Major Douglas And Alberta Social Credit:

Major Douglas and Alberta Social Credit Bob Hesketh, 1997 The Social Credit Movement had a Broad and significant impact on the social and political history of Alberta A number of authors have examined this phenomenon usually focusing on the economic and social conditions that influenced Social Credit s rise to power Major Douglas and Alberta Social Credit Ideology however is the first work dedicated expressly to the intellectual history of the Social Credit government of the 1930s and 1940s Bob Hesketh challenges us to revise previous thinking about Social Credit by placing new emphasis on the influence of Major C H Douglas s conspiracy based ideology on the Aberhart and Manning governments The author is the first to contend that Douglas s beliefs were strongly influenced by the infamous anti Semitic book The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion Douglas believed that a Jewish financial conspiracy with the single goal of enslaving mankind was orchestrating world events Hesketh analyses the shared ground between Douglas s conspiratorial thinking and the fundamentalism of Aberhart and Manning He suggests that both Premiers understood and applied Douglas s teachings to a wide variety of government policies from the famous monetary bills to numerous lesser known economic diversification initiatives This book develops important new interpretations of Social Credit s behaviour as a movement party and government providing an unprecedented focus on ideology It will be an essential reference for historians and political scientists concerned with the history of Social Credit in Alberta

The Social Credit Movement in Alberta John A. Irving, 1959-12-15 On the night of August 22 1935 as Canadians listened to their radios they heard with amazement and incredulity that the first Social Credit government in the world had been elected that day in the province of Alberta Before the tabulation of votes was completed telephone calls from New York and London headlines in newspapers spot news in broadcasts had confirmed the slogan of Social Crediters The Eyes of the World are on Alberta The morning after the election a number of people lined up at the city hall in Calgary to collect the first installment of the Social Credit dividend of 25 monthly which they confidently believed would be immediately forthcoming from their new government This quotation from Professor Irving s book indicates how the apparent suddenness of the Social Credit rise to power and the magnitude of the victory aroused world wide comment Why had the doctrines of Social Credit promoted unsuccessfully in the British Commonwealth and the United States for nearly twenty years achieved political acceptance in Alberta Why had the people of Alberta elected to public office persons so little experienced in the economic and political world as William Aberhart and his Social Credit colleagues Professor Iving answers these questions and analyses systematically and comprehensively the rise of the movement as a phenomenon of mass psychology His study based mainly on interviews supplemented with references to private papers newspapers and government sources provides a truly fascinating record

Social Classes and Social Credit in Alberta Edward Bell, 1993 The Social Credit party in Alberta has traditionally been presented as petty bourgeois in its ideology and appeals reflecting what was believed to be the dominant class in the province at the time Edward Bell challenges these widely held interpretations of the ideology popular class basis and behaviour in office of the early Social Credit movement 1932 40 The Social Credit Phenomenon in Alberta Alvin Finkel, 1989-01-01 In this account of the Social Credit transformation Alvin Finkel challenges earlier works which focus purely on Social Credit monetary fixations and religiosity Social Discredit Janine Stingel, 2000 In Social Discredit Janine Stingel exposes a crucial yet previously neglected part of Social Credit history the virulent anti Jewish campaign it undertook before during and after the Second World War While most Canadians acknowledged the perils of race hatred in the wake of the Holocaust Social Credit intensified its anti Semitic campaign By examining Social Credit s anti Semitic propaganda and the reaction of the Canadian Jewish Congress Stingel details their mutual antagonism and explores why Congress was unable to stop Social Credit s blatant defamation She argues that Congress s ineffective response was part of a broader problem in which passivity and a belief in quiet diplomacy undermined many of its efforts to combat intolerance Stingel shows that both Social Credit and Congress changed considerably in the post war period as Social Credit abandoned its anti Semitic trappings and Congress gradually adopted an assertive and pugnacious public relations philosophy that made it a champion of human rights in Canada Social Discredit offers a fresh perspective on both the Social Credit movement and the Canadian Jewish Congress substantively revising Social Credit historiography and providing a valuable addition to Canadian Jewish studies

Antisemitism in Canada Alan Davies, 2006-01-01 This book is the first collection of scholarly essays to treat the topic of antisemitism in Canada a complete history of which has yet to be written Eleven leading thinkers in the field examine antisemitism in Canada from the colonial era to the present day in essays which reflect the saga of the nation itself The history of the Jewish community its struggles and its fortunes is mirrored in the wider history of Canada from Confederation to the present The contributors cast light on Canadian antisemitism through a thorough examination of old and new tensions including Anglo French east west and Jewish Ukrainian relations Attitudes to Jews in pre Confederation Canada French Canada from Confederation to World War I as well as the interwar years and in twentieth century Ontario and Alberta from 1880 1950 are illustrated in various chapters Of particular interest are the examinations of such well known figures as Goldwin Smith the greatly admired liberal historian of Victorian Canada Adrien Arcand the would be F hrer from Quebec and James Keegstra and Ernst Z del of more recent notoriety Analyses are also provided of Nazism and Canadian Protestantism and Jewish Ukrainian relations since World War II This is a complex and contentious subject yet to understand the ideas and forces that have sought to undermine the Jewish presence in Canada is to understand the dangers that threaten any democratic society and thereby to guard against them This compelling collection of essays offers intelligent readable accounts of an area of Canadian history about which we know too little Great Depression Veronica B. Wilkins, 2020 Learn about the causes main events key players and lasting impacts of the Great Depression Alberta Premiers of the Twentieth Century University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, 2004 From the optimism associated with provincial status in 1905 through the trials of Depression and war the boom times of the post war period and the economic vagaries of the 1980s and the 1990s the twentieth century was a time of growth and hardship development and change for Alberta and its people And during the century twelve men from a variety of political parties and from very different backgrounds led the government of this province The names of some like William Aberhart Ernest Manning and Peter Lougheed are still household names while others like Arthur Sifton Herbert Greenfield and Richard Reid have been all but forgotten Yet each in his unique way for better or for worse helped to mould and steer the destiny of the province he governed These are their stories

The Prairie Agrarian Movement Revisited Kenneth Murray Knuttila, 2007 The formation of the Territorial Grain Growers Association in 1901 was not the only important event in the early history of what has come to be known broadly as the agrarian movement in the Canadian prairies but it was a defining moment in some respects Arguably it signalled the formation of an agrarian class but at least it was an indicator of an awakening of a democratic consciousness among family farmers Ultimately the Association provided a venue for analysis and critique the development of strategies and tactics and of course the nurturing of leadership and organizational forms that would have a profound influence upon politics and the state in the three prairie provinces and the Dominion as well as the creation of co operatives and other forms of direct action These eighteen essays honouring the 100th anniversary in 2001 of the formation of the TGGA explore important aspects of the historical legacy of the agrarian movement and contemplate their relevance to the current setting for the rural prairies pub desc

Democracy in Alberta Crawford Brough Macpherson, 2013-01-01 In addition to offering an original analysis of the party system and Alberta's political structures and institutions Democracy in Alberta presents a fascinating micro history of the social and economic characteristics of Alberta Edge, 1970 Creating Citizens Amy Jeanette Von Heyking, 2006 This work examines how Albertans have interpreted themselves and their world through history and social studies curricula and texts from 1905 to 1980 and shows that these courses more than others addressed issues of identity by creating the country and region's past One Must Not Go Altogether with the Tide Ezra Pound, C. S. Nott, Robin Edward Feenstra, 2011 Ezra Pound 1885-1972 is widely remembered not only as one of the most influential voices in twentieth century literary modernism but also for his notorious anti-Semitic writings and radio broadcasts that supported Mussolini's Italian Fascist regime His ideological turn from poetics and aestheticism to extremist economics and politics has long been an area of controversy within literary studies One Must Not Go Altogether with the Tide collects the letters between Pound and London publisher Stanley Nott 1887-1978 to open a door to Pound's thinking and publications during the 1930s Nott who published Jefferson and or Mussolini 1935 was an interested and encouraging interlocutor for a poet seeking reinvention as an economist and political commentator someone who sustained Pound as he swam against the tide Pound's close involvement with his publisher illuminates an important episode in literary modernism as well as For The study of print culture in the interwar period This edition of the letters retains Pound's idiosyncratic epistolary idiom and analyzes letter writing as a genre critical to Pound's intellectual and cultural project capturing Pound as a collaborator at work The Political Economy of Social Credit and Guild Socialism Brian Burkitt, Frances Hutchinson, 2006-04-14 This work approaches the phenomenon of guild socialism from a new perspective focusing on the Douglas Social Credit movement It explores the key ideas gives an overview of the main theories and traces their subsequent history Thoroughly researched it provides original material relevant to the field of political economy This early approach to non equilibrium economics reveals the extent of the incompatibility between capitalist growth economics and social and environmental sustainability Toward Defining the Prairies Robert Wardhaugh, 2001-04-30 New ways of thinking about literature and history have radically changed how we think about or even define a region like the Prairie West In fact the very concept of defining has come into question by new theoretical approaches and it may now seem a hopeless endeavour But the process of defining can be just as important as the actual production of a definition Toward Defining the Prairies highlights recent approaches to thinking about the Prairie West Bounded by pieces from well known historian Gerald Friesen and Governor General's Award winning writer Robert Kroetsch these 13 essays are as diverse as the region itself In their examination of different aspects of Prairie history literature climate society culture and identity they help to provide a new understanding of this place and of the complexities of its definition Language, Communication and the Economy Guido Erreygers, Geert Jacobs, 2005-01-01 This volume brings together a number of wide ranging transdisciplinary research articles on the interface between discourse studies and economics It explores in what way economics can contribute to the analysis of discursive practices in various institutional settings as well as investigating what role discourse studies can play in economic research The contributors are linguists communication scholars economists and other social scientists drawing on various traditions including Critical Discourse Analysis Cognitive Linguistics ethnography and the literature on the rhetoric of economics and on economic storytelling All articles are essentially empirical focusing on the details of actual language use The type of data analysed ranges from the minutes of university policy meetings and large scale corpora of newspaper language over books of economic theory from both well respected economists and monetary cranks to cartoons from The Economist
