Western equivalent to the value creating route that embodies the humanitarian spirit of Confucianism accommodating simultaneously social and economic values to accelerate innovation during internationalization in existing literatures This book offers a more holistic picture and contemporary interpretation for identifying and characterizing the unorthodox innovation patterns and the perplexing value creating logic of Asia Pacific BMs at the crossroads of diverse cultures It was originally published as a special issue of the Asia Pacific Business Review This book is supported by the National Natural Science Foundation of China No 72272136 71988101 Bilateral Trade Agreements in the Asia-Pacific Vinod Aggarwal, Shujiro Urata, 2013-06-17 The Asia Pacific region has witnessed a rapid rise in bilateral preferential trade agreements at the beginning of the twenty first century This trend could have potentially dramatic effects on the trading patterns of countries in the transpacific region and beyond Some argue that these accords will spur multilateral negotiations while others believe that they will irreparably damage the trading system Bilateral Trade Agreements in the Asia Pacific examines the underlying political and economic factors driving these accords based on a novel theoretical framework Experts then provide overviews of political and economic trends in the region as well as detailed analysis of the trade strategies of Japan China Singapore South Korea Malaysia Taiwan Thailand the United States and Mexico By systematically evaluating and assessing the driving forces underlying the turn to bilateral trade agreements in the Asia Pacific this book provides the first comprehensive analysis of this crucial phenomenon Growing numbers of countries both in the region and elsewhere in the world are now considering further negotiation of bilateral trade accords Understanding how these arrangements will fit or conflict with existing institutions in the Asia Pacific and the WTO makes this book imperative reading for policy makers and scholars Asia-Pacific Raymond Frederick Watters, T. G. McGee, Ginny Sullivan, 1997 The great processes reshaping our world today can be summed up by the term globalisation Together with the communications revolution and massive urbanisation it is reshaping the organisation of global space It is illustrated by technological change pronounced economic growth the dominance of giant corporations ever more open markets and universal consumption Dramatic developments have occurred in Asia Pacific trade investment labour movements and political cooperation marked for example by APEC a giant free trade area designed to encompass about 60% of the world's population and half the world's economy But the processes also create social tension political reaction and local resistance as a result of regional restructuring widening regional disparities the neglect of backward areas or imposed modernisation Asia Pacific New Geographies of the Pacific Rim written by leading scholars from the region examines the extent to which Pacific Rim economies especially East Asia and Southeast Asia are increasingly integrated and considers the economic political and cultural forces at work In the process many new geographies are being created or reconstructed At the same time the local global dialectic whereby local forces react to negotiate with resist or capitulate to global forces is examined Part I analyses globalisation and the emergence of sub global regions Part II the processes of change in Asia Pacific and Part III the national responses to globalisation Part IV
