Gratuitous recounting of how Shadwell responded to Dryden's opus Johnnie D got beat up by some toughs      Mac Flecknoe
John Dryden, 1970 The Charles E Merrill Literary Casebook Series deals with short literary works arbitrarily defines here as works which can be easily read in a single setting Accordingly the series will concentrate on poems short stories brief dramas and literary essays These casebooks are designed to be used in literature courses or in practical criticism courses where the instructor wants to expose his students to an extensive and intensive study of a single short work or in composition courses where the instructor wants to expose his students to the discipline of writing a research paper on literary text All of the casebooks in the series follow this format 1 1 foreword 2 the author's introduction 3 the text of the literary work 4 a number of critical articles on the literary work 5 suggested topics for short papers on the literary work 6 suggested topics for long 10 15 pages papers on the literary 7 a selective bibliography of additional readings on the literary work 8 general instructions for the writing of a research paper Some of the casebooks especially those dealing with poetry may carry an additional section which contains such features as variant versions of the work a closely related literary work comments by the author and his contemporaries on the work Edward P J Corbett      An Essay on Criticism, and Other Poems Alexander Pope, 1898      The Making of Restoration Poetry Paul Hammond, 2006 A survey of Restoration poetry from the forms in which it was disseminated to studies of important texts This book explores the complex ways in which authors publishers and readers contributed to the making of Restoration poetry The essays in Part I map some principal aspects of Restoration poetic culture how poetic canons were established through both print and manuscript how censorship operated within the manuscript transmission of erotic and politically sensitive poems the poetic functions of authorial anonymity the work of allusion and intertextual reference the translation and adaptation of classical poetry and the poetic representations of Charles II Part II turns to individual poets and charts the making of Dryden's canon the ways in which Mac Flecknoe operates through intertextual allusions the relationship of the variant texts of Marvell's To his Coy Mistress and the treatment of Rochester's canon and text by his modern editors The discussions are complemented by illustrations drawn from both printed books and manuscripts PAUL HAMMOND is Professor of Seventeenth Century Literature at the University of Leeds
Notes and Queries William John Thoms, 1873      The Wit of Seventeenth-century Poetry Claude J. Summers, Ted-Larry Pebworth, 1995 As the twelve original essays collected in this volume demonstrate to study the wit of seventeenth century poetry is necessarily to address concerns at the very heart of the period's shifting literary culture It is a topic that raises persistent questions of thematics and authorial intent even as it interrogates a wide spectrum of cultural practices These essays by some of the most renowned scholars in seventeenth century studies illuminate important authors and engage issues of politics and religion of secular and sacred love of literary theory and poetic technique of gender relations and historical consciousness of literary history and social change as well as larger concerns of literary production and smaller ones of local effects Collectively they illustrate the vitality of the topic both in its own right and as a means of understanding the complexity and range of seventeenth century English poetry
