A Search for Truth Ray Weaver Sr.,2014-07-30 Each day you wake up you are facing the first day of the rest of your life What does that mean to you Is it just another day a planned set of activities work school boredom or questioning why or what is next Where are you going why and for what purpose Is it important to you or anyone else How do you relate to yourself and to others in your life or to those you might come in contact with Some of us are quiet others talk a lot Some question everything and some just take life as it happens without caring too much Are we changeable or have we changed over our lifetime or more importantly do we want to change What is important to you What is true and real

Scripture and Counseling Bob Kelleman,2014-10-07 What role does Scripture play in counseling Today we face a weakening of confidence in the Bible This is just as true for the pastor offering counsel in his office as it is for the person in the pew talking with a struggling friend We need to regain our confidence in God s living Word as sufficient to address the real life issues we face today Scripture and Counseling will help you understand how the Bible equips us to grow in counseling competence as we use it to tackle the complex issues of life Divided into two sections Part One develops a robust biblical view of Scripture s sufficiency for life and godliness leading to increased confidence in God s Word Part Two teaches how to use Scripture in the counseling process This section demonstrates how a firm grasp of the sufficiency of Scripture leads to increased competence in the ancient art of personally ministering God s Word to others Part of the Biblical Counseling Coalition series Scripture and Counseling brings you the wisdom of twenty ministry leaders who write so you can have confidence that God s Word is sufficient necessary and relevant to equip God s people to address the complex issues of life in a broken world It blends theological wisdom with practical expertise and is accessible to pastors church leaders counseling practitioners and students equipping them to minister the truth and power of God s word in the context of biblical counseling soul care spiritual direction pastoral care and small group facilitation
