The Carcass & Other Stories Dave Sims, 2020-03-17 I'm pleased to have been asked to write the forward to this collection of splendid and heretofore mostly unseen short stories all of which were written from roughly the mid 1980s to the mid 2000s by my longstanding friend and constant teacher Dave Sims. Mostly the stories transpire in what might reasonably be called working class settings. They're inhabited by a range of peculiar characters, many of them troubled and distressed, some of them near death, all of them ingeniously sprung from Sims' singularly rich and fertile imagination. These are stories that deserve to be read, pondered, and of course enjoyed. While recently re-reading them, I was struck as happened often when I first encountered them years ago by how strange and real and fully alive the characters seemed. I marveled once again at the details and contours of the stories themselves, their beautiful and inventive architecture, the snap and rhythm of the sentences, and the keen, restless intelligence from whence they sprang.

It's Always Sunrise Somewhere and Other Stories Jacques Fleury, 2016-06-21. It's Always Sunrise Somewhere and Other Stories is the author's second publication. This anticipated book will reveal more of his talent. It's a collection of short fictional stories that are imbued with Caribbean flare and with a wide range of topics: i.e. love and loss, the immigrant experience, sex, sexuality, oppression, nostalgia, racism, religion, spirituality, psychopathology, coming of age, and poverty. However, humor, pathos, parody, and most importantly, hope and inspiration, are a reoccurring theme permeating throughout all of the relatively interconnected stories. In 3 am, at the Café, disparate lives intersect with a prostitute, two closeted gay men, a cheating married man, and a waitress who's seen it all. In The Purloined Heart, the supernatural in the form of Haitian Voodoo renders a macabre dance of love. The semi-auto biographical A Candle for Lina, a young boy remembers his Nanny from childhood in Haiti, since all non-native Americans are descendants of immigrants here in the USA, you will most likely identify with the immigrant experience. In The Reason Why Crickets Chirp, experience the pungent punch of racism. In The Whistler's Song, or a controversial re-imagining of a ubiquitous Bible tale. In Nemesis, a bildungsroman and coming out story. In Sultry Boy, a tortured love story between a hefty middle-aged island gal and a married white businessman in the midst of a midlife crisis. In Cri De Coeur, Cry of the Heart, and hope/inspiration rises on the horizon in the title piece It's Always Sunrise Somewhere.

The Wandering Atheist and Other Stories Robin Buckallew, 2018-06-21. Religious literature fills the world, but literature around non-belief is sparse. This book is my small effort to help rectify that and add to the small but growing body of literature that begins in the Enlightenment or earlier. Lucretius comes to mind and stretches in a very thin line to the present. Find out what happens when the United States votes to become officially a Christian nation. Follow along with Lepidus and Derek as they attempt to bring Enlightenment and humanist values to a world that doesn't want them. Visit Hell and speak with Mephistopheles. Find out what happens when a mother faces a challenge to custody of her child simply because she doesn't believe in God.
