Machine Transcription Carol A. Mitchell, 1995 Machine Transcription and Word Processing William R. Pasewark, 1986-10 The Transcriptionist Amy Rowland, 2014-05-13 Haunting and provocative Rowland's writing is compelling and masterful Delia Ephron author of The Lion Is In Once there were many transcriptionists at the Record a behemoth New York City newspaper but new technology has put most of them out of work So now Lena the last transcriptionist sits alone in a room a human conduit silently turning reporters recorded stories into print until the day she encounters a story so shocking that it shatters the reverie that has become her life This exquisite novel written by an author who spent more than a decade as a transcriptionist at the New York Times asks probing questions about journalism and ethics about the decline of the newspaper and the failure of language It is also the story of a woman's effort to establish her place in an increasingly alien and alienating world The Transcriptionist is suffused with prescient insight into journalism ethics and alienation A thought provoking original work New York Journal of Books Rowland seems that rare thing the naturally gifted novelist She deftly maps a very specific kind of urban loneliness the inner ache of the intelligent damaged soul who prefers the company of ideas and words to that of people That urge to make words holy is at the heart of this novel's strange sad beauty The Washington Post The Transcriptionist holds many pleasures and can be read through many lenses Rowland plays with the notions of truth and reliability Sharp and affecting The New York Times Book Review A strange mesmerizing novel about the decline of newspapers and the subsequent loss of humanity and yes these are related Booklist starred review Ambitious and fascinating Disturbing and powerful Library Journal Entering the city Rowland creates with its tightly strung dialogue and soulful lonely citizens is a memorable experience The Boston Globe Unforgettable Written with such delight compassion and humanity it's newsworthy Alex Gilvarry author of From the Memoirs of a Non Enemy Combatant Hearings United States.
