizing Aboriginal Title Peter H. Russell, 2005-12-15 A judicial revolution occurred in 1992 when Australia's highest court discarded a doctrine that had stood for two hundred years that the country was a terra nullius a land of no one when the white man arrived The proceedings were known as the Mabo Case named for Eddie Koiki Mabo the Torres Strait Islander who fought the notion that the Australian Aboriginal people did not have a system of land ownership before European colonization The case had international repercussions especially on the four countries in which English settlers are the dominant population Australia Canada New Zealand and the United States In Recognizing Aboriginal Title Peter H Russell offers a comprehensive study of the Mabo case its background and its consequences contextualizing it within the international struggle of Indigenous peoples to overcome their colonized status Russell weaves together an historical narrative of Mabo's life with an account of the legal and ideological premises of European imperialism and their eventual challenge by the global forces of decolonization. He traces the development of Australian law and policy in relation to Aborigines and provides a detailed examination of the decade of litigation that led to the Mabo case. Mabo died at the age of fifty-six just five months before the case was settled. Although he had been exiled from his land over a dispute when he was a teenager, he was buried there as a hero. Recognizing Aboriginal Title is a work of enormous importance by a legal and constitutional scholar of international renown, written with a passion worthy of its subject: a man who fought hard for his people and won.

Teaching Aboriginal Studies Rhonda Craven, 2020-07-23

Teaching Aboriginal Studies has been a practical guide for classroom teachers in primary and secondary schools as well as student teachers across Australia. Chapters on Aboriginal history and culture, stereotypes and racism, government policies and reconciliation provide essential knowledge for integrating Aboriginal history and culture issues and perspectives across the curriculum. This second edition of Teaching Aboriginal Studies encompasses developments over the past decade in Aboriginal affairs, Aboriginal education and research. It features a wide range of valuable teaching sources, including poetry, images, oral histories, media and government reports. There are also strategies for teaching Aboriginal Studies in different contexts and the latest research findings. The text is lavishly illustrated with photographs, posters, paintings, prints, ads and cartoons. Teaching Aboriginal Studies is the product of consultation and collaboration across Australia. Remarkable educators and achievers, both Aboriginal and other Australians, tell what teachers need to know and do to help Aboriginal students reach their potential, educate all students about Aboriginal Australia and make this country all that we can be. The importance of this book cannot be overestimated. We have been insisting for years that pre-service teachers be required to learn about Aboriginal history, culture and identity and that it be regarded as integral to qualifying for their education degrees.
