Madam Eves Greatest Hits:

Mother Anderson's Secret Book of Wit & Wisdom Stephen Francis, 2011 Based on South Africa's beloved comic strip this special volume features Madam Eve's favorite grandmother Mother Anderson as she shares her thoughts on surviving life's twists and turns with a little help from her old friend gin and tonic Cantankerous yet warm and witty Mother Anderson is depicted watching television and fighting with both Eve her daughter's maid and the mielie lady who frequently wakes the combative granny from her naps while selling ears of corn on the street Entertaining and politically aware this book provides a cynical and lighthearted perspective on life in South Africa The Pothole at the End of the Rainbow Stephen

Francis, Rico, 2011 The New Madam Eve Collection Cover Madam & Eve, the Maidtrix Stephen Francis, 2003 Strike While the Iron is Hot Stephen Francis, Rico, 2009 The annual of South Africa's most popular cartoon strip is eagerly awaited by readers for whom the main characters have become icons of postapartheid life This year amidst gags howlers and outrageous punch lines Eve tries her hand at restructuring the cabinet only to be obstructed by VIP blue lights 00Z Somali Pirates of the Caribbean and Zuma's bodyguards Twenty Stephen Francis, Rico, 2012 Two decades after its conception this humoristic cartoon series is still South Africa's best reminder to laugh at itself as a society Hilarious and iconic the family of Madam Eve Thandi and Mother Anderson are dysfunctional chaotic and an unfailingly satirical reflection of everyday life Highlighting classic cartoons from the past 20 years this annual collection is the ultimate collector's item

Madam & Eve Stephen Francis, Rico, 2002 Madam & Eve Unplugged Stephen Francis, Rico, 2008 Madam & Eve's Greatest Hits Stephen Francis, Harry Dugmore, 1997 In this collection S Francis H Dugmore and Rico pay tribute to their creation with a compilation of their favourite cartoons from their first five years It includes never before published artwork humorous anecdotes behind the scenes true stories and embarrassing moments Like Family Ena Jansen, 2019-04-01 An analytic and historical perspective of literary texts to understand the position of domestic workers in South Africa More than a million black South African women are domestic workers Precariously situated between urban and rural areas rich and poor white and black these women are at once intimately connected and at a distant remove from the families they serve Ena Jansen shows that domestic worker relations in South Africa were shaped by the institution of slavery establishing social hierarchies and patterns of behavior that persist today To support her argument Jansen examines the representation of domestic workers in a diverse range of texts in English and Afrikaans Authors include Andr Brink JM Coetzee Imraan Coovadia Nadine Gordimer Elsa Joubert Antjie Krog Sindiwe Magona Kopano Matlwa Es'kia Mphahlele Sisonke Msimang Zukiswa Wanner and Zo Wicomb Like Family is an updated version of the award winning Soos familie 2015 and the highly acclaimed 2016 Dutch translation Bijna familie Crouching Madam, Hidden Maid Stephen Francis, Rico, 2001 The Madams are Restless Stephen Francis, 2000 Insiders and Outsiders Francis B. Nyamnjoh, 2013-07-04 This study of xenophobia and how it both exploits and excludes is an incisive commentary on a globalizing world and its consequences for ordinary people's lives Using the examples of Sub Saharan Africa's two most economically successful nations it meticulously documents the fate of immigrants and the new politics of insiders and outsiders As globalization becomes a palpable reality citizenship sociality and belonging are subjected to stresses to which few societies have devised a civil response beyond yet more controls

The Short Story in South Africa Rebecca Fasselt, Corinne Sandwith, 2022-03-24 This book considers the key critical interventions on short story writing in South Africa written in English since the year 2000 The short story genre whilst often marginalised in national literary canons has been central to the trajectory of literary history in South Africa In recent years the short story has undergone a significant renaissance with new collections and young writers making a significant impact on the contemporary literary scene and subgenres such as speculative fiction erotic fiction flash fiction and queer fiction expanding rapidly in popularity This book examines the role of the short story genre in reflecting or championing new developments in South African writing and the ways in which traditional boundaries and definitions of the short story in South Africa have been reimagined in the present Drawing together a range of critical interventions including scholarly articles interviews and personal reflective pieces the volume traces some of the aesthetic and thematic continuities and discontinuities in the genre and sheds new light on questions of literary form Finally the book considers the place of the short story in twenty first century writing and interrogates the ways in which the short story form may contribute to or recast ideas of the post apartheid or post transitional The perfect guide to contemporary short story writing in South Africa this book will be essential reading for researchers of African literature

Bring Me My (new) Washing Machine Stephen Francis, 2007

At Home with Apartheid Rebecca Ginsburg, 2011-08-30 Despite their peaceful bucolic appearance the tree lined streets of South African suburbia were no refuge from the racial tensions and indignities of apartheid's most repressive years In At Home with Apartheid Rebecca Ginsburg provides an intimate examination of the cultural landscapes of Johannesburg's middle and upper middle class neighborhoods during the height of apartheid c 1960 1975 and incorporates recent scholarship on gender the home and family More subtly but no less significantly than factory floors squatter camps prisons and courtrooms the homes of white South Africans were sites of important contests between white privilege and black aspiration Subtle negotiations within the domestic sphere between white mostly female householders and their black domestic workers also primarily women played out over and around this space These seemingly mundane private conflicts were part of larger contemporary struggles between whites and blacks over territory and power Ginsburg gives special attention to the distinct social and racial geographies produced by the workers detached living quarters designed by builders and architects as landscape complements to the main houses Ranch houses Italianate villas modernist cubes and Victorian bungalows filled Johannesburg's suburbs What distinguished these neighborhoods from their precedents in the United States or the United Kingdom was the presence of the ubiquitous back rooms and of the African women who inhabited them in these otherwise exclusively white areas The author conducted more than seventy five personal interviews for this book and approach that sets it apart from other architectural histories In addition to these oral accounts Ginsburg draws from plans drawings and onsite analysis of the physical properties themselves While the issues addressed span the disciplines of South African and architectural history feminist studies material culture studies and psychology the book s strong narrative powerful oral histories and compelling subject matter bring the neighborhoods and residents it examines vividly to life

It's a Jungle Out There Stephen Francis, Harry Dugmore, Rico, 1998 Jacobs' Orchestra Monthly, 1915 South African national bibliography, 1997 Classified list with author and title index Focus, 1998 Friends and Enemies Dorothy Rowe, 2000 At the end of each of her books Dorothy Rowe describes how happiness and satisfaction come not just from achievements but from enjoying good relationships with other people To date however she has not explored what constitutes a rewarding friendship and in this book she sets out to do just that
